PERFORMERS ARE UP IN PARTS

EVERYTHING IS IN READINESS FOR THE PRODUCTION OF "A NIGHT OFF" FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE PARK FUND Nightly rehearsals are the regular order for the members of the cast that will produce "A Night Off" at Houston's opera house Friday evening for the benefit of the city park fund, being raised by the Women's Civic League. Rehearsals are being held at the opera house.
The local lovers of the histrionic art are said to be better perfect in their lines already, and the realistic action they instill into the play has caused many of those who have attended rehearsals to predict that Friday night's play will be the most successful amateur production ever given in Klamath Falls.
The cast of characters for the play follows: Justinian Babbitt (professor of Ancient History) .. Arthur D. Hay Harry Damask (his son-in-law)
..... Herman Foras Jack Mulberry (in pursuit of fortune under the name of Chumley) ..... J. B. McAllister Lord Mulberry (in pursuit of Jack) ..... H. D. Kinneer Marcus Brutus Saap (in pursuit of fame under various legitimate aliases) ..... Jerry Darrell Prowl (usher at university) ...
..... Lawrence Mohaffey Mrs. Babbitt (manager of conjugal happiness in the professor's home) .. Mary A. Jackson Nisbe (the youngest "imp" of the household) .. Mrs. Geo. Capron Angelica Damask (the eldest) ..
..... Mrs. E. V. Morrow Susan (the bruiser) .....
..... Mrs. Charles I. Robertson In addition to the play there will be some rattling good specialties between acts. Reynolds and Elliott, in a "sun-burned" musical skit, and Mrs. E. V. Morrow, Miss Margaret Williams, Lawrence Mohaffey and J.
B. McAllister in a dashing act are two of the stunts, and the third will be equally as good.
The proceeds of the play go toward the purchase of trees and shrubbery for the improvement of the park site just purchased by the park commission.

Mix 'n' Up

By Joe Bush
A few guests at the Elks' reception last night are enjoying a quiet laugh today as a result of an episode of the evening.
When the festivities had quieted down a bit two ladies had stepped into an obscure corner for a quiet conversation. A young man, a stranger to both of them, approached and asked:
"Can you tell me, please, whether or not Mr. Anderson is here?"
"I don't know him," responded one of the ladies.
Just then Secretary Bath approached.
"Oh, Mr. Bath," said one of the ladies, "do you know Mr. Anderson?"
"Very pleased to know you, Mr.
Anderson," said Mr. Bath, grasping the stranger's hand.
"Oh, no; I mean"— But her meaning was interrupted by the approach of Fred Houston.
"Oh, Mr. Houston," cried one of the ladies, "do you know Mr. Anderson?"
"Very glad to know you, Mr. Anderson," said Fred, holding out his hand. But the young man turned and fled down stairs.

KNIGHTS WILL OBSERVE XMAS

FOR THE FIRST TIME IN HISTORY OF CITY, THE LOCAL LODGE OF KNIGHTS TEMPLAR WILL HOLD CELEBRATIONS ON XMAS DAY The first Christmas observance in the history of Cavalry Commandery No. 14 of this city, the newest Knights Templar organization in the state, is being arranged by members. The observance will be held at the Masonic Temple Christmas morning, and will commence at 9 o'clock.
Sir I. Jay Knapp has been appointed master of ceremonies, and the following program has been arranged:
"Our Grand Master,"
Sir E. R. Reames
"The Grand Commandery of Oregon"
Sir Geo. J. Walton
"Knights Templar, Wherever Dispersed"—Sir Geo. T. Baldwin "Departed Sir Knights," Sir E. L. Elliott
Solo: "One Sweetly Solemn Thought"
Sir Geo. J. Walton
"Royal Arch Masons," Sir L. F. Willis
"Ancient Free and Accepted Masons," Sir G. L. Humphreys Song: "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," Commandery
The Christmas exercises of the Knights Templar commence at the same time wherever there is a commandery. The difference in time is computed all over the world, so that the observance here will start at the same time as the observances all over the coast, the Middle West and in the East.
Rosster L. Mikel leaves in a few days for Oakland to spend the holidays with his mother.
The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church will serve a lunch at The Shasta all day Thursday, December 19th. The ladies will sell aprons and fancy articles and all kind of home cooking suitable for Christmas. 14-21

WILSON WILL MEET BRYAN

DEMOCRATIC LEADERS WILL AT-TEND BANQUET TENDERED TO GOVERNOR-ELECT SULESKER SAT-URDAY NIGHT
United Press Service
NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—William Jennings Bryan and Woodrow Wilson will meet at a testimonial dinner to be tendered Governor-elect Sulester on Saturday night. It is rumored that Bryan does not want to be secretary of state, but would prefer to be secretary of the treasury or attorney general.

TASTE, SMELL AND HEARING RESTORED
A SIMPLE, HARMLESS REMEDY QUICKLY RELIEVES CATAR-RAL DEAFNESS
The thousands who suffer the miseries of colds and catarrh and claim they have never found a cure can get instant relief by simply anointing the nostrils with Ely's Cream Balm.
Unlike internal medicines which upset the stomach, or strong snuffs which only aggravate the trouble, this cleansing, healing, antiseptic Balm instantly reaches the seat of the trouble stops the nasty discharge, clears the nose, head and throat, and brings back the sense of taste, smell and improves the hearing. More than this, it strengthens the weakened and diseased tissues, thus protecting you against a return of the trouble. This remedy will cure a cold in a day, and prevent it becoming chronic or resulting in catarrh.
Nasal catarrh is an inflammation of the membrane lining the air passages, and cannot be reached by mixtures taken into the stomach, nor can it be cured by snuffs and powders which only cause additional irritation. Don't waste time on them. Get a 50 cent bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist, and after using it for a day you will wish you had tried it sooner.
Mothers should give the children Ely's Cream Balm for colds and croup. It is perfectly harmless, and pleasant to take.

MESSINGER WAS $20,000 ROBBER

EXPRESS COMPANY EMPLOYE CONFESSES THAT HE STOLE LARGE SUM OF MONEY FROM SAFE ON SANTA FE TRAIN BAKERSFIELD, Calif., Dec. 18.— After confessing to the ingenious theft of $20,145 in gold from a Wells Fargo express car, of which he was in charge as messenger, Marvin W.
Hamby, 22, is in custody, with his brother, Melvin, aged 16. The robbery occurred last Monday night while the Sunset Western train on the Santa Fe was running between Bakersfield and Taft. When the train reached Taft Hamby was found apparently suffering from a blow on the head, and the gold, which had been shipped from a Bakersfield bank to a bank in Taft, was gone.
Hamby told of an encounter with a bandit, and for five days poses hunted for the robbers. Meanwhile Hamby slowly recovered in a Taft hospital from the "blow" he received.
After being sweated for three hours by police and detectives the youth finally threw his hands above his head and cried sobbingly, "I did it myself."
He then recounted that his brother Melvin waited at Kern Junction the night of the robbery and received the bags as they were thrown from the train. The money was buried in the station yard at Kern Junction, with the exception of $300, which was found in the younger boy's room. It was recovered by officers.
Hamby exonerated his brother from all blame in the affair, claiming to have outlined the scheme alone.
