EASY AND SURE WAY TO CURE COLDS

DON'T NEGLECT A COLD, ELY'S CREAM BALM WILL STOP IT IN THE SNEEZING STAGE

A cold generally attacks the weakest part, affecting the eyes and ears in some and producing nasal catarrh and throat troubles in others. A cold is due to an inflammation of the membrane lining the air passages, and may be promptly cured with a little Ely's Cream Balm, which immediately relieves the inflammation and all the distressing symptoms, such as sneezing, coughing, running at the nose and eyes, hoarseness, sore throat fever and headache. One reason why this is pure, antiseptic Balm acts so quickly is because it is applied directly to the tender, sore surfaces.

Even in severe, chronic cases of catarrh, Ely's Cream Balm never fails to quickly and effectually check the poisonous discharge which clogs the head and throat, causing the disgusting hawking, spitting and blowing of the nose. This remedy not only drives out the disease, but heals and strengthens the weakened membranes, thus ending catarrh.

Catarrh is a filthy, disgusting disease. Don't put up with it another day. Get a 50 cent bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist, and see how quickly you will be relieved. It is perfectly harmless.

SLOUGH HAVING A GREAT TRIP

LOCAL REAL ESTATE MAN SKEEKS LOTS OF IMPROVEMENT IN OHIO AND ILLINOIS—KLAMATH FALLS ALL RIGHT

Although he does not believe in running down other places, and gives a boost to the Middle West whenever possible, W. S. Slough cannot help singing the praises of Klamath Falls and Oregon. He sees a lot of improvement in Ohio and Illinois in the course of the visits he and his wife are making, but he cannot help making a comparison with the Beaver State.

In a letter from Pataaskala, Ohio, he states that they are having a fine trip. They expect to be home in January.

"Most of the old orchards are gone," he writes regarding Illinois. "But a few men are putting out new orchards and pruning and spraying. Still, we see very few orchards that would be called in good condition, according to Oregon standards."

"I have visited a number of the schools, but have found none ahead of Klamath Falls, and very few up to our standards."

MASS OF PAPERS TO DELAY JUDGES

TESTIMONY TAKEN IN THE OREGON AND CALIFORNIA LAND GRANT CASE REQUIRES ABOUT 5,300 PAGES OF TYPEWRITING

Approximately 5,300 pages of typewritten testimony offered in the case of the government against the Oregon and California railroad in the land grant cases will be entered formally with the federal clerk. Five thousand of these pages of testimony were written in Portland as a result of the hearings. The other 300 pages are testimony taken recently at San Francisco. The stack will be several feet high, and most of it will have to be waded through by Judges Bean and Wolverton before they render an opinion. The date for the hearing of arguments of the attorneys has not yet been set, but it will not be before late in February.

Countess Weds an

Mr. Charles Wilkins Short of Ohio and the Countess Camilla Hayes were married recently in London. There was the usual opposition to the international marriage, but the countess announced that she would make any sacrifice necessary to wed the man of her choice. Mr. Wilkins is well known and generally liked in London society.

"A NIGHT OFF" HERE TONIGHT

NO FEAR OF THE POLICE IF YOU TAKE IT IN THE OPERA HOUSE. THE CIVIC LEAGUE WILL BE ENTERTAINERS

This is the night the entire town takes "A Night Off." By proclamation of the city authorities, it has been made known that every resident of Klamath Falls, whether young or old, whether of the masculine or feminine gender can enjoy "A Night Off" this evening without fear of consequences, the only provision being that they do so at the opera house.

"A Night Off" is the title of a four-act comedy, possibly the best ever written by Augustine Daly, and the four parcels that go to make up the play are fairly effervescent with sparkling wit and humor, while ludicrous situations spring up every few minutes to further confuse the laughable tangle.

Between the acts specialties will be introduced by Reynolds and Elliott, blackface troubadours; Dr. E. V. Morrow, Teuton comedian, and Mrs. Morrow, Miss Margaret Williams, Lawrence Mahaffey and Joseph McAlister in a dancing sketch.

The play is given under the auspices of the Women's Civic League, and the funds realized are to be used in beautifying the park site recently purchased by the park commission. The worthiness of the cause, together with the well known histrionic ability of the members of the cast, is proving a great drawing card, and there has been a big demand for seats ever since the seat sale opened at the Bonbonniere this morning.

Attorney J. J. Barrett leaves in a few days for Portland to attend to business matters.

Miss Edith Campbell is planning to visit relatives in Texas. She expects to leave in a few days, and will be away for the remainder of the winter.
