WEEKLY SERMON

The Birth of Christ

By Rev. J. G. Brendel, Pastor Baptist Church

"Let us go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has come to pass." Wise men have said that the eye is not satisfied with seeing. The truth of this is confirmed by the experience of all ages. It admits of only one exception. There is an object, and only one which satisfies the eye of the mind, and that is the Lord, Jesus Christ. We have proof of this in good old Simeon, mentioned in Luke 2:29-30. He had long waited for the "consolation of Israel." When he saw the infant Savior in the temple he clasped the Holy Child in his arms, thanked God, and said: "Lord, now let Thy servant depart in peace, according to Thy word. Mine eyes have seen Thy salvation."

It was said of some of the Turks a century ago that as soon as they saw the tomb of Mahomet they put out their eyes because they would not defile them again by beholding common objects. Does superstition teach them to admire the grave of a wicked impostor? Let us, as Christians, hasten to behold a sight of real glory. Let us turn away from beholding vanity. Let us fix our eyes upon the adorable Jesus. Let us say with the admiring shepherd, when informed of the Savior's birth: "Let us now go to Bethlehem and see this thing which has come to pass."

It was to shepherds, honest, industrious men, that the good news was first announced. An encouragement for such as be "diligent in business," and yet have their minds open to the heavenly message. It was when those shepherds were watching their flocks by night that these "glad tidings" were brought to them. An angel delivered the message, and a multitude of angels joined in the chorus: "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace and good will toward man." Here humility and glory were joined in their extremes. Christ divested himself of his heavenly glory. He took unto Himself our nature. "Oh, deep humiliation of the Son of

of God, and that the spirit of God dwelleth within you? If any man desireth the Temple of God him shall God destroy, for the Temple of God is holy, which temple ye are."

"This blessed Bible from Genesis to Revelations," said Lady Cook, "refers to the redemption of the body. The Trinity is not the Father, Son and Holy Ghost. The true Trinity is the father and mother, both equal and both responsibility to complete the Trinity—the child."

"You ask me what remedy we can have for the conditions that exist in the city of New York—the conditions that have brought about the vice probe. Do you think a boy who is imbued with pure teaching could ever immit or debase any other mother's daughter? No! His respect for his mother would prevent his bringing a blush of shame to her face. We would be quite sure to that young man's society. No danger of his going abroad and sowing wild oats and debasing our young girls. I read in the papers about the White Slave Traffic. People have asked me what law could be enacted to stop it. You cannot make men good and pure by law. You must do it by teaching."

"If there was not a demand there would not be a supply. We have got to stop the demand; we mothers have got to take the bull by the horns and teach our boys that they can be just as pure and good as their sisters. If a man would throttle another man who insulted his sisters, then let him in turn expect some other man to throttle him. Had not you rather keep these young people apart? What a misunderstanding! Is it usual for one mother to have all girls and another all boys? It is natural for boys and girls to be brought up together and to be taught by their blessed mother."

"Mothers should teach their daughters the responsibilities of motherhood. Boys should be taught the responsibility and honor of fatherhood. We don't want many children. We want pure children. Roosevelt talking about race suicide! We're having too many children! We want quality, not quantity. Again, we want children neither born nor bred in ignorance. It is foolish to send missionaries abroad. How much better it would be to turn them into the slums of every town where the people breed like flies and herd like beasts, often in a state of starvation."

Peevish Children Suffer With Worms

Don't be angry with your child because he or she is continually irritable. In ninety-nine out of one hundred cases you will find that the trouble is worms.

Among the common symptoms of the presence of round worms are nervousness, which often leads to epileptic attacks; dizziness, vertigo, capricious appetite, restless sleep, itching of the eyes and nose, nausea and often hysteria. Round worms are several inches in length and infest the stomach. Occasionally several hundred are found in a single person. Thread worms are smaller, often not longer than a quarter of an inch. The symptoms denoting their presence are about the same, but in this case the child has no appetite. Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge is unsurpassed in removing worms. Not only will it destroy them, but its tonic effects will restore the stomach to healthy activity. As Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge seldom purges, the indications of its beneficial effects will be the improved condition of the person using it.

Millions of patients have praised this medicine for more than eighty years. Insist upon Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge, and accept no other. Sold by druggists everywhere. Dr. J. Jayne & Son, Philadelphia, Pa.
