IT MAKES 'EM FEEL PROUD

ALL ODD FELLOWS ARE TODAY
WEARING THE SMILE THAT RE-
FUSES TO COME OFF. ALL ON ACCOUNT OF A LETTER

When you see a member of Klamath Lodge No. 137, I. O. O. F., today wearing an expression of unalloyed joy, you need not compliment him on a new arrival, a successful deal or a wedding in the family; for the aforementioned Oh-be-joyful expression is not caused by any of these cigar-buying happenings, but by a letter received by the lodge last night from Grand Secretary Sharron. This letter was one of commendation, expressing delight at the work of the lodge during the past year, and also stating that it would not be equalled by any other lodge of Odd Fellows in the state. The epistle was all-embracing, and officers and members were congratulated on the splendid showing made by Klamath Lodge. In view of the fact that Klamath Lodge has already started campaigning for the Grand Lodge in 1915 to be held here, such a communication from headquarters adds zest to the campaign, and will serve to incite the members to greater efforts to accomplish their desire.

DRIFTING

Most men drift. Only a few, a very few, navigate. Most men are what some other man makes them. They do little thinking for themselves. Would it not be wise to man your own little bark and sail it confidently toward a definite end? Think it over, and it may be that you will decide to become a builder, a constructive worker, and a booster for the Klamath Basin. If you are wide awake, you will find opportunities right here at home, and you should seize the most of them. If you want a home, a lot, a farm, or business property, come in and talk it over.

Pity the Poor Parcel Postman

Although Uncle Sam's nephews and nieces are fast becoming accustomed to the parcel post, the novelty of the new system has not worn off, as every mail man in the country can testify. The postmasters are convinced that Americans have a wonderful appreciation for the ridiculous, but the carriers, who are obliged to deliver the countless joke packages, are not so optimistic. One of the most striking facts about the new system is the infinite variety of articles sent out under the cheap rate. Horse collars, coal shovels, sofa cushions, lanterns, dress goods, eggs, game birds, barnyard fowl, custard pies, fishing rods, fire tongs—to list the packages is to name almost every conceivable article that weighs eleven pounds or less. As was anticipated, tourists in New Mexico have attempted to mail horned toads to friends in the north, and in Florida every package brought into a postoffice is put to the sniffing test, for the tiny alligator is esteemed a choice souvenir by the winter resorters, who like to let the folks back home know something of the fauna of the South.

TRIPLE KAYS OUT OF THE BASEMENT

TAKE TWO OUT OF THREE FROM
ELKS, AND CLIMB TO THIRD
PLACE IN CITY BOWLING
LEAGUE

Taking three out of four games from the representatives of the Antlered Herd, the K. K. K. team traded places with the Elks in the percentage column last night. Instead of being the cellar champions, the team is now third in order, and the players propose to keep right on climbing. The team started in the league under adverse conditions, succeeding a tail-ender, and they had poor success during their opening games. They claim now to have struck their gait, and want to be counted in whenever there is any talk of topnotchers.

The scores of the first three games last night follow:

|                    |     |     |     |
|--------------------|-----|-----|-----|
| Elks—              | (1) | (2) | (3) |

| Rogers .....       | 142 | 113 | 149 |
| Houston .....      | 131 | 98  | 135 |
| Van Bellen .....   | 128 | 158 | 176 |
| Ackley .....       | 161 | 169 | 169 |
| Totals .....       | 709 | 684 | 775 |
| K. K. K.—          | (1) | (2) | (3) |

| Totals .....       | 807 | 767 | 757 |

The League standing, as compiled after last night's games, follows:

Castro Does Not Admire American Hospitality

(Copyright by Underwood & Underwood)
Cipriano Castro, whilom dictator of Venezuela, who expected to enjoy a visit in this country, and who has been compelled to mark time at Ellis island while the emigration authorities are deciding whether to deport him, is fluent in his expression of disapproval of American hospitality. To add salt to his wounds his courier has been permitted to land, and is living comfortably in a New York hotel. Castro is confined in a single room, 7x12, and a guard is posted outside his door day and night.

Dr. G. C. Mitchell made a business trip to Midland Friday.
