Peterson Arranges A School Standard

Plan that Will Increase Efficiency and Condition of the Districts Adopted by Superintendent

In order to increase the efficiency of the various schools in Kiamath county, Superintendent Fred Peterson has just arranged a school standard, together with a list of requirements that must be met with in districts before they can be classed as standard.

The school standard method has been tried with wonderful success in Polk, Marion and Jackson counties, and it has greatly improved the school conditions in those counties," said Mr. Peterson today. "It has had a wonderful effect in Polk county in particular, and the schools are nearly all up to standard, or even above the standard arranged."

The districts here have heretofore worked under somewhat adverse conditions, and but few of them are up to standard, although their influence as educators cannot be questioned. There is no conformity as to school conditions, but I am sure that all will endeavor to become standardized if their attention is called to it, and this method is a constant reminder."

A standard chart is being prepared by Mr. Peterson for the guidance of the teachers and directors of the different districts, and the purpose of the standardizing is explained as follows:

"Owing to the necessity of having some common standard for the schools of the county, we submit the following chart for the guidance of teachers, school boards and school communities."

"As soon as a district has fulfilled

Arant Urges Better Roads to Crater Lake

Superintendent in his Annual Report Asks Congress to appropriate $50,000 for Roads in Park

A system of good and adequate roads is the crying need of Crater Lake National Park, as shown by the annual report of W. F. Arant, the park superintendent, and until these roads are provided the park will not be the popular pleasure ground that its scenic beauties would otherwise make it.

Of course, a start has been made in the direction of providing a suitable road system, and $5,000 was appropriated at the last session of congress, but much more liberal appropriations must be made hereafter, or else the development and popularizing of the park will be deferred many years.

Last year 5,325 persons visited the Crater Lake Park, most of them in automobiles, there having been issued a total of 430 auto licenses for the season, at one each for a single round trip. In view of the fact that the roads are notoriously bad, this charge was deemed excessive, but that is the price paid, and the price will remain in effect until some future secretary of the interior orders a change.

New York Strike will be Subject of Probe

Socialist Congressman Declares He has Evidence of Unfair Conditions Existing in Garment Factories

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 28.—Congressman Berger expects information tonight which may force a congressional inquiry of the garment workers' strike.

"This may develop into as remarkable an exposure of industrial conditions as the Lawrence strike, if the data sent for is what it has been rumored," said Mr. Berger, "and I will ask the house for an investigation."

The indications are that evidence is ready to show that factories "speed up" the labor of women and girls in order to compete with the great shops.
