HOMESTEADERS TO FILE PROOFS

FINAL PAPERS SIGNED BY MEN SETTLING ON TRACTS OF PUBLIC LAND NEAR TULE LAKE AND WHITE LAKE

Two Klamath county homesteaders appeared before County Clerk DeLap this afternoon to make final proof on their homesteads.

Dorsey H. Johnson made proof on a tract of land near Tule Lake. His witnesses were W. H. Hadley and James Taylor.

The other homesteader to make final proof was Fred J. Beldin, whose holding is near White Lake. As witnesses he brought in Joe Dervan and Jim Cole.

ret action until after the ambassadors of the powers consult.

BERLIN, Jan. 24.—An unconfirmed dispatch says that the Young Turks are in possession of the palace in Constantinople, and rioting and pillaging threatened. Ezer Bey has been made military commander of Constantinople. It is reported that he completely dominates the sultan. It is expected that Turkey will refuse to abandon Adrianople and that the powers will intervene.

A leading newspaper says: "The Turk stands with a torch in a powder magazine. There will be work elsewhere than on the Rhine line unless prompt measures are taken to restrain him."

ARMED ROBBERY

DESIGNERS

What is destined to be the best and most complete line of automobile robes, buggy robes and horse blankets ever brought to Klamath Falls is now being displayed by the Hector Barnum company on Main street.

The stock includes some unique designs in robes of genuine wool, and also some.

Notice
An important meeting of A. F. & A. M. No. 78, will be held Monday night to hear the reports of the ways and means and site committee. A good attendance is desired.
By order of Worshipful Master.

Taber Is Here

Roy Taber, Dorris merchant, is in the city today. He reports business quiet in the little California city, but says that the residents there are having considerable sport in killing jack rabbits.

Joe Dervan came from his ranch Thursday to attend to business matters. He will return home today.

Mrs. John H. Wise and two daughters came in from Merrill Thursday. They left on the afternoon train for Los Angeles.

Don't wait until the latest and best patterns are gone. Buy your buggy and auto robes now at Bradley Harless Co. 34-31

JUDGE WORDEN DEFENDS ACTIONS

may, had been asked to act as the legal representative of the county court, but had declined. Then other counsel was secured in order to carry out what was considered to be the expressed desire of the majority of the taxpayers. Judge Worden cites numerous instances to show that the fees paid the attorneys for the county in the litigation were not exorbitant, but were, in fact, usual.

In conclusion Judge Worden advances another line of argument, which is as follows:

"Another view of the case is this: Let us look at the matter from an investment point of view. You, the citizens of Klamath county, secured by this legal action the title to five acres of ground located in the heart of what will be the city of Klamath Falls. These five acres of ground some time will be very valuable. I would not attempt to say what that valuation will be. We believe at the present time that it is worth at least the sum of $50,000. We will be conservative, however, and say that it is worth $20,000. The five acres divided into lots, making six lots to the acre, as was customary in the platting by the Hot Springs company, would mean thirty lots, which would easily bring a thousand dollars each. Coupled with this is sufficient hot water to heat the building forever. Now taking the transaction as a straight business transaction, and putting on the one side expenses as follows:

Stone & Barrett	$3,000.00
F. H. Mills	2,000.00
Thomas Drake	3,000.00
Expense of trip to Salem by Judge Worden	75.00
Expense of judges to try the case	250.00
Printing	50.00
Total	$6,375.00

"Now, on the other side as a credit, valuation of the site, $20,000 and not considering the hot water which will heat the building for years, and thus save a large expenditure for fuel, we have a clean balance to the county on the right side of the ledger of $24,625.00. In other words, considering the low valuation placed on this property, a clean net profit of $23,625.00 in this one transaction. In addition to this will in time be added the amount which will be acquired from the sale of the present court house site.

"In conclusion, we have stated to you briefly and concisely the actual conditions leading up to the discussion in this case. We believe that you in conducting these matters, and will not condemn our action, for the reason that we made good and fulfilled our pledges, although perhaps we did not accomplish them as cheaply as some people may have desired."

place in at Algona, ten miles north of here.

It is possible that additional precincts will be arranged in the city, owing to the increase in the vote here with the adoption of woman's suffrage. It is the intention of the county court to have the city precincts and polling places conform with the wards outlined by the city officials.
