WOMAN MAYOR LIKES HER JOB

Miss Clara Cynthia Munson, who was elected mayor of Warrenton, Ore., recently, is very enthusiastic about the possibilities of her position.
Already she has effected many reforms in her little municipality, and she has formulated a number of plans for civic improvement. The citizens of other towns and cities in the Northwest are watching Miss Munson's work with keen interest, and it is possible that a number of surer things men candidates for mayor's jobs will be making excuses after the next election, if the experiment of a woman in the city hall proves satisfactory.

MRS. JOHN HAYS HAMMOND IS ENTERTAINING THE WIVES OF FORMER PRES-

(Copyright by Harris & Harris) Mrs. John Hays Hammond, wife of the famous millionaire mining engineer, has been entertaining Mrs. Grover Cleveland and Mrs. Benjamin Harrison at her Washington home.
In the photograph Mrs. Hammond is shown in the dress she wore at the coronation of King George V., which she attended with Mr. Hammond, who was appointed special ambassador by President Taft to represent this country at the ceremony. Mrs. Hammond is a very popular figure in society, and is greatly admired for her many charming qualities. She has been into the wilds of South America and South Africa with her husband, and when Mr. Hammond was ill and under anticipation of death for his activities at the time of the Jamecon raid she nursed him back to health and helped in the fight to free him.

Assurance of Accuracy

The first consideration in selecting a watch is to get a reliable time keeper. It makes no difference how little you spend for a watch if it money wasted unless you can depend on it to keep somewhere near accurate time.

In the manufacture of a watch one of the chief expenses is the final adjusting and regulating. There are, however, inexpensive watches of real merit. These are constructed along simple lines, and are dependable time keepers. Other cheap watches gotten up in a shoddy way are not worth carrying.

We have learned by years of experience to distinguish between the good and poor makes, and we will not sell a watch at any price that we cannot guarantee to be an accurate timepiece. Yours for service,

VICTOR DONALD AND OTHER MEMBERS OF MAY HARRISON
COMPANY WILL PRESENT
FOUR BILLS

An announcement of more than usual interest to the theater going public of this city is the coming of the Victor Donald company, who open a four-night engagement at the Star theater tonight. Their latest offering is "The Man in Black," a rivet-ting farce comedy.

Donald and other members of the company are well known in Klamath Falls as they appeared here a few seasons ago with the May Harrison company, a theatrical organization that made a run here. Donald was leading juvenile with the company, and one of the most able members of the capable cast.

In addition to the playmen, which change nightly, there will be illustrated songs by Bertrand Pohl and motion pictures.
