"SOME ONE HAD BLUNDERED," SO LIGHT CAVALRY CHARGED INFANTRYMEN DURING MILITARY MANEUVERS IN INDIA

United Press Service
CALCUTTA, Feb. 7.—During the maneuvers near Poona, it was learned the second Dorsetshire and second Lancashire regiments, while deploying for a night attack, were mistakenly charged upon by a squadron of the 16th light cavalry, which scattered the infantrymen in all directions among prickly pear trees. Thirty men were taken to the field hospital suffering from bruises and wounds, and 108 others received minor injuries from cactus thorns.

BUYING BEAVER HIDES COSTLY

IN ADDITION TO PAYING FOR THE FELTS, ALEXANDER PAYS A $50 FINE, AND LOSES THE SKINS AT THAT

Charged with having beaver skins in his possession, John Alexander, a Dorris hide buyer, was arrested this morning by Deputy Game Warden J. J. Furber. He entered a plea of guilty before Justice of the Peace Gove, and paid a fine of $50 and costs, while the hides were confiscated. Alexander has been purchasing skins in the northern part of the county for some time, and this morning he was preparing to leave for Dorris. A search of the skins by Furber disclosed two beaver pelts.

FARMERS AT THE MERCY OF TRUST

COMPLAINT IS MADE OF THE OPERATIONS OF THE HARVEST MACHINERY MANUFACTURERS IN RESTRAINT OF TRADE

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 7.—The vast organization of the $140,000,000 International Harvester company and its important relation to the farmer through the control of a substantial proportion of the agricultural machinery is disclosed in a report of the bureau of corporations to be submitted to President Taft in a few days.

It tells of the bringing together of the McCormick, Deering, Plann, Champion, Milwaukee and Osborne companies.

It is estimated that 90 per cent of the harvesters, 75 per cent of the mowers and 50 per cent of the binders and twine used in the United States is made by the International Harvester company. Stock to the amount of $3,450,000 was issued to J. P. Morgan & Co. in payment for organizing the giant corporation.

President Taft is now being urged by the counsel for the company to withhold the details of the report from publication until the pending of the anti-trust suit against the corporation has been completed. President Taft will decide when the report reaches him.
