Assurance of Accuracy

The first consideration in selecting a watch is to get a reliable time keeper. It makes no difference how little you spend for a watch if it is made of material you can depend on to keep good time near accurate time.

If the manufacture of a watch one of the chief expenses is the final adjusting and polishing. There are, however, inexpensive watches of real merit. These are constructed along simple lines, and are dependable time keepers. Other cheap watches get up in a showy way are not worth buying.

We have learned by years of experience to distinguish between the good and poor makes, and we will sell a watch at any price that we can guarantee to be an accurate time-keeper. Yours for service,

GIRL WHO LONGED FOR ADVENTURE IN HEROINE IN FIRE

An early morning fire in a three-story building in Astoria, a suburb of Chicago, gave Eunice Olson, a pretty, dark-haired miss of 17, an opportunity to prove herself a real heroine. Always Miss Olson has craved excitement, and their stirring adventures, and to her life in a modern city has seemed drab and uneventful. But now her heart is filled with content, for, literally, she has been tested by fire, and found equal in the occasion. When awakened by the fire in her home Miss Olson crossed the other tenants in the building, got her parents and sister safely to the street, and then ran barefooted through the snow to a neighbor's house, where she telephoned to the fire department. Returning to the burning building she attempted to dash through the smoke and flames to rescue a pet canary, but was restrained by her parents.

WOLGAST ANXIOUS TO FIGHT AGAIN

PORTLAND, Feb. 12.—That there will be no hitch over the refereeing question in the Wolgast-Murphy fight now seems certain from remarks let drop by the ex-champion after working out at the Police Athletic Association gymnasium.

"It makes no difference to me," said Wolgast. "If they want to have Jim Griffith as third man in the ring it is all right with me. I thought after the decision in my match with Ritchie that he was in the wrong, and said so at the time. But I guess he did the only thing possible under the circumstances, and if Murphy and Coffey want him it will be all right with me."

The ex-champion is prepared to follow his usual custom of backing himself to the limit, and said that the odds would not be better than 10 to 6 for him to win.

Wolgast was a 9 to 1 favorite over Ritchie when he lost the championship, and the majority of the fight fans there don't forget that Ad had the best of the battle until near the close, while many of them are still certain as to the effect of the brutality which was dealt out lavishly by Tom Jones.

But Ad is willing to take any money in sight, if the odds remain about the figures named. This shows confidence in himself of the utmost degree.
