Altamont Tavern is Denied Liquor License. Court Refuses to Grant License Asked for. Court Held it Against Public Policy

The application of L. H. Snell for a license to sell liquor at the Altamont tavern was denied by the county court this morning. Mr. Snell's petition was presented by Attorney Fred Mills, who insisted that there was no good, legal reason for the rejection of the application. The members of the county court were unanimous, however, in denying the petition on the ground that favorable action would be against public policy.

Play With Local Plot to be Staged March 4

Daily Rehearsals are being Held by the Players. Cast for "Lawyer Versus Girl." Musical Skits in Addition

The initial production of "The Girl Versus the Lawyer," written by Hamilton, will be given at Hamilton's opera house March 4th. Announcement to this effect was made today by Mr. Hamilton. The play is a three act comedy dealing with the marriage of a local divorcee case. One of the scenes is at the White Palace. It is a faithful reproduction of the plot for the play. One of the characters in the comedy is a girl who is the daughter of a local doctor. There are four characters in the production, as follows: "Mrs. Lang," "Mrs. Manning," "Maude Butler," "Jerry's sweetheart," Miss Alyce Jones; "Harry Lang," Harry J. Hamilton; "Jerry, the detective," L. A. Reynolds. The cast is rehearsing daily. In addition to the play, musical skits are being rehearsed by a number of local girls, and these will be produced between acts. Those to take part are Misses Beulah Kohler, Violet Spradling, Joale Low, Marie Rambo, Ella Howe, Alyce Jones and Opal Leonard. Following the production of "The Girl Versus the Lawyer" here, it is Mr. Hamilton's intention to go on the road with the show.

Local Booster Says This May Have Been the Original City Geological Formation of the Country, Crater Lake and the Discovery of Fossils Tend to Prove Professor Hallock's Theory, According to White

The following explanation of the geological theory is contained in a paper by Frank Ira White of Klamath Falls, "is not in conflict with the Biblical story of the first city of the world." Mr. White, who is president of the Chamber of Commerce of Klamath Falls, is one of the leading colonists of that section, is in Portland, and he is the least disconcerted man of the community that has read the disclosures made in the Oregonian concerning the primordial relationship of the southern city. "Geological formation," he said, "is revealed at many points, notwithstanding the great volcanic flow that covered the region of Klamath. You will note in reading the conclusions of the Bible that he treats the Bible as allegorical, and Eve as allegorical." The present time is the most important period in the history of the world, and the most important period in the history of the world. The present time is the most important period in the history of the world, and the most important period in the history of the world. "Crater Lake National Park," he said, "has only recently come to be appreciated as anything approaching its merits by authorities at Washington. Professor Diller's enlightening study of the geology of that section, published many years ago by the United States geological survey, is the seventh wonder of the world—Crater Lake." Mr. White believes there is a connection between the Crater Lake wonder and the discovery elucidated by Dr. Hallock. "This superb gem," he said, "glowingly," is incomparable. Socialist Mayor Will Again be Candidate for Executive

J. Stitt Wilson Resorts to this Method in His Fight Against the Berkeley Council. Socialist Amphitheater at World's Fair Plan of Followers

United Press Service BERKELEY, Feb. 19.—J. Stitt Wilson will again be a candidate for mayor of Berkeley. The mayor made announcement to this effect this afternoon. In this way, he says, he will be able to carry out his plans for the government of Berkeley, as he charges that a hostile council has greatly crippled the socialist program for municipal reform. Wilson also announced that the socialists of California are planning to have a building at San Francisco during the Panama-Pacific International exposition. The building will be a vast amphitheater. It will be used as a place for the expounding of the socialist doctrine.

West Signs the Circuit Court Clerk Measure

Measure Becomes a Law in Ninety Days. Provides for New County Official with $1800 Salary

Special to The Herald SALT LAKE, Feb. 19.—Governor West last night signed and filed with Secretary of State Otwell house bill No. 118, which was introduced by Representative Smith of Klamath county. The bill provides for the office of clerk of the circuit court in Klamath county. A salary of $1,800 a year is stipulated in the bill.

There was great rejoicing in the court house and among the legal fraternity when it became known that the measure was signed by the governor. The circuit court here is in continual session, and it has occupied the entire floor of Deputy County Clerk George Chisholm. With the office occupying what time can be devoted to its duties. It is understood that Mr. Chisholm will be appointed for the first term of circuit court clerk. His work has been such as to elicit words of commendation from the court, and every attorney in the city desires his appointment on account of the continuous consideration he gives to all matters requiring his attention.

Bud Anderson May Get a Match With Ritchie

Linkenback Says McCarey Makes Conditional Promise. Bud Must Win Three Matches First

"Bud is at least 100 per cent better in Los Angeles than when he was here," says Jack Linkenback, who returned Tuesday from Los Angeles to accept a position with the Evans Box company. Linkenback, who holds the welterweight championship for the Northwest, was instrumental in getting Anderson properly introduced to Los Angeles fashions, and he was in the Vancouver lad's corner when he won from Sam Trevitt. "Anderson is under contract to fight three bouts for Tom McCarey at the Vancouver arena," continued Linkenback. "If he wins three McCarey has secured Dick Donald, Bud's manager, that the Northwest lightweight will get a match with Wagon Wheeler, July 4th. "Bud is to fight March 20th, in a double arrangement with 'Doc' Joe Manduca. It was expected he would be named, but will start some time of next fall."
