Northern Mexicans Not Satisfied; Massing Near Chihuahua

HUERTA PLANS TO REACH THE REBELLIOUS OREGON MEXICAN FRONT

Madero Covers in His Room at the Palace, a Nervous Wreck—Senora Madero Assured That Her Husband is in No Immediate Danger—Killed Diazites Plan a Triumphant Return to Mexico City From Europe

United Press Service

EL PASO, Tex., Feb. 21.—Upon the ground that a change from Madero to the old Diaz regime will bring about nothing for the benefit of the Mexican people, the state of Chihuahua today rejected the new order of affairs in that country. The leaders in that state, which is one of the most rebellious in the republic, refuse to recognize Huerta as provisional president. Already the work of massing troops has been commenced in the state, and several large rebel forces are mobilizing near the city of Chihuahua, and there are rumors of an advance at once on some of the other cities that are loyal to the new government.

All of the northern rebel chiefs, with the possible exception of General Orozco Jr., are said to be active in the movement. They plan to advance upon Mexico City. It is stated in Chihuahua that the state of Coahuila also refuses to recognize Huerta, and that troops are being armed there to resist any advance of the Diazites. Other states in the northern part of the country are said to be also considering rebellion. General Orozco, Zapata, Salazar and other independent rebels are at work drilling troops.

MEXICO, CITY, Feb. 21.—Provisional President Huerta plans to send couriers to Generals Orozco, Zapata and other northern rebels to ask their assistance in restoring order in the country. It is known here that these chiefs are not satisfied with conditions, and it is the general belief that the dis-

ENGLISH ARTIST TO APPEAR HERE

MRS. DON J. EUMWALT AND COLONEL RAY ARRANGE FOR CELEBRITY TO GIVE RECITAL IN KLAMATH FALLS

Colonel Ray, known all over the nation as the "Pilot of Celebrities," was a visitor in Klamath Falls this week, for the first time. While here he completed arrangements with Mrs. Don J. Eumwalt for the appearance of Bruce Gordon Kingsley, the famous English musician and traveler, in this city.

The outcome of the visit of Mr. Kingsley will be awaited with interest, as in case it is found to be sufficiently patronized, some of the most celebrated talent visiting the Pacific coast will be brought to Klamath Falls. While here Colonel Ray stated that on one of his recent tours of the West, ahead of the United States Marine band and Madame Gaski, Medford was the only city between Portland and Sacramento where a stop was made. Now that Mrs. Eumwalt has made it possible for Bruce Gordon Kingsley to appear here it is more than probable that Klamath Falls will enjoy a passing call from some of the really big musical stars.

A decided novelty in the vaudeville program opened at the Star theater last night by the Moscow Duo, Russian singers, instrumentalists and dancers. The dancing is of the type that cannot be executed except by persons from the Czar's domain.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 21.—

America has prevented the execution of Madero temporarily at least. The state department has been notified that the opposition of this government has been made known to the Mexican provisional government. General Huerta replied through American Ambassador Wilson that disposition of Madero will be considered very carefully.

SPORTSMEN SEE DISCRIMINATION IN GAME LAWS

WILL WIRE MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATURE

Postponement of Deer Season Until a Month Later Than Opening in Jackson County Would Prove Detrimental to Klamath County, Declare Local Men—Other Changes Affect This County

What local sportsmen declare is a move for the advancement of Jackson county's tourist traffic to the detriment of Klamath county and the remainder of Southern Oregon is the revision in the game code measure, which makes the opening of the deer season August 1st in District No. 1, and September 1st in District No. 2. The former season, according to the measure, closes October 15, and in this district fifteen days later.

The bill which provides for a complete revision of the game code, was prepared by the state board of fish and game commissioners, and it passed the senate as senate bill No. 115. Several changes were made by the game committees of the two houses before the bill was introduced, among others the changing of the time for

BOLD FOREIGNER IS TROUBLESOME

JOHN SATRAS IS AGAIN IN DIFFICULTY—IS CHARGED WITH ASSAULTING JERRY DARRELL, WELL KNOWN HERE

Satras was released by the police on his own recognizance. He will be given a hearing before Judge Leavitt tomorrow morning. John Satras has again broken into jail. This afternoon he was arrested after he had assaulted Jerry Darrell. According to bystanders and Darrell, Satras, without provocation, committed the assault, which occurred on Main street, near Fifth, and attracted a crowd. Chief of Police of Police Smith and Officer Hall were on the scene very soon after Satras had landed a couple of vicious hooks to Darrell's face, and arrested Satras.

The prisoner is a Greek, and has achieved considerable fame since he has been here. Apparently neither weaving nor spinning, he has appeared daily on the street in gay raiment. Last fall he was arrested and convicted of the theft of a revolver from a room on Main street. For this offense he was given thirty days' imprisonment in the county jail. Short-ly he pleaded guilty to a charge of gambling, and was sentenced to seven days in jail.

Darrell, who is acting as floor manager at the skating rink, objected to the conduct of the Greek on the floor, and words passed. Later, Darrell claims, Satras attempted to assault him, but it was not until this afternoon that he succeeded in landing a blow.

"FIRE AND KILL" TALK STOPPED

LAW PASSED BY THE LEGISLATURE AND SIGNED BY GOVERNOR DEMANDS TEMPERATE LANGUAGE BY SOAP-BOX MEN

SALEM, Feb. 21.—Under the provisions of house bill 78, by Upton, and which was signed by Governor West, anarchistic soap-box orators will no longer enjoy the freedom of speech to the extent that they can advocate destruction of life or property, nor will it even be safe for the governor himself to suggest shotgun methods for his enemies, for the bill provides that it shall be unlawful for any person to threaten or advocate the commission of a felony.

Originally the bill provided that it should be unlawful for a person to threaten life and then purchase a dangerous weapon to carry out the threat. The senate, however, amended it, making the measure more drastic by providing that it shall even be unlawful for any person to threaten or advocate the commission of a felony, and fixing the penalty from a fine to imprisonment in the penitentiary.

JOHNSON FAILS TO GET PROFITS OUT OF A DEAL

PLAN TO GRAB CLOSURE IN VALLEY FOLLOWS

Hopkins Estate Will Now Receive a Patent to About 20,000 Acres of Land Which Has Been in Dispute. While Most of Land is Situated in California, It is Near the Oregon Line and Klamath Falls.

The long standing Hopkin estate controversy has been settled at last by Secretary Fisher of the Interior department, who held that it is necessary to consider the title to the vast federal patents brought by the Lords and many others, and that the Interior department can properly administer school land patents.

A local interest attaches to the estate because of the fact that Johnson, well known here, and Hopkins estate are involved. While the land involved is situated in California, it is all situated near the Oregon line. (Continued on Page 4)

"He Must be About 29, Nice Habits, With Home"

Ohio Woman is Casting About for "Western Man", but She Tells Herald no Triflers Wanted

There need be no more cause for the local bachelors for their remaining in the state of single blessedness, for the fame of the steadiness and progressiveness of Klamath Falls young men has traveled to such an extent that lone maidens in the East are writing here in search of husbands.

The latest is Edith Hama, general delivery, Delaware, Ohio. Her letter to The Herald follows:

"Eastern lady wishes to correspond with a Western man of good habits, aged 25 years or more. Prefer one with a home or good prospects for same. Boon fighters or triflers do not answer." There are quite a number of possibilities suggested, among them J. H. Carahan, M. R. Doty, Joe B. McAllister, Kerchner.

Judge Goes Into Seclusion to Decide an Important Problem

Benson Discovers There is no Precedent for Important County Cases Now Up to him to be Solved. Side Tracks Other Cases to Give Full Attention

Believing that public policy demands that an early decision be rendered in the four cases involving procedure in county business and now before the court, Judge Benson indicated this morning that all other matters would be sidetracked and that he would devote his entire time and attention to these cases. After two days' work, Judge Benson is convinced that he is confronted with one of the most complex legal problems in his experience on the bench, and one in which there is no precedent. He is determined to sift all the authorities and prepare a decision which will go into every phase of the matter, not attempting in any way to dodge any problem. As an indication of the work involved, the judge has gone back to the legislative act of 1871, and is carefully following the proceedings of the state law down to date. It is probable that his decision will be very lengthy, and will be in the nature of a brief for the winning side in the event of an appeal being taken from his decision. It is not probable that a decision will be rendered in these cases for a week at least. This morning Judge Benson postponed indefinitely a case which was to have come up Monday, and instructed the attorneys on both sides that they were not to bother him until after the disposal of the county cases.
