It's Grandmother's Receipt for Sand-ruff and Restoring Compound to the Hair Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also cures dandruff, itchy scalp and stops falling hair.
Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.
Nowadays skilled chemists do this better than ourselves. By asking at any drug store for the ready-to-use product—called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy"—you will get a large bottle for about 50 cents.
Some druggists make their own, but hair.

Folks like "Wyeth's Sage and Sultell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly, says a well known down town druggist.

You dampen a sponge or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time.
This requires but a few moments, by morning the gray hair disappears and after another application or two is restored to its natural color and looks even more beautiful and glossy than ever.

MURRAY WRITES ABOUT CHARTER

If the new charter is adopted, who will canvass the votes cast at a bond election? Who will canvass the votes cast at any election until a justice of the peace is provided for the city of Klamath Falls? Mr. Leavitt stated Tuesday afternoon, when he addressed a gathering of the women voters of the city at the public library, that this provision of section 53 could be amended. Admit that to be true, who will canvass the votes cast at such an election? Does Mr. Leavitt believe that if an illegally constituted canvassing board should canvass the votes cast at a bond election, that bond buyers would overlook such a vital defect and accept illegal securities for their money? They rejected the bonds heretofore voted on defects far less important than this THIS PROVISION OF THE CHARTER MEANS THAT, SHOULD THE NEW CHARTER BE ADOPTED BY THE PEOPLE NEXT MONDAY, NOT ONE DOLLAR'S WORTH OF BONDS CAN BE SOLD BY THIS CITY, and Mr. Leavitt is a lawyer of sufficient ability to know that this statement is true.

I want to ask the laboring men, the business men, those who are so anxious to see this city go ahead, if they want to see enacted into law an instrument that effectually puts a stop to all improvement until that instrument is amended—an instrument that CANNOT BE AMENDED UNTIL THE COUNTY COURT COMES TO THE RELIEF OF THE CITY BY CREAT-ING THE OFFICE OF JUSTICE OF THE PEACE OF KLAMATH FALLS, and this cannot be done until late next fall? Yet, Mr. Leavitt would ask you to do so. Why? The only reason that I can see is his desire to make secure the position he and the rest of the city officials hold. Apparently caring for nothing but his own interests, he would stand by and see the wheels of progress stopped for another year, see the laboring man driven from his home because he is out of employment, see the business man gradually slip farther and farther back into the slough of indebtedness, see the construction of sidewalks prevented and other urgently needed city improvements kept at a standstill—for what? For his own position.

Section 53 is the lock on the door of progress. The people of the city hold the key. If they want that door closed for another year, then they will vote for the adoption of the new charter. If they want that door opened, THEY WILL DEFEAT THE NEW CHARTER NEXT MONDAY. Under this new charter the city of Klamath Falls must have a justice of the peace before the votes of any election can be canvassed, and no quibbling or evasion on the part of Mr. Leavitt, or anyone else, can change that law. It is the constitution of this city, and as such must be obeyed as religiously as we have to obey the constitution of the state of Oregon or the United States.

DAVIS IS BACK WITH ATHLETICS

Harry Davis, former captain of the Philadelphia Americans, who managed the Cleveland Naps last season, will be with the Athletics again during the coming season. Prior to accepting the management of the Cleveland team at the close of the season of 1911, Davis had been captain of the Athletics for six years, during which time they won two world's championships. Connie Mack, manager of the club, says that Davis' contract was that of an ordinary player, and that the old captain would be used as an assistant to himself.

MAHON SCORES EXCHANGE BILL

President James B. Mahon of the New York Stock Exchange has severely criticized Governor Sulzer's bill to compel incorporation, and he declares that the criminal provisions of the bill are a "shocking perversion of the criminal law." He believes that this feature of the bill was designed to force the stock exchange into accepting incorporation.

Limited woman's suffrage.
Reorganization of militia.
Creation of a national council of Reorganization of the customs and revenue service.

Increase of pensions.
In addition to these problems the opening of the Panama canal and establishment of a civil government on the Isthmian zone faces the new president.

Scores of unfinished trust prosecutions, begun by Attorney General Wickersham, also await the new administration's action. Many important cases must also be presented to the supreme court by the new executive heads which were instituted during recent years.
Administration and extension of the parcel post is another important problem. Appropriations for the navy, army, good roads, the San Francisco exposition and economy in expenditures generally furnish even more huge tasks.

Organization of the sixty-third congress augurs difficulty for the new party in power. An extremely small majority in the senate and an overwhelming majority in the house, with disputes over important committee chairmanships, present a delicate partisan situation.

THIS SECTION MAY FURNISH TURPENTINE

YELLOW PINE CAN BE USED FOR THAT PURPOSE
As the Supply of Long Leaf Pine Dis-minishes, Yellow Pine, Which Abounds in This Section, Will Become Increasingly Valuable—The Pinon Pine is Also Useful for the Production of This Commodity

Special to The Herald
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 5.— Turpentine from Western yellow pine, says the department of agriculture, can be put to the same uses as that from the long leaf pine of the Southeast, which furnishes the bulk of the turpentine of commerce. Western yellow pine forms enormous forests in the Rocky Mountain and Pacific Coast states, while the supply of long leaf is fast melting away. A product very similar to turpentine can be obtained also from pinon pine, another tree common in the Southwest.

Careful tests made by the department of agriculture have shown that the yield of turpentine and resin per season from Western yellow pine in Arizona is only two-thirds that from the Southeastern pine, the difference being due to the fact that the season of flow in the West is about twenty-five weeks and that in the South is about thirty-three weeks. During the Civil War, when turpentine operations in the South had virtually ceased, some operations were carried on in California to meet local needs. But with the return of the Southern product to the California market, the Western operations were abandoned.

The results of a chemical examination of the oils of Western yellow pine, digger, sugar and lodgepole pines which have just been published by the forest service in an official bulletin, show the possibilities of the resin and turpentine from Western Yellow and pinon pines as a supplement to the present supplies. Economic problems of markets, transportation and labor remain to be solved.
Information as to how the forest service secured the yields upon which the analyses were based is given in another bulletin on the possibilities of Western pines as a source of naval stores.
