to naught," or words to that effect, and he evidently had the present episode in mind.

Alec's first step was to see Hayden and Salsky and get a promise of a dollar from each of them for clearing away the snow and ice. His second step was to sprinkle salt on the ice, which caused the difference of opinion, following which he went to his room, set "Big Ben" for a 5 o'clock summons, and retired.

Arising promptly, Davis started to work with a shovel, and by 7:30 he was sufficiently through to call up the parties who bet with him, and invite them down to donate five dollars each.

The trio admitted themselves bested by the cattle man in this manner and suggested that Alec should purchase a round of spiritous and vinous refreshments.

"Buy you nothing," answered Davis. "I'll have you fellows understand that I'm a laboring man. I worked hard for that money, and I'll be blasted if I'll spend it buying suds and skee for you men who don't work."

DON'T STAY GRAY! SAGE TEA WILL DARKEN YOUR HAIR BEAUTIFULLY

A Mixture of Sage and Sulphur Prevents Dandruff and Falling Hair

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. It is also splendid to remove dandruff, cure itching scalp and stop falling hair.

Preparing this mixture, though, at home is a messy and troublesome task. For about 50 cents a bottle you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." Some druggists put this mixture up themselves, but make it too sticky, so insist you want "Wyeth's," then there will be no disappointment.

You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur" and draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. Do this at night and by morning all gray hair disappears and after another application or two becomes beautifully darkened and more glossy and luxuriant than ever. You will also discover dandruff is gone and the hair has stopped falling.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, and you'll look years younger. Inquiry shows all pharmacists in town here sell lots of it.
