CLAPP LEASES
THE PAVILION

AUTOMOBILE MAN WILL OPEN GARRAGE ON THE CORNER OF FOURTH AND KLAMATH AVENUE IN ABOUT A MONTH

Luke Clapp has secured a lease on the Pavilion on the corner of Klamath avenue and Fourth street, and carpenters are now at work preparing the building for a garage.
Mr. Clapp "pioneered" the automobile traffic between this city and Lakeview. He has operated a garage opposite the Baldwin hotel.
The Pavilion will be opened as a garage about April 15.

Sheriff Goes to Portland Sheriff Low will leave in the morning for Portland. He will take with him the two boys of Mrs. Conrad, who have been ordered committed to the home of the Boys and Girls Aid Society in Portland.

NOSTRILS AND HEAD STOPPED UP FROM COLD? TRY MY CATARRH BALM

Instantly Clears Air Passages; You Breathe Freely; Dull Headache Goes; Nasty Catarrhal Discharge Goes.

Try "Ely's Cream Balm." Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning the catarrh, cold in head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone.
End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, tregrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake tonight struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with it's running nose, foul mucus dropping into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless.
Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm"—and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.

LANE WILL GO
AFTER ESPEE

NEW SENATOR FROM OREGON LETS WASHINGTON OFFICIALS KNOW JUST WHAT KIND OF AN OFFICER HE WILL BE

United Press Service
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 22.— When Senator Harry Lane called in company with Congressman Lafferty and Sinnott and National Committee man King of Oregon upon Assistant Attorney General Knabel the other day, to ask that a federal suit against the Southern Pacific railroad interests be pressed, he let that official know just what sort of a senator he will be for the coming six years.

"We want this case really prosecuted," he said in substance. "We want the land grant of 3,100,000 made to the California & Oregon Railroad company in 1869 and 1870 annulled, because the land has not been sold at $2.50 an acre nor to actual settlers nor in maximum areas of 160 acres, as the grant provides.
We want to recover for the people the 2,200,000 acres still held by the Harriman interests. This suit was started six years ago, and it is time it was brought to trial."

"The fact that the railroads have been able to hold this land through their influence has brought me to the senate, though Oregon has a republican majority of 80,000. If it keeps on getting no better the socialists will carry the state next time.
Knabel, who is in charge of the Washington end of the suit, promised to try to get action from the federal attorneys in Oregon.

AUTO NEGOTIATES HIGH SISKIYOU

LOS ANGELES PARTY, EN ROUTE TO VANCOUVER, MAKE FIRST TRIP OF SEASON OVER THE MOUNTAINS

The first auto to make the trip over the Siskiyou this spring came into Ashland at 9 o'clock Monday, says the Ashland Record. It was driven by J.
G. Wagner and F. P. Langley, bound from Los Angeles to Vancouver, B. C.
The gentlemen report a ten hour battle with snow and mud from Colectia to the summit—a run that would ordinarily be made easily in half an hour by most any car.

Messrs Wagner and Langley got in to Ashland worn out and hungry as beats, and with their car and themselves splattered with mud from head to foot.

The gentlemen state that the road over the Siskiyou is by far the worst they have struck. From Castella to Dunsmuir they also struck a bad stretch of road, which kept them busy for about six hours, and a half for a distance of a few miles. The trouble there was deep mud of a sticky nature. They report shoveling snow for five hours on the Siskiyou, and that it was stacked along the sides of the road as high as the auto when they finally got through.

YOUNG MAN HAS EVENTFUL CAREER

BRUCE GORDON KINGLEY HAS MADE HIS MARK AS WORLD'S GREATEST ORGANIZER—THREE ENTIRE WORLD

Bruce Gordon Kingley, who appears at the opera house on April 1 and 2, has had a remarkable musical career. He is still comparatively a young man. Before he originated the "Illustrated Grand Opera" he had made his mark as one of the world's greatest organizers, succeeding the celebrated Frederick Arthur as organizer of the Alexandria Palace, London. It was during this engagement that Mr. Kingley first conceived the idea of presenting grand opera to the masses in a form that would make it possible to visit every community, instead of confining his efforts entirely to the great metropolitan centers. Mr. Kingley obtained the permission of the management to take a series of photographs of entire performances, showing the magnificent scenic investiture and the world's greatest singers in the principal roles.
A hundred or more pictures were taken of the opera, and with these photographic slides Mr. Kingley visited and interested his many artist friends, painters who are famous, and they painted these pictures so that Mr.
Kingley now has a collection that could not be purchased, or, in many instances, duplicated. A machine was purchased that few possess—there are only three in the united States—an autograph triple doctor projector that makes possible the most beautiful and delicate blending of colors. The services of J. Pearson Wallace, a most skillful operator, were secured. Mr. Wallace is the inventor of the stereoscopic plate. To show with this autograph machine the wonderful reproduction of grand opera, together with Mr. Kingley's graphic and interesting description of the scenes, would in itself be a great performance, but would not carry out in full the original idea. Therefore Mr. Kingley plays at intervals the big numbers from the opera, and brings to complete this ideal performance the rich dramatic soprano voice of Anna Harper Mottram, who will appear in costume staging the famous arias. Of all the operas in Mr. King-ley's extended repertoire, Faust is probably the most popular, and on Wednesday afternoon, April 2, it will be presented in a manner that will not soon be forgotten. The seats are now on sale at the Bonbon-niere, next door to the postoffice.
Single performance, evenings, $1, 75c and 50c; matinee, 75c, 50c and 25c.
Season ticket, three performances, $1.30, $1.20 and 90c.

OCEAN LINERS COMPLETE AGAIN

SUPREMACY IN LINE OF ATLANTIC VESSELS IS IN DEPUTE.
SEVERAL LARGE SHIPS TO BE LAUNCHED

LONDON, March 22.—The contest for supremacy in line of the Atlantic liners which has been waged since the Oceanic was launched in 1871 will begin a new era this year, with the launching of several 20,000 ton boats. On May 28 the Imperator, the first 20,000 ton steamship, will begin her maiden voyage. On April 21st the Aquitania, slightly larger than the German boat, will be launched on the Clyde, while the Britannic, bigger than either of these rivals, is rapidly taking shape on the stocks at Queen's Island.

Since 1871 the length and beam of trans-Atlantic liners have been more than doubled, and their gross tonnage increased twofold. The limit in their size, however, does not depend upon the designers, but upon the harbor authorities. When giving notice the other day of his intention of calling upon the Southampton board for the expenditure of $500,000 for the widening and deepening of the narrigo channel, the mayor remarked that within the next three years steamers half as big again as the Olympic would be using the port.

Make Us Prove It

We dare not exaggerate to you. We are dependent upon your patronage. To get it we must have your trust and confidence. We make the following statements with a full understanding of what they mean to us. You are safe when you believe in these statements.

For the Bowels

If you only know as much as we and have seen what we mean when we say that you should not be as enthusiastic about recommending them as we are. They taste just like candy. They act so easily and so pleasantly that the taking of them is a pleasure.

Even children like Small Oranges and you know that if a medicine appeals to a child, it will appeal to grown-ups.

Small Oranges help clean the bowels, speed blood and make you feel happy by their stimulating effect upon the bowels. They act upon the bowels. They get into the system and keep it free from the dirt and ill health that necessarily results from irregular and feeble bowels.

Small Oranges do this gently, without griping or causing pounding or excessive looseness. They act to overcome and remove the cause

Make Us Prove This
We do not ask you to take our word for it. We want you to make us prove it, and at no cost to you.
Buy a box of Small Oranges at our store. Use them once, as we use the whole box. Then, if you are not thoroughly satisfied, just come back empty handed and tell us.
Without obligating you or questioning you we will return the money you paid us for them.

Don't let that indicate that Small Oranges are at least worthy of trial.
Doesn't it prove our faith in them?
Doesn't it prove our confidence?
Could any other be more fair to you?

We particularly recommend Small Oranges for children, delicate and aged persons. Small Oranges come in one-pound, five-cent and ten-cent boxes. 15 tablets, 18c; 26
