GEORGE W. McCLUSKY

George W. McClusky, for many years called "Chesty George" by those who did not like the famous police inspector of New York, it has just been discovered left a fortune of more than three-quarters of a million. The lowest salary received by McClusky during his thirty years as a bluecoat was $800 a year, and the highest $3,500.
The sources of McClusky's income above his salary are not known, but in the Tenderloin there are very positive opinions about it. For a long time he was in charge of the Tenderloin district, and then the gambling houses and similar institutions never closed. McClusky during his lifetime occasionally dropped a hint about Wall street speculation. It is known that he had many wealthy friends among his friends, and it is possible that some of them gave him tips on the market. Since the inspector divided his wealth among his three sisters before his death there was no will filed, and nothing definite could be learned about his fortune.

NEW CHAMPION HEAVYWEIGHT WILL TAKE ON SOME NOTABLE FIGHTERS AND EXPECTS TO CLEAN UP $24,000

CHICAGO, March 24.—Four fights which he figures will net him $24,- 000, are on the program of Luther McCarthy, champion white heavyweight of America, here today. On April 15 McCarthy will tangle for six rounds with Jim Flynn in Philadelphia. April 23 he meets Frank Moran in Pittsburg for six rounds. Carl Morris or some other scrapper will be sent against him for ten rounds in Kansas City May 4. On or about May 15 he will travel to Calgary, Canada, to step twelve or more rounds with the garrulous Tommy Burns.
The first two scraps will net Mc-Carthy $5,000 each. He will receive $4,000 for the Kansas City battle, and, providing Burns does not sue him for everything down to his ring shoes, he will be given about $10,000 for the Calgary battle.

ETHEL CONWAY

Ethel Conway, the tennis champion of Bryn Mawr when she left that institution to go on the stage, has announced that she will enter the championship contests about New York and the East this summer. She left the famous women's college to enter "The Lady of the Slipper," where she has been successful. Most of her success, she said, was due to the fine physique built up by months of practice on the tennis court. She has become a muscular young woman to whom work on the stage is not a burden.

RENO, Nev., March 22.—Baffled in his attempts to get food by the loss of his savings of eight years, amounting to $320, Lewis C. Shilling, 31 years old, sole survivor of the Alamo massacre and adopted son of Kit Carson, was gripped by starvation and is dead here today. Shilling passed away in an old shack where he had subsisted on crackers and water until he could sustain himself no longer.
Shilling lost the money on a recent trip to California, and had to borrow coin to return to his shack here.
Shilling was adjutant to General Fhl Sheridan in the Civil War. He had a notable career as a scout and frontiersman.

COLORED VIEWS TO BE SHOWN

BRUCE KINGSLEY'S INTERPRE-TATION OF FAMOUS OPERAS WILL BE ILLUSTRATED BY PIC-TURES.

Music lovers are anticipating with pleasure the coming appearance of Bruce Gordon Kingsley in this city on April 1 and 2. "Illustrated Grand Opera" originated with Bruce Gordon Kingsley. It is really grand opera in tabloid form. There are shown upwards of 100 beautifully colored views in each opera presented. Reproductions are seen of the performances given at the Metropolitan opera house, New York, La Scala, Milan, and at Bayreuth. In these operas the leading singers of the world are seen, Caruso, Bonci, Schumann-Heinke, Melba, Scotti, Sombich, De Reszke, and others. The description of these views and all that is worth knowing about the opera, the composer and the singers is graphically told by Mr. Kingsley. At intervals Mr. Kingsley plays many of the principal selections.
Anna Harper Mottram, the dramatic soprano, appearing in costume, sings many of the vocal numbers of the operas. Mrs. J. Fearson Wallace, the inventor of the stereoscopic plate, is the operator of the three-decker autograph machine, and is responsible for the most delicate blending of colored lights, and dissolving scenic effects.

REGISTER ONCE

COUNTY CLERKS WILL BE RE-QUIRED TO KEEP BOOKS OPEN AT ALL TIMES—SYSTEM OUT-LINES A PLAN

SALEM, March 24.—Attention is directed to the new registration law enacted by the recent legislature by an interpretation of it made by Attorney General Crawford.
Under the new law, which takes effect June 1st, the attorney general points out that the county clerks must be prepared at all times to register voters, beginning with the day the law goes into effect. The county clerk must appoint precinct registers who will be authorized to take registrations. Then when a voter is once registered it will not be necessary for him to register again unless he changes his address.
The law provides that the registration shall cease thirty days before the primary or general elections, and 25-teen days prior to a special election, and that a person who is not registered cannot vote.
One registration is sufficient for both general and city elections.

WIRELESS SYSTEM IN THE FORESTS

PLAN IS TO PROVIDE COMMUNI-CATION IN PRIVATE AS WELL AS STATE-OWNED TIMBER IN OREGON

A wireless telegraph system for the big privately owned and state owned forests of Oregon is proposed and the plan is being perfected by officials of the western forestry and conservation association.
The system will be experimented with this summer, and the Marconi company has already been asked to furnish designs. Such a wireless arrangement must necessarily be a portable one, and nearly indestructible.
It would have to be such that it could be carried into remote portions of the forests, set up among the trees and of such power that the operator could communicate with other stations in a radius of fifty miles.
The Marconi people will have to devide an entirely new apparatus in order to meet the peculiar conditions of the forest.
