SCHOLARS WILL GIVE BENEFIT

ENTERTAINMENT WILL BE GIVEN IN THE OPERA HOUSE TO ASSIST THE KLAMATH LYCEUM BUREAU FINANCIALLY

The many people of this city who know how to appreciate a good thing will, no doubt, turn out en masse to attend the entertainment to be given by the schools of the city on the evening of March 28 at the opera house as a benefit to the Klamath Falls Lyceum Bureau, which needs some financial help in meeting obligations assumed in providing the splendid series of lectures and entertainments which the people of the city have enjoyed through their efforts during the present season.

The very best talent of both the grade and high schools will take part in this entertainment, and will reflect in the various features musical, dramatic, oratorical, amusing, the effects of the careful and able training that their teachers have given them.

GOVERNOR WEST ENJOYS JOKE

STATE EXECUTIVE JOKES WITH LOCAL ATTORNEY ABOUT THE PUBLICATION OF THE KLAMATH FALLS SOUTHERNER

Attorney D. C. Kuykendall returned last night from Salem, where he argued a case before the supreme court. Incidentally, he met Governor West.

The state executive congratulated Mr. Kuykendall on the publication of the Klamath Falls Southerner, although the local attorney declined to accept the responsibility for the paper.

"It was very clever," laughed governor. "I enjoyed it very much."

The governor referred to a telegram which had been sent here over the signature of Colonel Lawson and in response to one sent here protesting against the governor's attack on a newspaper reporter. The telegram was not printed at the time, because it was suspected that Colonel had sent it without first consulting the governor. However, Governor West assured Mr. Kuykendall that he had known of the telegram, and had entered into the spirit of fun in sending it.

A party of Swedes has been formed to take up the remaining unsold lands of the Paisley irrigation project.

"SIR" HARRY TO RETURN TO U.S.

CASE AGAINST NOTED CROOK IN SOUTH AFRICA IS CONSIDERED WEAK, AND HE MAY BE TAKEN TO OAKLAND FOR TRIAL

OAKLAND, March 25.—"Sir" Harry Westwood Cooper, better known to the Bay district as Dr. Milton Abraham, ex-convict, soldier of fortune, adventurer, forger, bigamist and notorious thief, may yet face an Oakland judge on three charges of law breaking. Chief of Police Petersen has been informed by Warden Hoyle of the San Quentin penitentiary, that the state department has received advices from Natal, South Africa, to the effect that the case against the adventurer there is considered weak, and it is believed that he will be cleared of the forged charge against him.

Petersen has communicated with the South Africa authorities, instructing them to hold Cooper for trial in this city in the event that he cannot be convicted in British courts. In the event Cooper is held for the Oakland police, Petersen will go to South Africa for him.

If brought back to Oakland, Cooper will face three charges. He will be charged with having secured $1,000 from Mrs. Herman Milbrath under false pretenses; with contracting a bigamous marriage with Mrs. Anna Milbrath and with having forged a $15,000 draft which he attempted to cash at the Central National bank.

After being paroled from San Quentin several years ago, Cooper came to Oakland as Dr. Milton Abraham. He lived with one wife while he courted two other women, Miss Daisy Climm and Miss Milbrath, both of whom were nurses in St. Anthony's hospital. He suddenly eloped with Miss Milbrath, and it was then discovered that he had attempted to cash a $15,000 forged draft and that he had secured $1,000 from his mother-in-law on the representation that he had fallen heir to an enormous estate in England.

After his character was made public and with the police of the entire world seeking him, Cooper made his way to South Africa, where he forged checks for $5,000 and fled to Australia, where he was captured.

WILLIE RITCHIE FIGHTS JULY 4

WILL DEFEND HIS TITLE IN EITHER LOS ANGELES OR SAN FRANCISCO—OPPONENT TO BE RIVERS OR CROSS

United Press Service
SAN FRANCISCO, March 25.—Writing from Milwaukee, Willie Ritchie says he will defend his title either in this city or in Los Angeles July 4th. His opponent will probably be the winner of the Cross-Rivers battle in New York.

Mrs. L. M. Davis will arrive on the stage from Bonanza this evening. Mrs. Davis has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Alie Vinson, in Langel Valley, and will spend a few days in Klamath Falls on her way to San Francisco to make a protracted visit with her sister in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. George Deal will arrive this afternoon from their Langel Valley home. Mrs. Deal has been calling for some little time, and comes to this city to place herself under the care of a physician. Her stay will depend entirely upon her condition, but is not supposed that it will require more than a week or so to restore her to her usual health.

TREASURER IS SHORT 5 CENTS

AFTER HANDLING MORE THAN A MILLION DOLLARS OF COUNTY MONEY, ALBANY MAN'S BOOKS SHOW UP WELL

ALBANY, March 25.—During the 4 1/2 years he has served as county treasurer, W. W. Francis has handled $1,839,651.22, and is short 5 cents in his accounts. That is the report of F. M. Redfield, who has just completed the work of experting the treasurer's books, and who has filed a report with the county court certifying to the accuracy of Francis' accounts and complimenting him on the manner in which they have been kept.

Mr. Redfield not only checked the books fully to see if Francis had accounted to the county for all moneys received, but he also checked over the treasurer's special accounts with the various school districts and cities of the county, and found every one absolutely correct.

Mix 'n' Up

By Joe Bush

There is a science called mnemonics, which is trying to get itself introduced into our public schools. We have no kick on this science—only it seems to us to be a roundabout way of arriving at facts you ought to remember right off the bat. It appears to work something in this manner:

"When was Lincoln born?" asks the teacher.
"I f-f-forget," whines the pupil.
"Naturally you do. Go at it right. How many Muses are there in mythology?"
"Nine."
"Right. Now double that number."
"Twice-nine's-eighteen."
"Right again. Multiply it by 100."
"1800."
"Good. Add the number of Muses to that."
"1809."

"Aha! That's when Lincoln was born. Why don't you learn the scientific way of getting at these things?" As we said in the first place, it's a noble science; but we'd rather remember dates. — Cleveland Plain Dealer.

A few days ago Sammy Evans asked for an expression of opinion from newspaper readers on the question of whether or not the Northwestern is worth the price of a cheap cigar, promising that the answers would be printed. So far none have appeared in the morning paper, although a number have been sent in. The Herald received a few copies of letters that have been sent to the Northwestern. Here is one:
"Pine Grove Ore.
"South ore. great Smoke.
"Kalamity fall, Ore.
"candy SAM—I tried your Uol Darn paper yesterday, and I calculate it is in about the same class as a pittsburg story, and from now on I guess I will stick with my cob pipe.
"If a fellow takes your great paper that is all you should ask.

GARDEN SAGE DARKENS GRAY HAIR SO NATURALLY NOBODY CAN TELL

Restores Its Lustre, Prevents Scalp Itching; Dandruff and Falling Hair

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. While it is a messy tedious task, it well repays those whose hair is turning gray, faded and streaked. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred fold.

Don't bother to prepare the tonic; you can get from any drugstore a 50-cent bottle of "Wyneth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," ready to use.

MISSOURI HOLDS PORTLAND MAN

GOVERNOR MAJORS DECLINES TO HONOR EXTRADITION PAPERS. INDICTMENT IS IMMEDIATELY RETURNED

PORTLAND, March 25.—Refusal of Governor Majors of Missouri to honor extradition papers for Lee Hunt, wanted here for embezzlement, and his being promptly indicted by the Multnomah grand jury on a second charge, were rapid developments as an incident to which telegraph wires between here and Jefferson City were kept hot carrying and sending messages for the police department and the Pinkerton agency.

White hot charges that the governor took snap judgment and refused to honor the papers without giving the authorities a hearing were telegraphed by Detective Joe Day, who is in Jefferson City to bring back the prisoners. Day says that the executive gave a private hearing to friends of the prisoner, and then announced that the case was closed; that Hunt should not leave the state. He finally consented to allow a hearing, provided new charges were filed.

Hunt was indicted here on a charge of making away with a considerable sum belonging to Bailon & Wright, by whom he was employed. Other charges, held in abeyance, were that he issued a number of worthless checks and cashed them in retail stores through the city. He was arrested in St. Louis, where, it is said, a relative holds an important position in a big bank.

Immediately upon receiving word that extradition had been refused, Captain Baty gathered up the witnesses in one of the bad check transactions and hurried them before the grand jury, where a second indictment was returned and a bench warrant was issued. With this in hand, the police telegraphed sufficient information on which to base a fugitive warrant, and Day was instructed to re-arrest his man, who has bail up in the sum of $1,000.

EUGENE HAS BUT ONE CANDIDATE

OFFICE OF MAYOR OF UNIVERSITY TOWN MAY GO BEGGING—D. E. YORAN ALONE SEEKS THE POSITION

EUGENE, March 25.—For the first time in at least a decade, there is but a single candidate for mayor of Eugene, for when the time of filing petitions expired the petition of D. E. Yoran was the only one on file.

Many candidates were suggested in a tentative way, including one prominent club woman, but no petitions were circulated except for Mr. Yoran. There will be opposition for all other positions on the ballot April 7.
