

MANY DIE IN PERU FACTORY

BUILDING IN WHICH PEOPLE BOUGHT SAFETY IS REPORTED TO HAVE COLLAPSED—PART OF CITY WASHED AWAY

United Press Service
PERU, March 24.—An unconfirmed report is current that the Peru Furniture factory, where several hundred people were sheltered, has collapsed, carrying many people down to death. It is reported that the entire southern end of the city has been washed away.

DAYTON DEATH ROLL IS ENORMOUS

o'clock Bell telephoned that the fire is working northward. He said that because the water is receding it is possible to wade in that section. It is possible that all of the 10,000 people marooned in business blocks will escape. The 23-foot dam in the Scioto River north of here, collapsed at 4:30. Large fatalities are feared.

United Press Service
COLUMBUS, O., March 26.—At 3:30 this afternoon John Bell telephoned from Dayton to Governor Cox, saying that the fire in the flooded district in Dayton had leaped across third street, sweeping the next block. The governor has been advised by the way of Springfield that from 10,000 to 12,000 are burning in the buildings at Dayton. The fire is being fought by lifting water in buckets from the flood. Three carloads of boats on a special train from Springfield passed Xenia and the train is due in Dayton at 3:30. Edward Hanley, public utility magnate, has notified Governor Cox by the way of Springfield, that he estimates the fatalities at "not over 3,000."

United Press Service
SOUTH BEND, Ind., March 26.—The local manager of the Bell Telephone company, who has been in direct communication with Peru, said this afternoon: "I have positive assurance from Peru at 1 o'clock this afternoon that 300 people are dead there as a result of the floods."
United Press Service
DAYTON, O., March 26.—From 100 to 500 people were drowned in Piqua, according to unconfirmed dispatches from there. The streets have been converted into raging torrents.
United Press Service
SIDNEY, O., March 26.—John Bell, wire chief at Dayton, telephoned to Governor Cox at 1 o'clock this afternoon as follows: "The Russel apartments at West Third street and the Boulevard are on fire. People are jumping from the burning building into the water. About 200 people are dead in River-

Leading Fusion Candidates for Mayor of New York

Charles S. Whitman John Purroy Mitchel George McAneny

NEW YORK, March 26.—The announcement of District Attorney Charles S. Whitman of New York county that he will accept a fusion nomination for mayor brings into the contest three candidates, one of whom will likely be picked to oppose the Tammany candidate in the election this fall. They are, besides Mr. Whitman, John Purroy Mitchel, president of the board of aldermen, and George McAneny, president of the borough of Brooklyn.

The district attorney, a republican, has made his reputation on his prosecution of Police Lieutenant Charles Becker and the four gunmen who killed Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, last July, and the work since in following up graft till there are already under indictment one police inspector, one captain and several policemen, with a prospect of the indictment and North Dayton. The fatalities are growing, and may reach 1,000.

United Press Service
COLUMBUS, O., March 26.—Nearly all of the wires out of this city are down. Estimates of the dead vary from 50 to 5,000. Governor Cox estimates that there are 250,000 homeless people in the state. The damage is incalculable. In Dayton, Piqua, Sidney, Middletown and Tippacanoe City the greatest damage was done. It is reported 500 people were killed in Piqua alone. This cannot be confirmed. The entire Ohio National Guard has been ordered out, and Governor Cox has appealed to neighboring states for supplies. The legislature will probably appropriate $250,000. In Hamilton 13 people are known to be dead and 100 missing. In Middletown seven people are known to be dead and 100 missing. From eight to thirty feet of water covers the entire city of Dayton. People have taken refuge in high buildings and on the hills on the west side. In Columbus 15,000 are homeless ment of three more inspectors. Mr. Mitchel, a democrat, one of the youngest officials to hold a high position in the city government of New York, would be one of her youngest candidates for mayor. He is a nephew of the late Henry D. Purroy, chief of the county democracy which fought Tammany Hall many years ago. He won his spurs as a commissioner of accounts under Mayor McClellan. In that position he was given general power of investigation of the city departments, and he managed to make it very uncomfortable for many city officials. As a member of the board of estimate, the body which holds the purse strings of the city, he has fought for two years against the letting of the $170,000,000 contract for the construction of subways to the Interborough company, which controls the present subway system.

and the fatalities are estimated at from six to 200.

United Press Service
TOLEDO, March 26.—Word was brought from Tiffin by a special messenger. He reports the death of 50 people in the flood there.
United Press Service
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 26.—President Wilson is preparing an appeal to the country for funds for the Red Cross Society for the relief of flood victims in Ohio and Indiana.
United Press Service
PERU, Ind., March 26.—Sixty people are reported drowned here. Some estimates are as high as 100. The Wabash River has flooded the city with from five to twenty-five feet of water. Hundreds of people are marooned in buildings, which are likely to collapse. The weather is bitterly cold, and there is grave danger of a famine.
United Press Service
INDIANAPOLIS, March 26.—The flood in Indiana is the worst in the history of the state. The loss of life will be over 100, and some estimates are made as high as 1,000. Peru suffered most. The entire Wabash Valley is flooded. Numerous cities are isolated, and it is feared that the fatalities will be large. After sixty hours of downpour, the rain is still general, and the flood has not reached the crest. The damage in Indiana will be $25,000,000.
Morgue Established
United Press Service
COLUMBUS, O., March 26.—At 9:10 this morning John Bell, wire chief at Dayton, telephoned to Governor Cox that the flood victims will number about 100, mostly women and children. A temporary morgue has been established. Bodies are being cared for as rapidly as they are received.
Communication Established
CINCINNATI, O., March 26.—Although communication with Dayton, Middletown and Hamilton has been indirectly opened, it is impossible to accurately estimate the fatalities as yet. Reporters for the Cincinnati Post, who have been in Dayton, telephoned from Lebanon that Dayton officials regard an estimate of 500 dead as conservative. Many parts of the stricken city can not be reached, and hundreds of people are missing.
COLUMBUS, O., March 26.—Governor Cox has been informed that

On the other hand, Mr. McAneny, democrat, has been the chief champion of the Interborough, along with Mayor Gaynor. He was president of the City Club, one of the leading reform organizations, at the time he was selected on the fusion ticket, three and a half years ago. The three men were elected to their present offices as fusion candidates on the two-headed majority ticket led by William R. Hearst and Otto H. Bannard. It is likely that Hearst, who will be a power in the coming election, would support either Whitman or Mitchel, preferring Mitchel to the district attorney. But he has repudiated McAneny in the strongest terms. Many politicians think that it is possible that Hearst would support the Tammany candidate rather than McAneny in case he were to receive the fusion nomination.

Dayton is on fire, and that people are burning to death there. At 3 o'clock this afternoon the governor announced his determination of reaching the stricken city with troops and other assistance without regard to the cost. All troops in Western New York and all troops available in the Central Department have been ordered to be in readiness to proceed to Ohio and Indiana. The house this afternoon passed a bill appropriating $250,000. The bill was amended in the senate making it $500,000. A telegram from Delaware, O., this afternoon follows: "Twenty-five people are dead here and thousands are homeless." General Wood telegraphed Governor Cox as follows: "Express from Columbus tentage and cots for 2,000 people, besides medical supplies." Governor Cox issued the following statement: "Farmers and everybody who can possibly get boats to Dayton ought to do so, even at the risk of their own lives. Buildings on Third street in Dayton are on fire, and the people in them are dying."

the role of most oriental wives. In order to prove it, while they were on a trip in Paris, and show that he was the master, she said, he struck her. Then he fled. "I want to let American girls know what is in store for them when they are thinking about marrying orientals," said she. "It is absolutely impossible for the oriental and the occidental to understand each other."

WILSON URGES COUNTRY TO AID

PRESIDENT DECLARES FLOODS APPROACH THE PROPORTIONS OF A NATIONAL CALAMITY. FUNDS ARE ASKED FOR

United Press Service
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 26.—President Wilson issued the following statement this afternoon: "The terrible floods in Ohio and Indiana approach the proportions of a national calamity. The loss of life and the infinite suffering prompt me to issue an earnest appeal to all who are able to assist in the labors of the American Red Cross Society. Send contributions to the Red Cross Society at Washington or to the local treasurers."

to have shot Ward. District Attorney Irwin outlined the state's case to the jury briefly. He declared that it would be shown that Bellamy had planned trouble with Ward, and had stated that he would be in jail before night on the day of the shooting. Horace Manning, speaking for the defense, said the defense would be that Bellamy fired at Ward after the latter had threatened to injure him by throwing glasses at the negro's head. The following were chosen to act as jurors: I. J. Straw, J. W. McCoy, Charles Loomis, E. R. C. Williams, Albert Johns, F. L. Applegate, R. A. Emmitt, H. S. Fox, J. B. C. Taylor, H. E. Peltz, H. H. Roberts and A. H. Newton. Bellamy is charged with having shot a man named Ward during an altercation in the Comet lodging house. It appears that the negro had sold a lunch counter in the lodging house to Ward, but the payments were not made as agreed upon. The negro went to the lodging house and demanded possession. It is claimed that the white man struck at the black man with a glass. Thereupon the negro fired. The bullet struck the white man in the arm. There appears to be some disagreement as to the number of shots fired. It is claimed that the negro fired twice before Ward was hit. This is disputed, however, and some claim that but a single shot was fired.
