SHOOTS WARD; GETS LIBERTY

JURY RETURNS A VERDICT OF NOT GUILTY IN CASE IN WHICH A NEGRO IS CHARGED WITH SHOOTING WHITE MAN
 Thomas Bellamy, colored, was acquitted by a jury in the circuit court last night of a charge of having assaulted George Ward with a dangerous weapon with intent to kill. The jury deliberated a couple of hours when the verdict was announced. It is reported that on the first ballot the vote was ten for acquittal and two for conviction.

The jury was instructed by Judge Benson that any one of three verdicts might be brought in. The jury might find the defendant guilty as charged in the indictment; guilty of assault with a dangerous weapon, or not guilty. It was the prevailing opinion when the jury retired that the verdict would be guilty of assault with a dangerous weapon.

Much credit is given Horace Manning, attorney for the negro, for the acquittal. The attorney made an eloquent plea for his client, and this is believed to have had much to do with the jury overlooking the evidence of the alleged assault.

It is a notable fact in connection with the Bellamy case that in the last three criminal cases tried here since January 1st, two of the defendants have been negroes, and both were acquitted. The third case was against a white man, and the jury was unable to agree.

A Scene From "Damaged Goods"

"Damaged Goods," the French medical play, will be produced before the president, the members of the cabinet and members of congress at the National theater, (Washington, April 3, if all of them will attend.

Following the successful performance at the Hudson theater in New York, it was decided that the highest officials of the government should be asked to witness it. After several other performances in New York theaters, the company will go to Washington, and strong efforts to have the president, the members of the cabinet and members of congress attend as guests will be made.

The play has been managed by Richard Bennett under the direction of the Medical Review of Reviews Sociological Fund. It is by Edmund Brieux, and was prohibited when an effort was made to present it before a popular audience in Paris. The play is said by critics to have little dramatic merit, and in fact, such is not claimed by the producers. They wish to teach a lesson such as is usually taught in clinics or behind the locked doors of physicians' offices.

One of the strongest scenes is the announcement by the Doctor (wilton Lackaye) to George Dupont (Richard Bennett) after a consultation.

HUNTINGTON WILSON

Huntington Wilson, assistant secretary of state, who was prominent in the foreign affairs of the government during the four years of the Taft administration, has hastened his departure from the state department. Secretary Wm. J. Bryan has asked him to remain thirty days after the inauguration, and he had consented. Mr. Bryan went to his birthday celebration in Lincoln, Neb., leaving Wilson in charge. Then President Wilson gave a statement to the newspapers in which he overturned the policy of the department concerning the relations of the United States with China. He let it be known indirectly that he did not favor what has been called "dollar diplomacy." Assistant Secretary Wilson resented this announcement of a policy of his department through the newspapers, and handed in his resignation March 20.

SENATOR LANE ROASTS JURISTS

OREGON REPRESENTATIVE DECLARES THAT JUDGES MUST WIN BACK THE RESPECT OF PEOPLE OR FACE RECALL

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 25.—"Either the federal bench of the United States must be filled from now on with men who can win back the respect of the people for the judiciary, which has been forfeited, or the recall of federal judges is going to come, and is going to tear the robe of some of the highest judges in the country."

This is the opinion given to Attorney General McReynolds by Senator Lane of Oregon the other day. Lane is not a lawyer; he is just a doctor, and a staunch champion of common folks' rights. His sincerity in this warning so impressed McReynolds that the latter asked to have Lane's remarks sent him in writing. Lane complied.

"It's a serious thing when the judiciary of the nation is the object of public suspicion," said the Oregon senator. "It indicates troubles ahead for the judges. We want men put on the bench in our part of the country, when vacancies are to be filled, who will not only be above suspicion, but will redeem the reputation of their rank."

BOURNE TO WORK WITHOUT SALARY

FORMER SENATOR HAS BEEN APPOINTED CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT GOOD ROADS COMMITTEE—PLAN TO BE ANNOUNCED

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 25.—If the rural mail routes of the United States total 1,100,000 miles in length how many wheelbarrow patrolmen will it take to keep these roads in good condition? That is the problem which Jonathan Bourne, Jr., recently senator from Oregon, has undertaken to solve this summer, and without charging Uncle Sam for his services. Bourne was made chairman of the joint good roads committee of Congress. His salary as senator was cut off March 4th.

He has learned from French engineers that wheelbarrow patrolmen are the secret of economy in the upkeep of rural highways. A shovel and a barrow are all the equipment necessary.

Senator Bourne has written to all of the 42,000 rural mail carriers in the United States for a detailed report as to the length and character of road they cover. From state engineers he is securing data on the cost of construction and of maintenance. When congress meets next December the joint committee will be ready to report a complete plan of highway construction and repair.

SHH! LADIES! SECRET TO DARKEN FADED GRAY HAIR--USE SAGE TEA

Sage Mixed With Sulphur Restores Natural Color and Lustre to Hair

Why suffer the handicap of looking old. Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance.

Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly just a few applications of Sage tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred fold.

Either prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," ready to use; but listen, avoid preparations put up by druggists, as they usually use too much sulphur, which makes the hair sticky. Get "Wyeth's," which can always be depended upon to darken beautifully and is the best thing known to remove dandruff, stop itching and falling hair.

By using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair. It does it so naturally and evenly—you moisten a sponge or soft brush, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time, which requires but a few moments. Do this at night, and by morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two its natural color is restored and it becomes glossy and lustrous and you appear years younger.
