TEACHERS WANT TRAINING SCHOOL

STRAW VOTE TAKEN ON THE QUESTION BY COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT IN 45 to 4 FOR SUMMER INSTRUCTION

The teachers of Klamath county want a teachers' summer training school instead of the annual teachers' institute.

This has been demonstrated by the straw vote on the question recently held by County School Superintendent Fred Peterson. Of the fifty votes received, 45 favored the training school and only four want the annual institute.

The recent session of the legislature enacted a measure leaving the matter in the hands of the teachers of the various counties for their choice. In every case where a vote has been called for the teachers favored the training school.

Will Newhart, who resides at Swan Lake, is here on a business trip.

Len L. Gallagher was in from Odeasa Saturday and Sunday.

FINE FISHING IN SPENCER CREEK

BRADLEY FAMILY CATCH THE LIMIT, AND HOUSTON, MORROW AND ROBERTSON HAVE PRETTY GOOD SUCCESS

Fishing is good in Spencer Creek, according to disciples of I. Walton who journeyed there Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bradley had no difficulty in catching the limit, twenty pounds each. After they finished their 8-year-old son tried his luck for the first time in his life. The youngster duplicated the performance of his parents, and also caught a good string.

Fred Houston, Dr. E. V. Morrow and O. W. Robertson also fished at Spencer Creek Sunday. They had good success.

The road from Keno to Spencer Creek is passable for a buggy, but it is still too muddy for automobile travel.

ASKS TO HAVE DEED ANNULLED

JOHN SHOOK COMMENCES INJUNCTION SUIT AGAINST HIS WIFE — TEMPORARY ORDER MADE TODAY BY BENSON

Alleging that he made a mistake and deeded her his homestead, worth $10,000, instead of property valued at $5,000, John Shook, an old resident of this county, today commenced suit against his wife, Cora Shook, to restrain her from executing the deed, or trading the property for a Portland rooming house.

A temporary order was issued by Circuit Judge Benson this afternoon. In his complaint, Shook states that his wife, who lives in Portland, wrote him that she could trade a portion of the Shook holdings near Dairy for an apartment house in Portland, and asked him to execute a deed in blank for the property.

Shook says that in complying with the request, he made a mistake in the description, and instead, executed a deed in blank for the Shook homestead near Dairy, on which he has lived for the past thirty years, and which is easily worth $10,000. This deed, he says, he forwarded to her.

After learning his mistake, the plaintiff says he wrote to Mrs. Shook, telling her of the mistake, and asking her not to make the trade. He says she has refused to return the deed, and threatens to make the trade with the wrong property.

American Best Dressed Woman

NEW YORK, April 14.—Jacques Worth, the Paris tailor, who for a generation has been considered at least one of the two or three great dressmakers on women's clothes, has surprised New York by announcing he believes the American woman is the best dressed woman in the world. He may have said it with an eye to future business, but he said it.

"The exceedingly effective appearance of the American woman is due to perfectly natural causes," he explained. But one cause is physical, another mental, and a third economic. The total ensemble of the American woman depends partly on her glorious figure, partly on her excellent artistic sense, and partly on her well-filled pocketbook.

"Fortunately our women are taking up golf. I believe that game is excellent for the preservation of the youthful figure. All exercise is, of course, beneficial. Let the American woman continue to lead her splendid life."

WALL STREET IS STILL FOR DEAD

The police guarded the streets through which the lower covered casket was taken to St. George Episcopal church, where private services were held, only the members of the family and immediate friends being present.

HARTFORD, Conn., April 14.—Business was suspended all over the city today in respect to the late J. Pierpont Morgan. Practically the entire populace watched the funeral cortege as it went past Morgan's birth place.

The services at the Morgan tomb in Cedar Hill Cemetery were read by Bishop Brewster.

United Press Service LONDON, April 14.—A large can filled with gunpowder was found in the Bank of England this morning.

The can was discovered to have an unlighted fuse attached.

CRISIS COMES IN THE NEXT TWELVE HOURS

PHYSICIAN PREPARES TO CLASP AT VATICAN

Although Traces of Kidney Trouble Are Gone and Heart Action is Unchanged, Physicians Are Worried at Fresh Symptoms—Death is Predicted by Those Visiting the Pontifical Man

United Press Service

ROME, April 14.—A statement issued from the Vatican late this afternoon is to the effect that the pope has returned to Pope Pius X., and his temperature has increased slightly.

Intimate friends and clerical dignitaries, who have been at the bedside today, predict death within a few hours.

The illness of the pontiff has been work making a last effort. An automobile is held in readiness to get Cardinal Vannucchi, who will administer the final sacraments.

The crisis will come within twelve hours, say the attendants. Should the pope survive, he may live several months.

Dr. Marchisiani, the attending physician, will spend the night in the sick chamber at the Vatican, despite his assurance that his holiness will recover. The number of guards and attendants in the sick room have been doubled, and two beds have been prepared in the ante-room for the night watchers at the bedside.

The pope has slept but little since yesterday. All traces of kidney trouble have gone, and the heart action is no weaker, but the physicians are alarmed at fresh symptoms.

A hardening of the arteries was noticed this morning. This has grown worse.

Activities at the Vatican indicate that the situation is very grave.

Klamath Boosters Unite in Harmony at Bonanza Banquet

Good Roads, the Important Part They Will Play in the Development of Klamath County, the Best Methods of Construction, and Court's Policies Discussed

With more than 200 present, and all harmoniously preaching the gospel of good roads as the means of salvation for this part of the state, the banquet and booster meeting given at the Harpoid hotel in Bonanza Saturday night by the Bonanza Commercial Club proved to be one of the most enthusiastic meetings ever held in the county. All went home with a good many new points in their minds to show just what a wonderful country Klamath County is, and what can be expected as soon as roads are built to hasten the development of this region.

In addition to boosters from all parts of the country around Bonanza, the members of the county court were present, in addition to others from Klamath Falls, and with Dr. Hitchcock acting as toastmaster, many were called on for speeches, and all responded with messages of cheer and co-operation in the good work.

The work that has been accomplished by the county court during the past two years, the policy that is being pursued at present in this respect, and the plans for future highway improvements were told by County Judge Worden and Commissioners Merrill and Hagelstein.

Sheriff Low and Sam T. Summers attested to the truth of the statements made by the court members, and even Rev. George H. Foose took occasion to point out to the Langell Valley bachelors the advantage of having good highways to make a favorable impression on the Eastern girls.

J. O. Hamaker, editor of the Bonanza Bulletin, in his inimitable manner, told of the conditions throughout the "Clover Leaf" section, and he called the attention of the assemblage to a number of road improvements necessary in that neighborhood. The method of road improvement used by the county was heartily endorsed by Francis J. Downe, secretary of the Horseshoe Irrigation district. He also spoke of the aims of the irrigationists.

Others making talks were G. E. Gillette, H. G. Bussey, Prof. Faught, Max A. McCall, Fred Bernhardt, E. L. Elliott, George Sparrentora, W. F. Sedge, H. E. Winnard and J. A. Madrox.

Must Not Use Second Street For Dump Pile

Mayor Says any Further Offenses of Kind Will be Prosecuted. City Has Property For Purpose

Parties dumping tin cans, boxes, bottles and other rubbish on the city property along the lake front on Second street will be prosecuted, according to a statement made by Mayor Nicholas this morning.

"The city owns seventeen lots in this section which needs filling," said the mayor, "and we will be glad to give permission to parties desiring to get rid of dirt and barn manure to dump it there, but all tin cans, bottles, boxes, etc., must be hauled outside of the city limits. Several loads of tin cans and bottles have been hauled to Second street during the past few nights, and I desire to warn those doing so that they must stop or they will be prosecuted."

A lot of filling has been made along Second street from surrounding areas and with barn manure, and according to the mayor the city will be glad to have any material used for filling placed on the property of the city, but all persons desiring to do so must first secure permission from the superintendent Ralph Vaughn, who will first inspect the material to be hauled.

These seventeen lots are to be converted into a park for the city, and the material filled the more valuable property.
