

Speaker Clark Calling the House to Order in the Extra Session

(Copyright by Harris & Ewing.) When Speaker Clark struck his gavel on the desk in front of him at high noon, Monday, for the first and extra session of the Sixty-third house of representatives, he found before him full benches. The enlarged membership had to occupy the new seats made like opera chairs. The only persons who have desks are the leaders, and one is in front of Oscar W. Underwood, the democratic leader, while James R. Mann, the republican leader, has another. The business of the extra session will be the tariff bill, which Underwood introduced shortly after the house was called to order.

YAINAX ROAD BEING IMPROVED

CREW AT WORK ON HIGHWAY BETWEEN AGENCY AND YAINAX, AND AUTOMOBILISTS ARE JUBILANT

(Special Correspondence) KLAMATH AGENCY, April 17.—A gang of men employed by Superintendent Watson of the Klamath reservation left in charge of Wilber Miller, government farmer on the reservation, to repair the roads between the Agency and Yainax. This will be good news to automobilists who for a considerable time have been agitating improved roads in the Sprague River Valley. Perhaps the fact that the superintendent has a new Reo car accounts for this annual campaign for good roads.

T. C. White, who for the past four years has been employed as federal guard on the Klamath Indian reservation, left Tuesday for the Yainax reservation near Seattle, where he will occupy a similar position, but at a marked increase in salary.

John Shook of Dairy came in Tuesday in order to give attention to legal matters.

SPORTS OF THE WEEK

By HAL SHERRIDAN
Written for the United Press
NEW YORK, April 17.—Now that the big campaign is under way at last the main argument which seems to crown the National League race is whether New York or Pittsburgh has the greatest pitching staff. There has been more debate over this question than any other single incident connected with the National League race. McGraw is shooting Tesreau, Marquard, Mathewson, Demaree and Ames against the enemy, while Clarke is using Hendrix, Adams, O'Toole, Camnitz and Robinson. It's a tough angle. Bill Klem, the umpire, last season picked Tesreau, Marquard and Mathewson above Hendrix, Camnitz and Adams or O'Toole, but many believe that the Pirates have the edge. As the National League race promises to settle quickly between these clubs, the tag is fairly sure to go to the one which can show the best pitching. Clarke has a veritable wonder in Claude Hendrix, but McGraw believes that in Jeff Tesreau he has another Welsh—a giant capable of pitching fifty or sixty games and pitching this number at top speed. A slabman of this robust calibre means a lot, and if Tesreau can turn out this work with Mathewson and Marquard to back him up, the Pirate corps will have to travel fast and far to get the edge.

Judging by the way Walter Johnson has finished up his spring work, he is still able to push the ball from the pitcher's box to the home plate without calling for a caddy.
Until Gunboat Smith and Lute McCarty hook up there will be no way of obtaining any line upon the best American heavyweight in the pale face class.
These two now stand out, and the public is waiting eagerly for their clash. Smith's admirers believe the hard hitting California will end the cowboy within ten rounds, as McCarty isn't clever enough to keep out of his way, and no man seems strong enough to soak up his punches and keep his feet. Wells, the clever Briton, wasn't fast enough to keep away from Smith, and McKay, the Canadian giant, wasn't big enough to absorb his wallop. In any event McCarty has his work cut out when the two clash. And McCarty isn't the only near champ with a worry attached. Willie Ritchie is even worse, as he has two coming at him. Willie at present is undecided whether to meet Joe Rivers, a slashing slugger, or Freddie Welsh, who is a marvel for speed and shiftness. In other words, Willie isn't decided as to whether he would rather run the risk of getting his block knocked off or partake of an equal risk of being outpointed. Quite an engaging problem, at that.

Since the Athletics have shown four first class young pitchers in addition to Plank, Bender and Coombs, they are being picked far and wide to beat out the Red Sox. Mack now has three veterans and four fine youngsters to work with, and back of them the hardest hitting ball club in either league. If this combination isn't enough to win, there's no forecasting any result.

Frank Chance is wearing a head gear and umpires looking after the Chicago Cub battles are wearing full suits of armor. And, after all, it wasn't the head that Chance first had trouble with. The "bean hat" he wore when the Yankees and Brooklyn Dodgers were "exhibiting" before the season opened didn't save Chance's knee when the Fearless Leader twisted it in a swing around first base. They say it was a very slight strain, but it may mean a lot to the poor, hoodooed Highlanders, for they had expected to start a McGraw-like season with a run and a rush from the opening day. Figuring on $25,000 yearly for a sound and whole Chance, the ex-Cub will do well to carefully nurse a knee that is, comparatively speaking, worth at least $10,000 of the $5 thou.

Quite a bit of discussion is on as to who will comprise the All-American track team which will invade Australia and New Zealand in November, returning to America in April 1914. William Ummack of San Francisco, who is organizing the team, says he wants a sprinter capable of a good performance in anything from 100 to 440 yards; a distance man good for anything from 580 yards to five miles, and a man of ability as an all-round field performer, who can be depended on in the pole vault, broad jump, javelin and discus throw, high jump, shot put and hurdles. It's too bad about Jim Thorpe. It would simplify matters and keep expenses down greatly if— But what good are post mortems?

LICENSE BOND IS FORFEITED

SUPREME COURT HOLDS THAT SALOON MAN GAVE IT AS SECURITY TO THE CITY FOR OBNERVANCE OF LAW

SALEM, April 17.—Saloon men falling hereafter to observe the statutes and ordinances regulating their business, may be sued on the bond they give to conduct an orderly house and to comply with the law., for the supreme court affirmed the decision of the circuit court for Marion county in the case of the City of Woodburn vs Gilbert Alpin.
Alleging that Alpin has violated the conditions of his bond by selling liquor to minors and to an intoxicated person, the city of Woodburn began to recover on the $1,000 bond given by him, and won in the lower court, and now wins in the supreme court.

POSTMASTERS TO KEEP POSITIONS

POSTMASTER GENERAL SAYS ONLY ONES TO BE REMOVED ARE THE ONES WHO ARE NOT MAKING A SUCCESS

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 17.—To take a resounding "swat" at seekers of jobs from the postoffice department, Postmaster General Burleson borrowed the "big stick" from President Wilson, with the announcement "that all good republican postmasters" are to be retained.

Many who believed that Burleson would shake his heavily laden plum tree were taken aback by the following statement from the postmaster general:
"My department will be run on business lines, and not by politics."
It was learned subsequently that the majority of the postmasters now in office will be retained.

GETTING GRAY? USE SAGE TEA TO RESTORE NATURAL COLOR OF HAIR

Says Sage and Sulphur Restore the Hair Beautifully and Ends Dandruff

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, says a well known local pharmacist. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and even today this simple preparation has no equal. Millions of women and men, too, who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive use only Sage Tea and Sulphur.
Nowadays we are not bothered with the task of gathering the sage leaves and the mussy mixing at home, simply ask at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of the ready to use preparation called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." Customers like this best because it contains no mercury, no arsenic, stop scalp itching and itching hair. No, it isn't a dye, it's like it. You just dampen a brush with soft brush with "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur" and draw it through hair, taking one comb stroke at a time. By morning the gray has disappeared; after another combing two it is removed to the roots. What remains is the natural color of the hair. "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" restores the natural color of the hair.
