COMING TUNEFUL PLAY A LEADER

"PRINCE OF TONIGHT" SONG HITS
CONTAIN NUMBERS THAT WILL LIVE FOREVER—THE PLOT IS WELL DRAWN

Something different from the usual run of the musical comedy which contains froth and folly, intermingled with some musical jingles, will be seen when the gorgeous musical spectacle, "The Prince of Tonight," comes to Houston's opera house April 26th and 27th.

The froth is there, and some folly, yet there is something substantial about the story, the music and the characters that has elevated "The Prince of Tonight" above the plane of ordinary musical offering.

It has been termed by many critics a musical fantasy, with all the merit of high class opera. Certainly it has proved the greatest surprise in years. It is an alluring conceit, full of pretty solos and chorus numbers rendered by attractive girls in fanciful costumes.

Adams, Hough and Howard, who are also well known for their clever work in a score of musical successes, have been credited with their best effort in the writing of "The Prince of Tonight."

The story, consistent and of original trend, tells of a poor but resourceful college youth who has been badly snubbed by an heiress, whose directions he mistakes for real love. At the magical moment of the blooming of a century plant, he is transformed into a prince, for the one night, of the mythical land of Luntania. He is enabled to win the girl who snubbed him after all manner of adventure, in the midst of fairyland scenes lavishly presented.

Among the many song hits are "Her Eyes Are Blue for Yale," "It is a Dear Old World, After All," "The Best Thing a Walter Does is Wait," "I Can't Be True So Far Away," "Tonight Will Never Come Again," and "I Don't Want to Marry Your a-ffinity."

ENDORSE SCHOOL FOR THE CHINESE

PRESBYTERY OF SOUTHERN OREGON "O. K." THE PLAN FOR AN INSTITUTE FOR MONGOLIANS AT GLENDALE

MEDFORD, April 19.—At the open meeting of the Presbytery of Southern Oregon yesterday it was voted to endorse the proposed school of Rev. J. K. Howard, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Glendale, devoted to the education of Chinese residents in this part of the state.

The work of the school was outlined, and received hearty commendation by all members.

Vice-President and Three Cabinet Members See the Baseball Season Open in Washington D. C.

No. 1, Garrison; No. 2, Daniels; No. 3, McReynolds; No. 4, Culberson; No. 5, Marshall.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 19.—Three fans have so far been found among the members of President Wilson's cabinet, to say nothing of Vice President Marshall. They are Secretary of War Garrison, who hails from New Jersey, which has two clubs of the international but none of the big leagues; Secretary of Navy Daniels, who hails from North Carolina, where the fans must be content with minor league baseball, and Attorney General McReynolds, who has probably seen many a big league game since he moved from Kentucky to New York.

Vice President Marshall, whose duties as presiding officer of the senate are not arduous will likely be seen at many games during the season. Senator Culberson of Texas has seen the Giants of New York train in Marlin in his state.

All these officials were on hand when the Senators of Washington and the Yankees of New York opened the season at the national capital.

Every Street in Klamath Falls

Has Its Share of the Proof That Kidney Suffers Soak

Backache? Kidneys weak? Distressed with urinary ills? Want a reliable kidney remedy? Don't have to look far. Use what Klamath Falls people recommend. Every street in Klamath Falls has its cases.

Here's one Klamath Falls man's experience.

Let N. Marchand of Warden ave., tell it.

Says Mr. Marchand: "About two years ago I first noticed symptoms of kidney trouble. My back pained me intensely, and I was obliged to arise many times at night, owing to too frequent passages of the kidney secretions. Often my back was so weak that I had to quit work. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally brought to my attention, and I began using them. They restored my kidneys to a normal condition and removed the pains in my back. I give Doan's Kidney Pills the credit for my cure, and highly recommend them to other kidney sufferers."

MEDFORD ELKS TO HAVE HOME

BUILDING IN JACKSON COUNTY
METROPOLIS IS PURCHASED FOR LODGE QUARTERS BY THE ANTLERED HERD

MEDFORD, April 19.—The Medford Lodge of Elks is planning to purchase the Medford Furniture and Hardware building at the corner of Sixth and Central, remodel the third and fourth floors and convert it into an Elk home. The building committee of the lodge has reported favorably on this plan.

For some time the local lodge has planned to erect a building, but now it is deemed more feasible to purchase this block. The third floor can be fitted up for club rooms, while a lodge room can be constructed on the fourth floor.

Ambition's totin' of her load—
"Come on!" I hear her halloo,
An' Fame's a-truggin' down the road
A-beggin' me to follow.
But somehow I can't seem to hear
Above the willer's swishin',
An' Fancy shounin' in my ear,
"Come on an' go a-fishin'!"

SHH! LADIES! USE SAGE TEA TO RESTORE NATURAL COLOR TO HAIR

Sage Mixed With Sulphur Restores Natural Color and Lustre to Hair

Why suffer the handicap of looking old. Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance.

Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly just a few applications of Sage tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred fold.

Neither prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," ready to use; but listen, avoid preparations put up by druggists, as they usually use too much sulphur, which makes the hair sticky. Get "Wyeth's," which can always be depended upon to darken beautifully and is the best thing known to remove dandruff, stop itching and falling hair.

By using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair. It does it so naturally and evenly—you moisten a sponge or soft brush, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time, which requires but a few moments. Do this at night, and by morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two its natural color is restored and it becomes glossy and lustrous and you appear years younger.
