THE LAST STRUGGLE

THE Northwestern has at last had to come to it. It realizes that a newspaper without readers is not a very desirable possession, even if it is equipped with a $60,000 plant, so it has decided to attempt to bolster up its subscription list by means of a contest.

The voting contest is one of the discarded methods which in years past was used by newspapers to persuade people to take a paper. The Herald has used this method in years past, but like all modern newspapers it has proven the unfairness of such methods, and thrown it in the discard along with other ancient and worn out schemes of circulation getting.

The contest might be all right in a small, old settled community, where the fair contestants are well known to all of the residents, and where they can secure the assistance of their friends to secure votes and subscriptions, but in a community like Klamath Falls today, it is rather a questionable undertaking for any young girl to engage in.

It takes good looking girls to make a success of a contest in a new community filled with strangers. No one ever heard of men soliciting votes in a contest, which proves that it is not the value of the paper that brings in the money, but the subscriptions are bought by the loss of innocence and self respect of the pretty young girl who is forced to approach all classes of men in her efforts to win.

MANY BELIEVE POPE IS DYING

SECRECY MAINTAINED BY CARDINAL DELVAL IS RESPONSIBLE FOR LACK OF FAITH IN THE BULLETINS

United Press Service

ROME, April 19.—Thousands of people here refuse to believe bulletins that Pope Pius is improving. They are sure he is dying.

The reason given is the secrecy maintained by Cardinal DelVal, the papal secretary.

The pope slept well from midnight on. He was still weak when he awoke, but shows signs of improvement.

What's the Matter With the Old Watch?

It's not getting any younger, you know, and once in a while it needs a rest and overhauling. Railroad watches are cleaned and overhauled once a year to insure accurate time-keeping. Why not bring yours in and let us give it the attention that is necessary for good time keeping.

College Men's Chorus in Comedy

Hal Hal Boys singing the song hit, "Her Eyes Are Blue For Yale," in "The Prince of Tonight," to be staged at Houston's opera house Saturday and Sunday.

Trust to the authors, Adams, Hough and Howard, for the catchiest of music and the acme of novelty in the successes that they regularly give to the stage, another of their pleasing musical offerings is "The Prince of Tonight," full of melody and splendid humor, coming to the Houston opera house Saturday and Sunday.

THE BARGAIN SALE

By FRED FLEET
There was a time, so I am told, Long years ago, in days or old, When all men's hearts were filled with hate.

They sought to tear and devastate, And soak their brother in the eye, And cheat him when he came to buy, But this black spirit of the past, We're glad to say, is gone at last. For now, instead of bruising fists, We meet with broad philanthropists. Each one intent on giving more Than ever's been bestowed before; And that their purpose may not fail, They do it through the bargain sale.

The daily papers teem with news

Wherein these men express their view

About their varied merchandise And facts about their sacrifice. They tell of prices cut in two, And goods marked down (and this is true,

For you may purchase what you will And ask it placed upon your bill; There's not a merchant in the town Who'll ever fail to mark it down.) They seem possessed, though money's lost,

To give us goods below their cost. And so, when trust in man gets frail, We're braced up by the bargain sale.

I marvel now as I reflect About these facts and their effect Upon these great unselfish souls Who've ripped their fortunes full of holes,

And slaughtered stocks and failed with tears, And kept it up these many years. My mind with awe becomes immersed To think how much they had at first.

Old Rockefeller's wealth seems slight, While poor Carnegie's fades from sight. Oh, you who knock, and hawl, and cry,

And say the cost of living's high, Go get a paper; cease your wail, And read about the bargain sale.

I absolutely guarantee all my wares to give entire satisfaction.

We dare not exaggerate to you. We are dependent upon your patronage. To get it we must have your trust and confidence. We make the following statements with a full understanding of what they mean to us. You are safe when you believe in these statements.

For the Bowels

If you only know as much as we and those who have used them know about Rexall Orderlies, you would be as enthusiastic about recommending them as we are. They taste just like candy. They act so easily and so pleasantly that the taking of them is a pleasure.

Even children like Rexall Orderlies; and you know that if a medicine appeals to a child, it will appeal to grown-ups.

Rexall Orderlies

help chase gloom, dispel blues and make you feel happy by their stimulating, cleansing and strengthening effect upon the bowels. They act to free the system—and keep it free—from the distress and ill feeling that naturally result from irregular and inactive bowels.

Rexall Orderlies do this quietly, without griping or causing nausea, purging or excessive loosening. They act to overcome and remove the cause.
