HAULING LUMBER FOR STRUCTURES

EARLY COMPLETION OF EARTH-WORK ON GRIFFITH LATERALS ASSURED, AND FORCE ACCOUNT WORK OUTLINED

The early completion of the earth-work on the Griffith lateral by the sub-contractors under Maney Brothers makes it possible for the reclamation service to make an early start on the construction of structures where needed. Work starts next week. This work is to be done by force account. Lumber is being hauled to the Griffith lateral this week.

CALE'S SPECIALS LAND THE KALE

KLAMATH DEVELOPMENT CO.'S HOPEFULS FAIL TO PUT A CRIMP IN THE WONDERFUL WORK OF SHIVE

Oliver's Specials 8, Klamath Development Co. 4.
That was the way matters stood at the end of Sunday's game, and the pretty good attendance of fans, on leaving stated that the game was plenty fast enough for the admission charged. At no time did the playing get very ragged, and with Thresher and Ruiz pegging to second in big league style, those who annexed second and third knew that they had been traveling.

Shive threw in fine shape for the Kales, and he kept his hits pretty well scattered. Otto Arnold knocked out one of the four-base variety, but nobody was ahead of him on the bases.

The teams lined up as follows:
Olivers—Shive p., Thresher c., Arnold lb., Mesner 2b., Hayden 3b., Maxwell ss., Kinnear lf., Houston cf., Bullard rf.
Kalees—Ambrose p., Ruiz c., O'Connell lb., Voss 2b., George 3b., French ss., Otto Arnold lf., Leavitt cf., Gullford rf.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Underwood returned last night from Portland. Mrs. Underwood has been visiting the north for the past month. Mr. Underwood went to the Rose City last week to meet his wife.

Deputy County Clerk Charles De Lap and wife returned home Sunday evening from a visit in Portland, Seattle and Victoria B. C.

LOCAL TEAM TO PLAY AT WEED

OLIVER AND HIS COHORTS WILL INVADE THE MANUFACTURING TOWN AND ENDEAVOR TO ANNEX ANOTHER

With a record of victors over every local team to his credit, Gale Oliver like a certain gentleman of other days named Alexander, is sighing for more worlds to conquer. He has decided to leave his native heath in search of games, and Sunday will bundle up his pill tappers on the train and invade Weed.

Garrett Van Ripper will go along to handle the indicator.

Speaking of the pitching staff of the Weed team, the Summit Lookout makes the following remarks:
"Weed's pitching staff now includes Harry Koch of Sacramento, who uses his south wing. Koch was released by McCredie because he already had a surplus of southpaws. And then there is Anthony, who leaves Marysville of the Trolley League, who secured a position in the factory some time ago, but delayed his arrival until the Weed boys began to fear he had passed us up. Anthony is famous throughout Central California for his spit ball."

CONTEST GETS LITTLE SUPPORT

the future happiness of their children to the morning newspaper. Whether that paper secures a great circulation or not is purely a business proposition with which the sanctity of the home has nothing whatever to do.
Within the past few months The Herald has received numerous opportunities from outside experts to inaugurate a contest here, but profiting by past experience and a careful consideration of the evils resulting, all have been rejected.

"The way to get a greater number of votes," reads the Northwestern's plea for contestants to co-operate, "is to ask your friends to take the Northwestern."

Later the paper will suggest to a contestant:
"Having canvassed all of your friends you might ask somebody else's friends for money to help you."

And so it goes, until the now thoroughly interested young girl visits places she would not think of in the ordinary course of events, and meets people she would not care to have her parents believe she had ever before heard of.

What's the Matter With the Old Watch?

It's not getting any younger, you know, and once in a while it needs a rest and overhauling. Railroad watches are cleaned and overhauled once a year to insure accurate time-keeping. Why not bring yours in and let us give it the attention that is necessary for good time keeping.

WHITE SLAVE PROBE READY

LOS ANGELES TO CONTINUE INVESTIGATION—MINIMUM WAGE BILL READY FOR ILLINOIS LEGISLATURE

United Press Service
LOS ANGELES, April 21.—A big white slave probe is promised by District Attorney Graham, following the revelation of Katherine Phillips, aged 19, and employed by a motion picture concern, regarding a rich Californian, whose name is withheld.
Forty-one other girls under age are being interrogated. Four of them made affidavits naming the same millionaire as contributing to the delinquency of at least six young girls.

United Press Service
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 21.—Members of the white slave investigating committee have tentatively agreed to introduce this week a bill providing for a minimum wage commission. Juul and O'Hara are preparing the bill.

The measure provides a period of apprenticeship of not over a year, when the employer may pay what wage he wishes.

made the remark.
"I didn't say that," shouted Fountain.

"You did, I heard you," said Robert Emmitt, who sat next to him.
Worden then took up Grossbeck's argument as to the extravagance of the court, and told of Grossbeck asking $500 attorney fees for handling an estate, which bill, Worden said, he cut in half.

Grossbeck denied this, and Sam T. Summers, administrator of the estate, reiterated the Judge's statement. At this the attorney again insisted on being heard, and the crowd ordered him to sit down.

Worden's address covered every point on which the county court has been attacked, and he charged those seeking his recall of employing dark methods to bring this about. He stated that he was chosen by people, and would keep office until the people indicated that they did not want him in office longer. "It's the same old bunch in a new suit of clothes," he declared.

A reference to the suit over iron culvert brought by Colonel Allison brought Allison to his feet, and again there were cries of "shut up" through the hall. After attempting to speak, Allison declared that he would put his remarks in black and white, insisting that he could not get a fair show in the hall.

O. A. Stearns then got up to speak, but he was accorded treatment similar to that given Allison, following some allusions to the purchase of the county poor farm.

Mrs. Frank Ira White returned Saturday evening from Portland, where she spent the winter months. Mr. White preceded her here by about a month.

SACRAMENTO IS SCENE OF FIRE

the warehouse of the John Bruner company were destroyed by fire early this morning.

The loss is estimated at $200,000. For a time the warehouses and sheds along the Southern Pacific tracks were endangered, but they were saved after a hard fight and the spread of the blaze checked.

The entire fire department was engaged in combatting the flames, and before the danger of a spread was removed the police and hundreds of citizens were called upon for assistance.

Hundreds of people fled from hotels and lodging houses in the vicinity of the fire, scantily attired. Some of these lost all of their effects.

There was but one injury. Martin Shay sustained a broken hip in jumping from a second story window.

GOVERNMENT ACTS IN SUIT

PERMISSION TO INTERVENE AS A FRIEND OF COURT IN BANK CASES IS GRANTED BY JUSTICE WHITE

United Press Service

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 21.—The government today sought permission to intervene as a friend of court in the Minnesota and other rate cases pending. This was granted by Chief Justice White.

The department of justice had a brief decrying the rights of states to interfere with interstate commerce by issuing discriminatory interstate rates.
