BILL IS STILL DISCRIMINATORY; SAYS PRESIDENT

WILL TAKE MATTER TO FEDERAL COURTS

Japanese Envoy Will File a Formal Protest as Soon as California Measure is Passed—Wilson Says Nippon Will Fight All Her Battles on Legislation Through Courts—Bryan Starts East Tonight

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 1.—The Webb bill introduced in the California legislature providing for the ownership of lands in that state, is still discriminatory, according to President Wilson and his advisers.

As the measure seems sure to pass, it is expected that President Wilson will suggest as the quickest way to settle the constitutionality of the bill, an action in the federal courts.

As soon as the bill is passed Japan will file a formal protest with the state department. This will be filed by Baron Chinda, the Japanese envoy extraordinary.

In all the negotiations thus far between the administration and Baron Chinda, the most friendly feeling has been shown. Wilson expressed a belief that Japan will fight all her battles in the courts, and not otherwise.

As Bryan's mission in Sacramento is ended, he will leave there tonight in an effort to reach St. Louis in time to deliver a scheduled speech Saturday night.

Crater Lake is Included In Tours Now Outlined

Railway, Hotel and Development Co. Forces of the Pacific Coast will Arrange Visitors' Schedules

PORTLAND, May 1.—Putting the tourist on the highway for a tour of the great natural parks of the West is a part of the program which is being worked out by the railway, hotel and development forces of the Northwestern territory. When the roads into Crater Lake Park are finished, when the Mount Ranier road is properly connected up, when the mammoth development work being prosecuted by the British Columbia province in Strathcona park on Vancouver Island is finished, and when the still more recent park system of the Grand Trunk Pacific behind Prince Rupert is open to the public, there will be a chain of natural wonders on the Pacific fit for the entertainment of the most blasé Yankee globe trotter.

It will be the purpose then to pick up the tourists in Southern California early in the spring, as the warm weather prompts their moving north. A trip through the Yosemite and the usual California scenes will be in order. Thence the tourist will be invited to proceed northward until he reaches Crater Lake. A tour through this area, which promises to become one of the most attractive spots of the West, may be followed by a visit to the gorges of the Columbia and Mount Hood, if the people of Portland get the great peak near here properly opened to travel.

From Portland the tourist will be conducted north, through Ranier Park, where the roads for entrance

MEDFORD FIXIN' FOR VISITORS

THE CITY IS BEING MADE ATTRACTIVE PENDING THE STATE CONVENTION OF THE I. O. O. F. LODGES THERE

MEDFORD, May 1.—Judging from the plans formulated by committees of the local lodge of Odd Fellows, Medford will be more elaborately decorated with bunting and electric lights than at any previous time in her history when the Grand Lodge meets here in May. All of the business houses on Main street were solicited today for orders for bunting to be used, while long strings of electric lights will be strung across Main street. Every place of business in the city is to be appropriately decorated.

The local lodge has taken over the Natatorium complete. This building will be used for all assemblies of the grand lodge and for festivities.

DEMOS DELAY ACTION ON WEBB BILL 24 HOURS

FINAL ACTION TOMORROW IS AGREED UPON

Influence of Bryan Believed to Be Responsible, the Delay Giving the Administration an Opportunity to Bring Further Pressure to Bear Upon the Governor and Members of the Legislature

SACRAMENTO, May 1.—The impression is general here that the real object of delay in the land measure action is to give more time, so further pressure might be brought from Washington.

The first instance of this pressure arrived when Governor Johnson received a message from President Wilson, conveying a threat that if the Webb bill passed, action will be taken to the supreme court.

GOOD PROGRESS MADE ON WORKS

SEVENTY HORSES AND THIRTY MEN BUSIED ON EXCAVATION WORK ON THE SECOND UNIT. MUCH DIRT MOVED

Great progress was made on the excavation of the main waterways of the second unit during the month of April, according to reports sent in by the various sub-contractors under Maney Brothers, who have the contract for all this work.

A force of thirty men and seventy horses were kept busy all the month, and they made great headway. It is probable that the close of May will see the earthwork almost completed in both the main and sub laterals.

ANOTHER PROMINENT SUFFRAGETTE LEADER IS TAKEN INTO THE RIGOROUS EMBRACE OF THE LAW

United Press Service

LONDON, May 1.—Miss Kinney the suffragette leader and agitator, was arrested at Dover today when the steamer arrived from Calais, and remained in Holloway prison without bail, on the charge of conspiracy.

The raiders thought Miss Kinney was among the leaders arrested in yesterday's raid, but later discovered their mistake. She was in Paris at the time of the raid, conferring with Christabel Fankhurst.

Detectives in Paris shadowed her until she returned to England, and then placed her under arrest as soon as the boat docked at Dover.

WESTERN DEMOS FIGHTING BILL

WILSON TELLS THEM HE WILL STAND PAT—DISASTER FOR WEST AND SOUTH PREDICTED AT MEETING

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Democratic senators from the Western and Southern and intermountain states conferred with President Wilson for three hours today on the tariff measure.

They expressed themselves as unalterably opposed to free wool and sugar. Such a course, they held, means disaster for many of their constituents.

President Wilson is expected to stand pat on these two schedules. The conference, however, cannot help but establish a more friendly feeling.

Robekahs Tonight

Robekah Prosperity Lodge holds its regular meeting tonight in Odd Fellows hall. There will be initiation, and visiting members are invited to meet with us.

"SCRATCH 'IM, COWBOY!"

Various Committees Headed at a Meeting of the Executive Staff Night, and Work Will Be Completed at Once for a Rigger and Better Will West Show Than Southern Oregon Has Ever Witnessed—Much Interest Shown.

This is the slogan that has been adopted for the Rigger Rodeo. According to the plans outlined at a meeting of the officers of the Rigger Amusement Association last night, "scratch 'im" will be right, and there will be an much excitement and amusement at the big cowboy contest to be held July 4, 5 and 6 on the Rigger in the Rigger Rodeo.

Long English programs of the nature of organization, and the following officers were elected:

President—J. F. Maguire.
Vice president—Sam Fisher.
Secretary—Charles J. Martin.

Last year's Rodeo, through the outlook before it was given was more too bright, proved a great success, but its glory will be carried away completely by the show to be given this year, according to the enthusiastic "Bills" of the city. Realizing the success attained with such little encouragement last year they held their last night's meeting to get on a show that will keep the entire Klamath for many weeks to come.

More features, more riders, more horses—meaner horses, too, bigger purses, Indian war dances and horse races, more Western customs—these are a few of the things that the Rigger at their meeting last night looked upon, and the following committees were named to take up at once the different details of the work:

Auditing—Leslie Egan chairman.
Indian Events—Will W. Baldwin.
Dan W. Ryan and Lulu Walker.
Transportation—W. F. Johnson.
Hunter Gaidige and H. D. Mortensen.
Commissary—Frank E. Johnson, J. E. Dixon and Ed Sutton.

Clean-up Will be Thorough Here; School Boys to Work

Superintendents Appointed for Every Section of City to See That the Work is Carried on Properly Tomorrow and Saturday. Boys to be Rewarded

If there is a stray tin can, bottle or old shoe decorating any street, yard or alley in Klamath Falls on Monday, it will be one that has miraculous powers of escaping observation, for so thoroughly have the plans for Clean-up Day been arranged by Mayor Nicholas and the Women's Civic League that very little trash should escape detection and deportation to the city's garbage dump.

Saturday was designated as Clean-up Day by proclamation of Mayor Nicholas, and arrangements have been made by the city for teams to traverse all parts of the city Monday and haul away all the rubbish placed in boxes and barrels and put out near the sidewalk, where the teamsters can see it.

In order to have all the work thoroughly done the clean-up will start tomorrow, and City School Superintendent Dunbar has informed the Women's Civic League that a half holiday will be declared in the public schools tomorrow for all the children who express a desire to help make Klamath Falls a "spotless town."

The chief center of interest tomorrow, according to Mrs. W. T. Forrest, president of the Civic League, will be making more sightly many of the trash straw vacant lots. The boys who report to their district supervisors and work at this clean-up will each be given a ticket to a special matinee to be given for the workers at the Star theater Saturday afternoon. Mr. J. V. Houston is giving the matinee for the workers, and he announces that all youngsters expecting to attend must have tickets showing that they did their share of the clean-up work.

Approach of Election Puts Ginger in Talks

Past Few Days Have Developed a "Go Out After Them" Spirit in Candidates in the Contest

The lull that has been apparent in local political circles, following the announcement of candidacy for councilmen from the different wards, has given way this week to a little activity on the part of the contestants for aldermanic honors who are contended for the offices they seek.

This has not yet reached the spell-binding and public meeting stage, but there are several candidates talking long and earnestly to prospective voters, and their friends are also assisting in the "personal appeal" method of snaking in the requisite number of ballots. Several have mailed out letters to all the registered voters in their respective wards, telling just where they stand on this and that problem in municipal affairs.

In the First and Fourth wards there is no campaigning at all. Leslie Rogers is assured the honor of succeeding Councilman Russell A. Alfred in the First, as there is no opponent against him. The same rule applies in the Fourth, where nobody is out against Councilman Ben S. Owens.

There are two places to be filled in the Second Ward, a long and a short term, and there is a corresponding number of candidates. For the short term Councilman C. B. Crier and W. C. Townsend are pitted against each other.

There are three who would be the long term councilman. These are O. D. Matthews, Frank M. Upp and Fred Melhase.

The Third ward elects but one councilman, but there are many who seek the place. Councilman J. H. Hamilton is out to succeed himself in the Third, while opposed to him are William H. Shaw, Dr. W. A. Leonard and Horatio Orem.

In the Fifth ward, Councilman W. C. Huson seeks another term. Fred Findman would also be the alderman from the Fifth, and the contest between these men was merry.

Ambassadorial Conference Expected to Reach a Compromise in the Question of City of Scutari

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 1.—The powers today delivered to the Turkish government a joint note, demanding an immediate cessation of hostilities against the Balkan allies and the appointment of its peace delegates for the Ottoman Empire to the peace conference.

The note announces that the Turkish government will have the naming of the city where the conference will be held.

In the opinion of diplomats this action means that the powers contemplate a speedy and possible solution of the Scutari problem.
