Society

ing until a late hour, and cards and other diversions were also indulged in. A Dutch lunch was served.

One of the big events of the week for the lovers of the terpsichorean art was the dancing party given Monday night by a number of young ladies.
The dance was given in the west hall of the Odd Fellows building, and excellent music was furnished by Prof.
Garrett Van Riper's orchestra. (To be exact, however, Mr. Van Riper furnished the music; that is, he furnished four musicians.) Punch was served during the evening to the assemblage, and there were upwards of forty couples in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Griffith entertained about thirty-five guests at their home on the Merrill road last Saturday night. The evening was spent in games and contests, after which luncheon partners were secured by matching puzzle postcards. At 11:30 a dainty lunch was served. This feature of the evening's entertainment aroused everybody's good nature, and a late hour ended the frolic by the singing of some of the good old songs. Everybody was unanimous in declaring Mr. and Mrs. T's royal entertainers.

On May Day the friends of Mrs.
Orland King, who lives on the Merrill road near the Stukle bridge, were royally entertained in her lovely new home, in honor of another birthday.
The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion, and many were the gifts and good wishes received by her guests. Five hundred was played during the greater part of the afternoon, Mrs. Seymons making highest score. Musical renditions added greatly to the afternoon's enjoyment. Refreshments were served, and Miss Hill acted as toastmistress.

Right Reverend Robert L. Paddock, Episcopal bishop of the Eastern Oregon diocese, will be the guest of honor at a reception to be given this evening at the Hotel Hall. Members of the Episcopal church and friends of the Bishop are invited to attend. The Ladies Guild has charge of the arrangements.

Mrs. Willard Smith of Bakersfield, Calif., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Parrish, for the past two weeks, left this morning for Portland and Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Wattenburg, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Caden and Mrs. Emma Talbot motored to the Phillips ranch, eleven miles from here on the Merrill road, Sunday, and were guests at a sumptuous chicken dinner, served by Mrs. H. F. Phillips. The party spent the greater part of the day at the ranch.

In honor of the birthday of Mrs.
Leech, Misses Lillian and Eliza Stiltz entertained a number of friends at 500 Wednesday evening. Card honors were won by Mrs. Fred Melhase and Robert E. Wattenburg. Late in the evening refreshments were served.

Professor W. H. Taft, of Yale

After "Professor" Taft was well settled in his professorship at Yale he permitted the photographers to step in to show the public how an ex-president looks in such an office.
The ex-president is a busy and contented man, and would not have chosen anything else for his retirement. He has a comfortable bright office in New Haven, and he has become very popular with his students.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schallock, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Daggett, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Melhase, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hogue, Mr. and Mrs.
Robert Wattenburg, Mr. and Mrs.
Frank Ward, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Parker, Mrs. S. S. Henley, Mrs. J. J.
Keller, Mrs. George Hura, Mrs. Ida Fink, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hall, Dr. and Mrs. Taylor, Phil Stiltz and J. E.
Bodge.

Members of the Senior class of the Klamath county high school this morning hied themselves to the river with well filled lunch baskets, and crowding into a motorboat started down the river, with the Nelson ranch near Keno, as their destination. This ranch has a grove ideal for picknicking, and here it is that the senior Seniors are today enjoying their May frolic, perhaps the last that the class will enjoy together. Members of the class attending the picnic are Jennie Applegate, Alla Ballis, Maynel Sanderson, Ines Elliott, Florence Ward, Annie Hales, Evelyn Graves, Hazel Summers, J. Lovren Skilton, Theodore Case, Robert Riggs, Ernest Mail,

ASHLAND SEES
WATER COMING

MEN ARE IN THE FIELD WITH ENBROW DEEDS SIGNING UP CONTRACTS FOR HIGH LINE IR-RIGATION DITCH

ASHLAND, May 3.—The Rogue River Canal company has so far perfected its plans for throwing an irrigation canal along the Bear Creek hills opposite Ashland, at the 2,000-foot level, as to have men in the field with water contracts and water escrow agreements signing up the landholders whose lands would fall under said ditch.

Engineers and representatives of the company have been in Ashland frequently of late. Speaking for the company while in the city last Saturday G. W. Conner stated that an English syndicate will finance the proposition providing the necessary acreage can be signed up to make the proposition a success. Mr. Conner was accompanied by D. R. Wood and W. J. Mundy of Madford, and was shown about the city by D. H. Jackson of Ashland.

As the public is already aware, this company has acquired control of the waters of Four-Mile Lake in Klamath county and Fish Lake in Jackson county, together with the necessary permit for connecting the two; also the waters of Little Butte Creek.
These give it enough water to irrigate practically 100,000 acres.

It has had for some time elaborate blue prints and maps in its possession and has the assurance of many civil engineers and experts on irrigation that its plans are perfectly feasible.

According to its present plans 55,- 000 acres would fall under its ditches —thus assuring one and a half acre feet per acre for each annual irrigation season. The larger portion of this acreage is down the valley, and would fall under the lower canals of the company's original system.

The addition of a high line ditch to take in the Ashland district is an efficient thought of the company, and one which should be particularly gratifying to Ashland citizens and ranchers of this section. Irrigation of her idle acres would give Ashland a greatly increased trade territory. The company is already assured of contracts for watering the Waite tract of 2,000 acres, and will undoubtedly be welcomed with open arms by other landholders.

They are new and down-to-the-minute for class. Hand-painted French enamel handy pins.

TWO WELLS JUST STRUCK ARE POURING OUT OVER TWO THOU-SAND GALLONS PER MINUTE.
PROSPECTS BRIGHT

WEED, May 3.—That portion of Shasta Valley known as the Cedars country is witnessing the greatest development of any section of the country. Last week the Big Springs Water company, which is developing water for irrigation by sinking wells, was successful in opening up two flowing wells, that are pouring out 1,000 gallons per minute each.

This water is to be used by the Mt.
Shasta Land and Irrigating company, co-operating with the Big Springs Water company, to reclaim the desert land in the Cedars, and to supply additional water to ranchers in that district, the plan embracing 6,000 acres.

The crew of the Chapman Construction company has completed the first mile of ditch through the hardest part of line, and have commenced on the remaining four miles, which will be completed by July.

If it's worth having, it's worth insuring. See Chilcote, 522 Main St.

ORIENT TO HAVE BIG CONCESSION

REPRODUCTION OF THE BORN-TOWER THE-GARDEN AND CHI-NESE ACTORS IN THEATRE TO BE AMONG ATTRACTIONS

SAN FRANCISCO, May 3.—Widespread Tower, one of the landmarks of China which is situated a short distance from Shanghai, is to be reproduced in the concessions section of the 1915 International Exposition by leading Chinese merchants, at a cost of $100,- 000. The concession calls for a ten garden, restaurant, Chinese theater and the sale of souvenirs and articles of the Orient.

On the main floor of "The Pagoda" will be a display of Chinese wares and manufactories. It is planned to import expert workmen in gold, silver, carved ivory, rug and matting, and these workers will prepare articles on the premises. These alone will be an extremely interesting exhibit.
A Chinese theater will be an interesting feature, and a troupe of Chinese actors will be brought from China to produce some of the famous dramas of the new republic.

On the second floor will be a ten garden. The decorations and furnishings will be Oriental, and Chinese girls in native costume will serve tea to visitors. It will be in the form of a roof garden, and will be one of the attractions on the exposition grounds.
