COMMISSION IS AFTER SLEUTHS

SAN FRANCISCO BOARD STARTS ACTION AGAINST ONE OF THE EIGHT ACCUSED OFFICERS—VICTIMS PRESENT

United Press Service
SAN FRANCISCO, May 8.—With the full board present, the police commission today took up the case of Frank Esola, a detective, who is charged with connivance with grafters and bunco men. The seven other officers who were indicted on similar charges were also present. Esola is specifically accused of aiding in the swindle of Charles Foida, a Modesto farmer. Foida was bilked out of $900 by Gallo Martini. Fichtel says he has additional evidence against Esola.

State Commander to Visit Klamath Falls

In honor of the visit of Lady Aybott, state commander of the Ladies of the Maccabees of the World, who will be here this evening on a trip of inspection, members of the local Hive have arranged two entertainments. This evening at 8 o'clock a meeting will be held at the Library Club hall, at which the commander will be present. Tomorrow afternoon a reception will be tendered at the residence of Mrs. C. B. Crisler on Fifth street, from 2 to 4 o'clock.

George Deal is here from his ranch in Langell Valley.

Father and Son Are Hurt at Same Time

Rushing to the Assistance of His Sire, Bruised by a Log at the Pelican Bay Mill, E. Dreher is Injured

John Dreher, sawyer at the Pelican Bay Lumber company's sawmill, was injured Wednesday by a log, and his son, Emil Dreher, also employed there, was injured in trying to assist his father. Both men are at their home nursing bruises received in the mishap. Dreher Sr. was picking the rot out of a log preparatory to running it through the saw, when the log rolled against him. He was badly bruised, but not otherwise injured. Seeing his father's plight, and fearing that he might be seriously injured, Dreher Jr. sprang to his side to assist him. He was also struck by the log, and, like his father, he sustained many bruises.

treaty required all shipping through the canal, even American home shipping, to pay tolls. His task is thus made difficult at the start, and he will have hard work to change the view taken by the senate.

The new ambassador was well received, and showed that he might become as popular as his predecessor, who won his way into the affections of the American people.

Ten Companies Out Of Missouri State

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 8.—Ten fire insurance companies doing business in Missouri have withdrawn their local agents and suspended writing new insurance on account of the repeal of the Oliver rating law by the last legislature. Seven other companies previously withdrew from the state.
