

Special Recall Election is to Be Held on June 2nd; Question of Legality is Causing Much Discussion

WILSON LOOKS FOR AMICABLE EARLY ENDING

EXPLAINS WITHHOLDING OF JAPANESE PROTEST

Interview With United Press Staff Correspondent, Executive Refuses to Touch Upon the Question of Naturalization of the Japanese—Believes All Will Be Settled by Diplomacy Before Long

By John E. Nevin. (United Press Correspondent.)

Washington, May 12.—In discussing the California anti-alien land law situation, President Wilson this afternoon stated that the negotiations between the United States and Japan are most friendly.

He explained the withholding from publication the language of Japan's protest against the measure was inspired solely by a desire for concealment. Japan, he stated, desired frankness in handling the matter, and could not express herself freely in communications if they were to be immediately published.

"I am willing to publish the protest of Japan if Baron Chinda, the Japanese ambassador, desires it," said the president.

Wilson stated that he expects little difficulty in reconciling everything in connection with the radical legislation. He holds that the clause in the

Dr. Carver to Help Make Farmers Joy

Marketing, social welfare, and other matters connected with the life of farmers are to be looked after especially by a new bureau of the department of agriculture in Washington, and Dr. Thomas Nixon Carver of Harvard university is to have charge of it. Dr. Carver is a political economist of note, and has taught that subject in several large universities besides Harvard.

He had discussed the subject with the new secretary of agriculture and a number of congressmen. They believe that something can be done to show the average farmer how he can sell his produce to better advantage, and how he and his family may be less lonely on the farm. While a lot of people think that they cannot learn much on a practical subject from a professor of political economy, the Washington administration is going to make the effort to convince them they are wrong.

Guild to Meet

The Grace Episcopal guild will meet at the home of Mrs. E. J. Stewart tomorrow at 3 p. m. All the members are urged to be present, as important business is to come up.

SHEEP INCREASE IS NOT SO BIG

LAST YEAR IT WAS 100 PER CENT AND THIS YEAR IT IS 80 PER CENT—9,000 HEAD NEAR TULE LAKE FOR SHEARING

I. D. Applegate returned Saturday from the Lava Bed country, where he has been looking after his sheep during the lambing season. According to Mr. Applegate, the increase this year is not as great as it was last. The increase will run about 80 per cent, while last year it averaged 100 per cent. The feed is not very good yet on account of the late season, as the grass did not get as early a start as usual.

Mr. Applegate has leased grazing lands from the Weyerhaeuser company at Spencer and Clover Creek, and will move his bands there as soon as the shearing is over. He expects to begin shearing about the 20th of this month if the weather will permit. About 9,000 head of sheep will be sheared in the Tule lake country this year.

Guests East for Bride

Gus A. Krause left Sunday afternoon for Beloit, Wis., to visit his parents, and incidentally to wed the young lady who has been waiting for him for four years. Krause has been connected with local banking houses for the past two years, and is popular with the young people of the city.

WOMEN SWEAR IF THEY VOTE

ESTIMATED THAT THERE ARE 1,500 IN THE COUNTY ELIGIBLE TO VOTE AT RECALL ELECTION—POLLING MAY 2.

Every woman in Klamath county desiring to vote at the special recall election will be compelled to swear her vote in, as there are no women voters on the county registration books at the present time, and the books will not be again opened until June 3, when the new registration law goes into effect.

This is on the presumption that the recall election will be held on June 2, as now contemplated.

It is estimated that there are at least 1,500 women qualified to vote in the county, and if a large majority of them take advantage of their privilege, it will be a busy election day. It takes six freeholders to sign a petition before a notary public before an elector not registered is entitled to vote. A separate petition has to be made out for every voter not registered.

Mrs. N. D. Glasbach came in from Chiloquin Saturday to do some shopping. She is the wife of one of the attaches of the Indian service on the Klamath reservation.

J. W. Harkins of Merrill was a Sunday visitor in the county seat.

Military Band Will Be Reorganized at Meeting

Election of Officers and Outlining of Concert Season Will be Among the Features Wednesday Eve

Reorganization of the Klamath Falls Military band for the season's work will come up for attention at a meeting of the musicians of the city tomorrow evening. The meeting will be held at the band hall, in the rear of the Palm cigar store, and all who are not at present members of the organization are invited to attend.

At the coming meeting a corps of officers will be elected for the ensuing term. At this time they will also decide upon a director. Following this meeting, it is the intention of the band to hold regular practices. There are a number of special events this year, at which the presence of the band will be desired, and there will also be given a series of concerts in the courthouse square during the summer months.

Kinds of Advertising

Upon embarking in business the first problem that faces the merchant is how to get customers. He starts out after business. That is advertising. He personally solicits trade, or adopts some other means of advertising his business. But one thing is certain, if any business is ever built up it is built up through the medium of advertising. Every business man must admit this, or why not start a business under ground and the proprietor sit down waiting for trade to come to him? A well-kept store in a good location, stocked with good goods at reasonable prices, is an advertisement. A merchant cannot hide his light under a bushel and be a success. He must advertise.

There are various ways of advertising, and for the sake of convenience, and in the order of their importance, we give them here:

First—Personal Advertising—Where the merchant personally solicits business.

Second—Personal Letter Advertising—Where the merchant writes personal letters to stimulate business.

Third—Newspaper Advertising—Where, through the newspaper, the merchant gives business news each week to thousands.

Fourth—Circular and Other Advertising—Where, through circulars, bills, bill boards and all other means of publicity, effort is made to influence the trading public.

There is no denying the advantage to a merchant in personally soliciting business, either visiting prospective customers personally, or writing them personal letters. These are very effective ways of advertising, and, at the same time very expensive ways of advertising. Newspaper advertising is the next best means of advertising, and, price considered, it is by far the best advertising.

Miss MacKinney Kindergarten Head

Miss Mabel A. MacKinney has just retired as president of the International Kindergarten union, which held its annual meeting in Washington. Under her administration for the past two years the organization has grown greatly, and she left the chief office with the union in a flourishing condition. During the meeting she presided with the dignity of a president of the United States senate, and parliamentarians in Washington—where they are plentiful—remarked that she was one of the best presiding officers they had known.

Miss MacKinney is a graduate of the Chicago Kindergarten college, now the National Kindergarten college, and at this time she is supervisor of the Brooklyn Free Kindergarten society, an unofficial organization which has done much to promote the interests of kindergarten work in connection with the public school system.

DE LAP WILL CALL ELECTION AS HE IS ASKED TO DO

WORDEN WILL NOT HAMPERS THE SPECIAL VOTE

Provisions of the Oregon Statute as to the Recall Election Are Somewhat Vague on the Matter of Providing the Method of Defraying the Expenses—Though Much Discussed, It Has Never Come to the Supreme Court.

The special election to vote on the recall of County Judge W. E. Worden will probably be held June 3, according to a statement made today by County Clerk DeLap. Legal authorities on the duty of the county clerk to call a recall election under the amendment to the constitution do not agree, and the county clerk has been somewhat at a loss just what to do. However, he states that he will call the election, and let someone else fight it out in the courts if they wish. Judge Worden states that he will do nothing to delay or hold up the election.

The recall amendment to the constitution was proposed by the people by initiative petition, and approved by a majority of the voters and thereon at the general election held June 1, 1908, and took effect June 23 by proclamation of the governor.

The amendment provides that "Such additional legislation as may aid the operation of this section SHALL be provided by the legislative assembly, including provision for payment by the public treasury of the reasonable special election campaign expenses of such officers."

No measures have ever been passed by the legislature getting this law into effect, and prescribing the manner in which it shall be done, and authorizing the payment of the expenses of such election.

Some of the prominent attorneys of the city have expressed the opinion that the recall amendment of the constitution is not self-enacting, and that it would take an act of the legislature to make it so. It is claimed that there is no provision made for the payment of the expenses of the election, and that any taxpayer would be justified in protesting a warrant drawn for that purpose. In one another man was elected county judge, it would take a supreme court decision.

Although it has been nearly three weeks since the lad left home, the authorities were not notified of his disappearance until Saturday morning.

Thousands Wire the Governor to Sign It

California Executive Besieged With Letters and Telegrams, Imploiring Him to Sign Land Measure

Sacramento, May 12.—While Governor Hiram Johnson is holding up the signing of his signature to the anti-alien land bill passed by the legislature, his office is being flooded by thousands of letters and telegrams, asking him to make the bill a law.

While the majority of the letters are from California, there are several hundred from Californians in eastern states. These unanimously urge the executive to stand pat and sign the bill.

Late last night, Governor Johnson received a telegram from Secretary of State Bryan, asking him to sign the measure. Johnson has not yet decided when he will agree to do so.

Washington, May 12.—The State of Oregon will receive the anti-alien land bill from the Japanese government.

Chinda, an alien as he is known, was sent to his place of residence in California, where he was to be held until the anti-alien land bill was signed.

It is reported that the bill would take a supreme court decision.
