Officials Blamed For the Horrors in Sing Sing

J. W. SCOTT, Former Superintendent of Prisons.
JOHN S. KENNEDY, Warden of SING SING.
ALBANY, May 20.—Col. James W. Scott, just removed as superintendent of prisons of New York state, a man with quite a reputation as a prison official, and John S. Kennedy, warden of Sing Sing, are blamed in an official report for horrors in the famous institution equalling those of middle-age dungeons. George W. Blake, special commissioner for Governor William Sulzer, has just filed a report in which he makes such statements as these about the big pen on the Hudson river:

"One man said to me that the only offense a prisoner could commit that would be followed by speedy punishment was the offense of trying to get something to eat. He told me stories, amply corroborated, of such frightful character as to appeal to the most unfeeling person. Colonel Scott knew of the existence of these horrors. There is no doubt about that, and yet he never made one effort, so far as I was able to learn, to minimize them. Nor did he ever seek any method of preventing the occupancy of the cells by two men, nor to see that when the men were placed in a cell their enforced comradeship would be in any sense congenial."

"The low thief, stricken with disease, with no mental capacity and with the lowest possible instincts, has often been locked into a cell with a man of education, of some ideals, and of clean personal habits. This would be bad enough if the cells were light, or large, or clean, instead of being dark, and small, and filthy. Also they are unsanitary, and cells on the ground floor drip with moisture, so that the inmates of them have striven to protect themselves from the chill and dampness by hanging sheets and blankets over the walls. In these cells men contract rheumatism. In many cases they become victims of chronic rheumatism, and go out crippled for life."

ASHLAND MAN TO RUN RANCH

FORMER RAILROADER WILL HAVE THE FOREMANSHIP OF FRANK ADAMS TRACT, JUST BEYOND MERRILL

Ashland Record:
Hugh Gillette has gone to Merrill, Oregon, and his family will follow him to that place as soon as school is out. Mr. Gillette has decided to quit railroading after fifteen years in the service and will take the foremanship of the Frank Adams ranch near Merrill.
This is one of the biggest stock ranches in that part of the state and Mr. Gillette was selected from a number of applicants for the position of foreman. He acquired the necessary experience in this line of work before he started railroading and is well qualified to make good. He was at Merrill the past week to close the deal with Mr. Adams, who expects to retire to a home in town.
Returning by way of Klamath Falls, Mr. Gillette brought home a bunch of leather hat bands advertising the big doings at Klamath Falls this summer. Burnt in the leather is the following legend: Rodeo Klamath Falls 1912. Scratch 'im Cowboy."

AMERICAN WOMEN ARE ASKED ALSO

HELP OF FAIR SEX ON THE NEW CONTINENT IS ASKED AT THE UNIVERSAL PEACE CONFERENCE BY SPEAKERS

United Press Service
THE HAGUE, Holland, May 20.—An eloquent plea for help from American women to aid women of Germany, Austria and other European nations in campaigns in the interest of universal peace, was made today by Countess Isabelle Aberdeen, wife of the lord lieutenant of Ireland, and president of the world's council of women, when she opened the annual convention of that organization here.
The convention will continue through Tuesday. Scores of women, prominent in movements toward universal peace and international arbitration in Europe and America, attended to-day's sessions. The big topic today was the program to be arranged for the great quinquennial meeting in Rome in 1914.
Mrs. Andrea Hofer-Proudfoot of Chicago, member of the International Amity League, and a co-worker with Frau Hainisch in Vienna for the past few months, also pleaded for a more hearty response by American women.
"We are sadly handicapped in our work," declared Mrs. Hofer-Proudfoot, "for it is difficult to arouse interest in European countries in our work. We need the activities and experience of women of the western continents to stimulate enthusiasm in the work over here. At present, the women of the States do not play the part they should in this great international question."

SHASTA VIEW CLOSERS TERM

SUCCESSFUL SCHOOL YEAR IN ENJOYED UNDER PROFESSOR ALEXANDRE AND MISS EMILY HOUSE
A highly successful term of school was brought to a close at Shasta View district Friday by Bona P. Alexandre, principal, and Miss Emily House, primary teacher. A program was given that evening at the school-house.
In addition to the advanced and the primary grades participating, the Shasta View orchestra also assisted, and the evening was a great success. Two splendid comedies were given by the advanced room, while the children of the primary room gave songs and recitations.
The school spirit in that district is excellent. Four applicants for graduation will receive eighth-grade diplomas, they being Mabel Myers, James Otoman, Anton Polivka and Helen Kumpke.

INDIANS WILL BE CIVILIZED

UMATILLA TRIBES PLANS MEMORIAL TO DEDICATE ITSELF TO AMERICAN CITIZENSHIP AND BETTER LIFE
PENDLETON, Or., May 17.—Under direction of government officers, the Indians of the Umatilla reservation will, sometime during this summer, assemble to hold memorial ceremonies similar to those recently held at Fort Wadsworth, New York harbor.
Garbed in their historic trappings, the Indians will gather around their tom-toms and, with weird chants, raise the Stars and Stripes, dedicating themselves to the American government and a nobler civilized life.
The ceremony will be a part of the new movement to link the Indian tribes together into a national organization, which was formed last year.
The same flag, and practically the same program, will be given that marked in the ceremonies at the breaking of ground for the national Indian monument in New York harbor.

Vincent Astor the Richest Young Man

NEW YORK, May 20.—"Nix," said Vincent Astor, wealthiest unmarried young man in the United States, to a photographer who asked him to pose for his picture. "Nix now, cut that thing out."
But the young man, whose father left him something like $467,000,000 in New York city realty, was caught later puffing at a big cigar, and this picture resulted. The occasion was the visit of members of the senate committee on military affairs to West Point. Some of these senators, and some representatives who went along, have been regular fire-eaters when it came to the idle rich. But when young Astor offered to take them on his yacht, the Norma, to West Point, they didn't resist the temptation to mingle with the grandson of the woman who led New York and Newport's exclusive Four Hundred for so many years.
While Astor was puffing away at his cigar around West Point his throat, which physicians had said a few days before might need an operation, became worse, and he had to leave his guests, and he hurried up the Hudson river to his country home at Rhinecliff.

Young Astor has, since he inherited his vast fortune, developed speed mania. He dotes on fast automobiles and motor boats. Recently he had built a racing automobile guaranteed to run 120 miles an hour. He took it to Rhinecliff, which is so large it has roads long enough for speed tests. He geared the car to 36 miles an hour, and let it go, and as he dashed about the turns of the roads, he frightened those of his household who watched him.
He and Herman Oelrichs have just finished a motor boat guaranteed to move 45 miles an hour. This is to be taken to Newport soon and a trial is to be made. The two wealthy young men will see if they can put the craft through the water at the speed guaranteed. Inasmuch as there is almost as much danger in these fast boats as in fast automobiles the wealthy young man's relatives are troubled.
New Jail May Be Built
ASTORIA, Or., May 20.—In the circuit court, Judge Campbell has denied a motion for a temporary injunction to restrain the county court of Clatsop county from awarding a contract for a new county jail, based on the ground that the indebtedness limit would be exceeded. The judge ruled that it is the duty of the county court to provide a safe and sanitary jail, and that an indebtedness so incurred is not an inhibition of the state constitution so long as no attempt is made to build a "palace."

SHHI LADIES! SECRET TO DARKEN FADED GRAY HAIR—USE SAGE TEA

Sage Mixed With Sulphur Restores Natural Color and Luster to Hair

BUD AND MANDOT MIT IT TONIGHT

ANDERSON'S COMBITION WAS NEVER BETTER, AND HE IS CONFIDENT OF WINNING—BATTLE WILL BE FIERCE

LOS ANGELES, May 20.—Mandot reigns a 2 to 1 favorite. This morning he weighed 120, and Anderson weighed 124 pounds. Anderson will have no difficulty in making 120 at 6 o'clock, and he says he will go into the ring strong this evening.
The entire house has been sold. Cloudy weather prevails.

The eyes of the sporting world will all be focused on Vernon around this evening, where Bud Anderson of Vancouver, Wash., and Joe Mandot of New Orleans will do battle by the 20-round route. Both are among the strongest aspirants for lightweight honors, and much depends upon their showing tonight.
The northern lad's condition is the occasion for the following from Jay Davidson, sport scribe of the Los Angeles Herald:
"Whipping Bud Anderson has proved to date to be very much of a busy man's job, and fraught with considerable failure, and, after looking the Medford mauler over while he was stipped for action, I am just about convinced that Jodie Mandot has undertaken almost the biggest contract of his young life.
"Anderson reminds me a lot of Luther McCarty, in that he seems to improve steadily and looks better every time I go out to look him over. The most noticeable improvement noted in him since his last training period is in the matter of speed and cleverness. Boxing with Battling Chico, whose speed and cleverness he well knows to the fans, he showed that he is fast mastering the Allott staff in getting in and out, avoiding swings and hooks by the narrowest of margins, and following up with effective wallops that are well timed and accurately judged.
"Considering the cleverness and generalship of Mandot, one might feel safe in figuring him to win this fight at the end of 20 rounds only for the fact that Anderson has improved considerably and will be there himself with an assortment of speed and cleverness to back up his superior punches. Mandot appears to be his old self again, but he must be fully as good Tuesday night as he was last Labor day, when he out-boxed Rivers for the decision, if he expects to be able to outpoint Anderson and get out with a whole skin.
"Anderson started training with iron meat on his bones than he did when he began prepping himself for his last fight, and he is prepping freely, and gradually taking off weight in a manner that assures he will be at the lightweight limit at the hour of making the weight, 120 pounds, and get out with a whole skin.
"It looks to me like it would be a great scrap, and that the chances of an Anderson victory are fully as good as the Mandot prospects.
"Naturally, odds of 10 to 3 are not too far out of the way to be unreasonable, in view of what Mandot has done heretofore, but probably even money would be a better price on summing up of the bare facts in the case. Whoever wins will realize afterwards that he had to work for victory, and I do not believe it will go the full distance."
