Zbyszko Will Have to Beat Cazeaux to Get Frank Gotch

If Zbyszko, the mighty wrestler from Poland, shall beat Cazeaux, the Frenchman, when they meet May 19, in New York city, he will have a match with Frank Gotch, the present champion wrestler of the world.
If he fails, Gotch may take on Cazeaux, or some one else, to pick up a few dollars, and, while away, the time which hangs monotonous over his farm at Humboldt, Iowa.

Gotch has already proved he is a better man than Zbyszko by throwing him. If you consider the measurements of the Pole, it is difficult to conceive of a lighter man pinning his shoulders to the mat. The Pole weighs 245 pounds, but he is only 5 feet 10 inches tall. His chest measurement is 55 inches, at least seven inches larger than that of Jim Jeffries, the biggest heavyweight champion fighter the world has known. His biceps are 23 inches in circumference, if his manager is to be believed. Jeffries' biceps were about 16 inches. Many a young woman has a waist not any larger than the Pole's good right arm. His thigh is 32 inches, and there are many million young men in the United States, and most of the women who would think they were growing fat if their waists grew so large.

Gunboat Smith Gets the Decision From Jess Willard

Gunboat Smith
SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—All of the touted punch, cleverness and shiftiness of Jess Willard, and his height, reach and beef, availed him naught in his encounter with Gun-boat Smith last night. At the close of the bout, the referee rendered a decision in favor of Smith, which was approved by the crowd.

The crowds of fight fans who flocked to Coffroth's arena to see Willard duplicate his defeat of Smith some time ago, and to get a line on his chances with McCarthy were much disappointed at his showing.
His bigness seemed to make him sluggish, and Smith fought all around him, his science making his opponent's showing a poor spectacle.
Willard is 6 feet 6 inches in height, and entered the ring weighing 225 pounds. Smith is 6 feet 1 inch, and weighed 185 pounds.
As a result of his decisive defeat of Willard last night, Smith is seeking a match with Luther McCarthy, hailed as the present heavyweight champion.

BALKAN FOLKS SEEKING DELAY

BULGARIAN ENVOY IS THE ONLY ONE WHO SEEMS ANXIOUS TO HAVE HASTE ENTER INTO THE MATTER

LONDON, May 21.—The peace envoys sent by the Balkan countries to settle the Balkan-Turkish controversy continue their dilatory tactics, and the powers are using every effort to have some definite action taken. This morning, word was given out that they were not ready as yet for formal sessions.

Baron Danoff, the Bulgarian envoy, is the only one of the delegates who wants to hurry the signing of the preliminary peace pact. Greece, Montenegro and Servia are all holding back for some reason that has not been explained.

HOLD RODEO AT FAIR GROUNDS

COMMITTEE IS ALSO CONSIDER-ING MATTER OF PRIZES—
MEETING WILL BE HELD IN A FEW DAYS

That the Elks' Annual Rodeo will be held again at the county fair grounds is about decided upon by the members of the general committee. The directors of the Rodeo have been endeavoring for some time to secure a tract of land close to town for staging their big show, but with no success.

The matter of prizes is also being considered at this time by the Rodeo board, and the purses offered this year will be larger than ever before.
This matter will be considered at an early meeting of the directors.

Why Advertise At All?

It is well, first of all, to know what advertising really is. Advertising has been defined as the act of publicly announcing a fact, and has further been defined as salesmanship on paper. While both of these are more or less true, advertising is nothing but the giving of business news with the purpose of creating a new want or supplying an existing want. It is readily seen that there is no limit to the accomplishment of good advertising, as there is no limit to the wants already created, or that might be created. The merchant is a dead one who does not realize that there are starving millions waiting for him to satisfy their wants or create for them new wants. This advertising idea to create new wants and satisfy existing wants is no new thing, as the Egyptians used handbills and posters made of papyrus 3,000 years ago. Printing was invented less than 500 years ago, and the newspapers were then started. Soon afterwards advertising became associated with printing. The advertising idea originated over 30 centuries ago.
Some present-day merchants haven't got the idea yet. With present-day opportunities to advertise there is no limit to what one may accomplish in business lines. The local merchant may easily double his local business. He has, through the local paper a wonderfully cheap way to gain publicity. There is no newspaper read like the local paper, especially by the women, and the women do over 90 per cent of the trading.
