United Press Service

SACRAMENTO, May 22.—Reports have reached here that Japanese laborers have commenced a boycott on the members of the recent assembly who supported the Webb bill, and other anti-alien land legislation.

According to the Japanese foreman at one of the vineyards at Bruceville, this boycott is for the purpose of making the Californians realize that they cannot do their work without Japanese help.

Fifteen Japs, employed in the vineyard of P. K. Bradford of Bruceville, left as soon as their foreman made his announcement. Other vineyards are similarly affected. Bradford's cousin was a member of the recent assembly.

Senator Birdsall, one of the strongest advocates of the exclusion measure, is also affected. His Japanese cook quit today without serving notice.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 22.—It has not been decided yet by the Exclusion league whether to invoke the referendum against the Webb bill, or to put through by an initiative a law absolutely excluding Jap farmers. This will be decided upon by Saturday.

LAWMAKERS, ADY AND LANE TALK LOCAL PROJECT

MAY SEND SPECIAL INVESTIGATOR HERE

Oregon and California Congressmen Are in Session With Secretary of the Interior and President of Klamath Water Users' Association to Consider Reclamations of this Project, and Relief, if Needed

United Press Service

WASHINGTON, May 22.—As an aftermath of the investigation of the reclamation service just held by Secretary of the Interior Lane, a conference regarding conditions on the Klamath project is being held this afternoon at the office of the secretary. It is possible that a special investigator may be sent to Oregon to investigate the charges made against the service by the water users.

Participating in this conference with Lane are Congressmen Hawley and Sinsott of Oregon and Congressman Baker of California, and Abel Ady, president of the Klamath Water Users' association. It is being held at the instance of the congressmen, who have been hearing complaints from the water users under the Oregon-California project.

On account of being in two states, and in many other ways different from the other projects, there are features in connection with the Klamath project that are different entirely from all the other government irrigation enterprises. Interstate water and similar tangles are constantly met with.

The congressional delegation, it is said, will urge him to send a disinterested party in whom he has confidence, to make a rough inspection of the Klamath project.

The difference of opinion between the reclamation service and the Klamath Water Users' association seems impossible of settlement in any other way, and it is hoped that an impartial report on the conditions there will result in the adjustment of the differences.

Miss Lucy Dustin is here from Doris, visiting friends.

"Commencing July 1, 1913, all deposits to the official credit of disbursing officers in banks bonded for the safekeeping of such moneys shall draw interest, to be computed on daily balances at the same percentage rate and under the same rules as deposits to the credit of individual Indians.

"Such interest, when credited by banks, shall be taken up in the accounts of the disbursing officers as miscellaneous receipts, Class III, and deposited in the treasury to the credit of the United States."

Socialists Advocate Election of Regents

Believe Governors of University of California Should be Chosen by People. Strike Breaking Cause

BERKELEY, May 22.—The board of regents of the University of California will be elected by the voters of the state, if the initiative proposed by local members of the Socialist party are carried out.

At a union meeting of all the Socialist locals in Alameda county, held today, steps were taken toward starting initiative petitions to have the plan for the choosing of regents become a law.

The matter is to be taken up with the San Francisco labor council. As soon as this body endorses it, the movement will be made state wide.

"We wish to wrench the control of this institution from the capitalist crowd, which, even now, is swaying," said a prominent Socialist today.

The movement is caused by students of the University of California taking positions as strikebreakers in the present labor trouble. For this, the Socialists threatened a referendum against the university's appropriation.

L. Alva Lewis Will Look Into the Matter

Agent of Biological Survey is Coming From Portland in Connection With Lower River Shooting

For the purpose of conferring with local sportsmen regarding the closing of Lower Klamath river and lake to hunting, L. Alva Lewis, agent of the biological survey of the department of agriculture, is expected here from Portland in a few days. News of his coming was circulated this morning.

Lewis' visit is believed to be primarily for the purpose of taking up the question of closing the Lower Klamath lake bird reserve to hunting of all kinds. A ruling to this effect was recently sent to Warden J. J. Furber of the reserve by Lewis.

This caused a mighty protest from local sportsmen, who held that their rights are imposed upon, and that they are deprived of the best shooting grounds in the Klamath basin. The protest is particularly made against the portion of the ruling which prohibits a man to hunt even on his own land, should it be within the limits of the preserve. Heretofore, the ruling has been enforced only around the Lower Lake, where the bird islands are located, and on a part of the Klamath Basin. By the order of Lewis, there would be no hunting on the Lower Klamath river from a point three miles from this city.

Sisson Says Wilson Had the Wrong Idea

Mississippi Congressman Says President Was Misinformed as to His Speech. Lawyers Interested

WASHINGTON, May 22.—"President Wilson was misinformed entirely about the tenor of the speech I am to deliver in the House tomorrow." ### Senior Class Day is Observed Today

Clad in Jeans and Gingham, Graduating Class Renders Program in High School Auditorium

Senior Class Day, one of the most auspicious occasions of the term at the Klamath county high school, is being observed today by the members of the class soon to receive its diploma. In accordance with the time-honored custom, the Seniors, 19 in all, appeared at school this morning in blue-checked gingham aprons and dresses, and blue overalls—yes, the boys wore the jeans.

The class exercises were held in the assembly of the high school, and the following program was rendered: Song—School.

Address—Robert Riggs, president of the class.
Class History—Evelyn Graves.
Class Poem—Ines Elliott.
Piano Solo—Alla Balis.
Class Prophecy—Ernest Nail.
Class Will—Joe L. Skelton.
All of the numbers were of great interest. Especially so were the class will and class prophecy, which were written in a humorous vein. One of the bequests of the will returned which he held that the California legislature had the right to pass any form of legislation it saw fit to protect its people and its industries from a Japanese invasion. This has since become a classic, and the fiery words were flashed to all parts of the world by the news agencies.

"Since I delivered the speech on the Japanese situation in Japan," said Sisson today. "Hundreds of lawyers from all parts of the United States have written to me. They all uphold my contention that the state's right is supreme."
