A Little Tenement Farmer From the New York Slums

NEW YORK, May 21.—Here is a little tenement farmer of the slums of New York, a youngster who didn't know that turnips grew in the ground, nor that tomatoes were not laid like eggs till he learned it from a public school teacher. There are thousands, perhaps hundreds of thousands, like him in New York. This little farmer was caught by the camera man in De Witt Clinton park, one of those in which children of the tenements are being taught something about the earth and what it can produce.

The ignorance of these children in everything but the wisdom of the slums is appalling. They live in three, four, five and six-story tenements, perhaps with a family of 10 occupying three rooms. They are lucky if the family does not take one or two boarders. They see green grass on Sunday in the parks, and are forbidden to touch it by the same sign that caused trouble for General Coxe and his army in Washington many years ago.

Given spades and hoes, the youngsters become happier than with toys which would send other children into ecstasies. Their delight in planting, and then in watching seeds sprout, is something so strange that those who wonder what is to become of the city-bred children have a chance to think.

If you have a timber claim for sale and are game enough to make a low price for cash, see Chicote at 635 Main street, or phone 66.

TO PLACER MINE ON ROGUE RIVER

BAR NEAR GOLD HILL, COMPRISING 140 ACRES, IS TO BE WORKED BY NEWLY ORGANIZED COMPANY

GOLD HILL, May 22.—Development of a 10-acre placer mining tract, comprising most of the great bar just below the Dowden falls, upon the north bank of Rogue river, and three miles distant from this city, is assured by the plans of mining men who have for some months past been chiefly engaged in an exhaustive examination of the property.

Following tests and prospects which determined the richness of the bar beyond question, the properties of George Lyman and J. K. Moore, constituting the greater portion of the tract to be mined, have been bonded for a large sum by the recently organized company, and will shortly be the scene of extensive mining operations.

Jack Britton, Who Has Frightened 'em

Jack Britton, the Chicago lightweight, who has beaten every one he met in the ring in the last year, except Packie McFarland, and his manager, Dan Morgan, have been trying for months to get either Willie Ritchie, the American lightweight champion, and Freddie Welsh, the British lightweight champion, into the ring with him. Neither will listen.

Welsh was in New York for some weeks after his return with the English title, and Britton went after him. A club in that city offered him $5,000 to meet Britton, and he slipped away to fight a lesion in Canada. Ritchie is very busy with vaudeville work. His latest statement on the subject is to the effect that Leach Cross of New York is entitled to a fight, but Britton doesn't figure. When it is considered that Britton beat Cross easily the kind of reasoning the champion is employing may be understood.

"I think Britton can beat Luther McCarty," said Dan Morgan, his manager. "That sounds queer, doesn't it? Well, McCarty would never touch him. He would outpoint the alleged white champion in 10 rounds. He knows so much more."

PORTLAND'S BOY POLICE ACTIVE

ONE THOUSAND BOYS OF YOUTH WERE TRAINED BY AUTHORITY, AND ARE ACTIVE CIGARETTE SMOKERS

United Press Service
PORTLAND, Or., May 22.—Portland today is probably policed more efficiently than any other city in the nation—perhaps in the world.

On the same theory that it takes one rogue to catch another rogue, the city of Portland conceived the idea that it takes a small boy to keep another small boy in order. Hence the "Junior police force" of Portland, comprised of 1,000 proud young wearers of special "stars" and important men, who are today stalking down school truants, window breakers and cat chasers.

The boys of the "junior force" today received their assignments for "police" duty. The idea originated at a conference between Juvenile Judge Gates and Chief of Police Slover some weeks ago.

The boy policemen have a central chief, elected by themselves, and each precinct has its captain, lieutenant and sergeants.

The miniature policemen are especially on the lookout for street corner habitues who smoke cigarettes, throw stones, and indulge in boyish pranks which do not justify actual arrest by the city police.

SINNOTT WOULD SAVE OLD SHIP

OREGON CONGRESSMAN WANTS NAVY DEPARTMENT TO GIVE BATTLESHIP "OREGON" TO NAVAL RESERVE

WASHINGTON, May 22.—Congressman N. J. Sinnott of Oregon has written to the navy department, demanding that the battleship Oregon, which figured so prominently in the Spanish-American war, be given an honored old age, instead of being used as a target for naval practice.

In his letter, the congressman recalled the services of the ship and its world-famous race around the Horn, to arrive in time for the destruction of a Spanish fleet. He also reviewed the place given "Old Oregon" as a relic of naval history.

Sinnott suggested that the ship be given to the state of Oregon as a training ship for the naval militia.

DON'T STAY GRAY! SAGE TEA WILL DARKEN YOUR HAIR BEAUTIFULLY

A Mixture of Sage and Sulphur Prevents Dandruff and Falling Hair

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur no one can tell, because it's done so naturally; so evenly. It is also splendid to remove dandruff, cure itching scalp and stop falling hair.

Preparing this mixture, though, at home is a messy and troublesome task. For about 50 cents a bottle you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wynck's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." Some druggists put this mixture up themselves, but make it too strong, so insist you want "Wynck's" brand.

Wynck's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy

There will be no disappointment. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with "Wynck's Sage and Sulphur" and draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. Do this at night and by morning all gray hair disappears and after another application or two becomes beautifully darkened and more glossy and abundant than ever. You will also discover dandruff in your hair and the hair has stopped falling.

Gray, faded hair, though, is not so easy to get rid of. It is a sign of old age, and its appearance, as long as you live, is a sign of old age. Wynck's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, however, will not only darken your hair, but will also keep it from falling out.
