

TO START WORK AT CEMENT PLANT

GOLD HILL WILL BE THE CENTER OF ACTIVITY THIS SUMMER—CONSTRUCTION TO COMMENCE JUNE 1

GOLD HILL, May 24.—Owing to unavoidable delay in the receipt of plans for the $500,000 cement plant to be erected by the Beaver Portland Cement company, near Gold Hill, President J. C. Burch of Portland will not arrive in this city to officially open work upon the big project until the first part of the week.

At that time President Burch and other officials of the company will be here to complete the arrangement of details essential to the undertaking. They will be accompanied by Engineer Dan Survia, representing the Leigh Hunt Engineering company, which has the contract for erecting the plant. Mr. Gervie, it is understood, will be in charge locally, and will immediately hurry to completion the preliminary engineering work upon the 18-acre site west of this city.

Plans for the huge plant are reported as practically completed, and it is the desire of those in charge to have everything in shape to commence the actual work of construction by June 1.

TO GET WOOD THROUGH HELP

DISTRICT ATTORNEY WILL USE WOOLEN MILL EMPLOYEES TO CONVERT PRESIDENT OF TEXTILE TRUST

BOSTON, May 24.—District Attorney Feltner expects Monday to connect William Wood directly with the planting of dynamite at Lawrence last year, through his own employes. Two stenographers are to be questioned regarding conference with the head of the American Woolen company. It has been learned that persons associated with Wood and Attenau have been assisting the prosecution by giving inside information.

WHITE HATS ARE SEEN EVERYWHERE

KIAMATH DELEGATION WAS CERTAINLY DISTINGUISHED AT MEDFORD CONVENTION—PHOTOGRAPHS HERE

That the white hats worn by the Kiamath Falls I. O. O. F. and Rebekahs to the Medford convention were among the most distinctive things at the convention is attested by photographs of convention scenes brought here by returning delegates. In every gathering, the Kiamath Falls people are easily discerned by their white hats. In the big procession, the Rebekah drill team, dressed in white uniforms, and the I. O. O. F. team from here distinguished themselves, and were, without doubt, the best appearing delegation at Medford.

MEMORIAL TALK AT GRACE CHURCH

GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC AND WOMEN'S RELIEF CORPS WILL ATTEND SPECIAL SERVICE TOMORROW

The annual G. A. R.-W. R. C. memorial services will be held tomorrow morning at Grace M. E. church. A special Memorial Day sermon has been prepared by Rev. George H. Peese, the pastor.

The services will commence at 11 o'clock. Members of Sprague post, Grand Army of the Republic, and Sprague chapter, Women's Relief corps, will assemble at the courthouse at 10:30 and march in a body to the church.

Visiting veterans are invited to participate.

EMPEROR OF JAPAN SOON TO RECOVER

JAPANESE RULER WILL BE ABOUT HIS DUTIES IN A FORT-NIGHT, SAY PHYSICIANS—SUBJECTS REJOICE

TOKIO, May 24.—The mikado's pneumonia is by no means serious. He will be fully recovered in a fortnight, according to the bulletins issued today by the physicians.

The announcement was received with joy by the thousands of Japanese who have surrounded Aoyama palace since the emperor was stricken. The multitude is now praying for a speedy recovery.

Theodore Frolik is home from Medford, where he attended the I. O. O. F. grand lodge session earlier in the week.

Head of Steel Trust Under Severe Grill

James A. Farrell, president of the United States Steel corporation, perhaps the greatest business concern on earth, will have the hardest work of his life for the next few days, and that despite the fact that he began as a laborer at less than $2 a day and worked his way to the top. He is the chief witness for the defense in the action of the federal government against the trust, and is to tell his story before the examiner appointed by the United States court in Trenton, N. J., to hear the evidence.

He has already told some of his story. Starting work as a poor boy in Connecticut, he made his way to Pittsburg, got into the steel mills, and went up, till now, less than 55 years of age, he draws an enormous salary. One of the most interesting features of his direct testimony was the statement that, under his management of the foreign sale department of the corporation, and later as president, the foreign business grew from some $30,000,000 to more than $90,000,000 annually.

Later he must submit to cross-examination by General Dickinson, former secretary of war, and now chief counsel for the government in the suit. Since his training has been as a worker, and not as a talker, the cross-examination will wear him more than anything else he has done in his difficult career.

POLICE TO BE UP ON MONDAY

DATES FOR TRYING FIVE SAN FRANCISCO OFFICERS TO BE SET SOON BY THE PRESIDING JUDGE

SAN FRANCISCO, May 24.—Judge Dunne today continued the cases of Policemen Sullivan, Drolette, Joseph and McHugh to Monday. On that day they will be arraigned on a charge of grand larceny, and the date of their trials set.

The police are charged with taking $2,100 from John Minnini.

The arraignment of Detective Frank Keola on a second charge is also continued until Monday.

Keola, in this count, is accused of complicity in the swindle of $1,000 from Giovanni Vincini.

WEBB BILL IS NOT POPULAR

CONTENDING THAT IT IS NOT STRONG ENOUGH, LABOR COUNCIL WILL SUPPORT EXCLUSION LEAGUE MEASURE

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.—The Building Trades council today passed resolutions strongly favoring the plan of the Asiatic Exclusion league to put on the ballot by initiative petition a measure to supersede the Webb anti-alien bill.

The measure proposed by the Exclusion league would absolutely bar all aliens from holding or occupying land.

TEACHER LEAVES PUPILS MOURN

SCHOOL KIDS NOT ALONE WITH THE GLOOM, AS PEDAGOGUE HAS WON FRIENDSHIP'S GARLORN HERE

Miss Adelaide Anderson, who has been teaching here for the past year, leaves this afternoon with her mother for Michigan, their former home, where they will reside.

As a result, deep, sodden gloom hangs over her former pupils. They refuse to be comforted, and say that there will be no other teacher like her.

Not alone do the school kids weep; the sorrow extends to the young people of the town. During the year she has lived here, Miss Anderson has become very popular locally, and the departure is the occasion for genuine regret.

"Bina" will be missed greatly from social events to come.

POPE IS TO RESUME HIS FORMER ROUTINE

HEAD OF ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH, WHO RECENTLY NEARLY PASSED BEYOND, HAS FULLY RECOVERED

ROME, May 24.—Pope Pius X, head of the Catholic church, who hovered between life and death for several weeks, has fully recovered from the illness. Tomorrow he resumes his official routine.

Today he received a number of visitors. Later, he appeared at a balcony of the Vatican and pronounced his benediction over 4,000 pilgrims.
