A Scurrilous Attack Answered

Judge Worden and The Northwestern, his main support, are driven to attack the character of Frank Ira White. The account in the morning paper is only a sample of the low and dirty methods being resorted to in an effort to prolong the present reign of incompetence, if nothing worse, in the present county court.

The Worden campaign up to the present time has been an attempt to assassinate character, not only that of his opponent, but of other tried and true men who are supporting Frank Ira White.

Below is a letter from Wm. H. Mills which not only completely clears Mr. White, but leaves the mud all on Mr. Worden and his supporters. The original of this letter can be seen at Mr. White's office.

WM. H. MILLS, Land Agent

OAKLAND, Cal., June 20, 1908.

Mr. Frank Ira White, Klamath Falls, Oregon:

My Dear Mr. White: I reply in this to yours of June 27th, which relates entirely to the construction of the fence, and my answer is, take the $300.00 paid to us by the county for the right of way for the road, and use as much of it as may be necessary for the construction of the fence, which may be necessary to conserve the value of the pasture land. In brief, I adopt the suggestions of your letter, and concur in your suggestion that the fence should be built. Build a good fence, having regard for its appearance.

(Signed)

WM. H. MILLS.

Judge Worden cannot defend his record. Good citizens are called upon to repudiate Judge Worden and corrupt methods. Vote for Frank Ira White and Good Morals.

PHILADELPHIA HONORS HEROES

SOLEMN REQUIEM MASS IS CELEBRATED ON OVERLOOK HEIGHTS, WHILE FIFTY THOUSAND KNEEL IN PRAYER

United Press Service
PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 30.—While 50,000, with bowed heads uncovered, knelt on the heights of Overlook Hill today, a solemn mass of requiem was offered for the country's heroes who fell in its wars. It was Philadelphia's observance of Memorial Day. Knights of Columbus from various parts of the state and high church dignitaries from Philadelphia and Pittsburgh conducted the field mass, which was the first ever held in or near Philadelphia. Lined in columns before the massive outdoor altar were veterans of the Civil and Spanish-American wars. Just back of the veterans were two regiments of state militia, patriotic societies and other citizen-military organizations.

Libeler of Solon to Serve Five Years

NEW YORK, May 30.—Henry W. A. Page, a wealthy New York merchant, who was sentenced to five years in prison by the courts of the District of Columbia for calling Representative Henry D. Clayton of Alabama, chairman of the House judiciary committee, a crook, has disappeared. Page simply couldn't keep out of trouble after the court had suspended sentence of five years. Becoming involved in the New York state courts over the divorce and alimony suits of his wife, he demanded a congressional investigation. He was considered a crank, and the matter was dropped. Then he prepared an imposing looking document, entitled "Death to Liberty," in which he attacked Clayton. Tried for libel and found guilty May 28, 1913, he was sentenced to five years, and then the court suspended sentence on the understanding that it would be invoked if he didn't behave. That held Page for a year, but the other day there was received at the White House a document of 110 pages, in which he reiterated all the charges and attacked the department of justice. A warrant was issued for his arrest. But officers who came to New York could not find him.

BARBARA FRIETZCHE IS LAID TO REST AT MT. OLIVET CEMETERY—G. A. R. IS GUARD OF HONOR

United Press Service
FREDERICK, Md., May 30.—The remains of Barbara Fritzie, heroine of Whittier's stirring war poem, and those of her husband, John C. Fritzie, were buried today with impressive ceremonies at Mt. Olivet cemetery. The remains recently were disinterred from the Old Reformed cemetery here, and rested in state in the Mt. Olivet mausoleum until today. Miss Medora Mantz, grandniece of Barbara Fritzie, recited Whittier's poem, and the local Grand Army acted as a guard of honor.

Good Blood Means Good Health

A clear, healthy skin, full of life and color, reflecting perfect health and energy, has long been known to be a business and social asset.
If you are not the fortunate possessor of all the above—if you are suffering from skin eruptions of any description, it means that the blood is weak.
WHEN IT BECOMES IMPROVED—THIN AND WATERY—IT CANNOT SUPPLY PROPER NOURISHMENT, AND THE BODY TISSUES BECOME DISEASED.
This condition is every ready to manifest itself, and should be checked and treatment started with the first appearance of blood disorder.
In our estimation Nyal's Hot Springs Blood Remedy is the one best treatment. It gets at the root of the trouble, cleanses the blood impurities, increases the circulation, produces blood that is rich in nourishment—blood that is rich in nourishment—blood that will build up broken-down tissues.
