WILSON WILL HAVE A HAND IN THE PROBE

ASSUMES PERSONAL CHARGE OF LOBBY QUERY

Members of Both Houses Are to Appear in Alphabetical Order for Examination as to Whether or Not They Were Approached in Connection With Voting on the Tariff Measure

United Press Service WASHINGTON, D. C., June 2.—President Wilson today assumed personal charge of the investigation as to the existence of a paid lobby in the capital. He outlined clearly and unequivocally just how he intends to guide the inquiry.

Among other things, Wilson said he summoned Senator Lee S. Overman of North Carolina, chairman of the Judiciary committee, and Senator James A. Reed of Missouri, also of that committee, to the White House to make a number of suggestions and talk over plans with them.

Wilson does not intend to appear personally before the investigation. The senate Judiciary subcommittee today commenced questioning the senators in an effort to learn whether lobbyists were attempting to influence the tariff legislation pending before that body, and what steps had been taken.

It is also planned to learn whether or not the senators are financially interested in the pending measures.

Members of the senate are to be summoned alphabetically for examination. The republican senators proposed to read the names of hundreds of constituents who are protesting against the Underwood bill, and expressing a fear that it will bring about business ruin.

Swearing in of Women Keeps Many Notaries on the Jump

ANDERSON MAY MEET RITCHIE ON THE FOURTH

WEIGHT DIVIDES LEVY AND NOLAN

Rivers Wants 133 Pounds Ringside, or He Won't Box, According to His Manager—In That Case, Vancouver Boxer Will Be Matched With the Champion at San Francisco, and Rivers With Cross

United Press Service SAN FRANCISCO, June 2.—Instead of Willie Ritchie and Joe Rivers meeting here for the lightweight championship, Bud Anderson, the Vancouver, Wash., lightweight, may be the champion's opponent here July 4th.

In case this bout is arranged, Rivers will meet Leach Cross at Vernon, instead of Anderson being Cross' opponent. Ritchie and Manager Nolan arrived from Portland this afternoon. Tomorrow Sol Levy, who guides Rivers' ring career, will be here from Los Angeles, and they will hold a conference regarding the Natal Day mix.

It is expected that Levy for his protegee will refuse to sign articles unless the champion agrees to make 133 pounds at the ringside. In case this cannot be agreed upon, Anderson is the logical opponent for the champion.

Rush For the Ballot Started Early Today

The groom attained fame all over the coast this winter on account of his "skunk" farm. He has a fine ranch on the Merrill road.

RECALL ARGUMENT, PRO AND CON, ARE TO BE HEARD ON EVERY SIDE

Seldom Has Any County Been Stirred With Campaign Interest as is Klamath County Today—Wardens and White Factions Each Have Notaries Busy Swearing in the Un-registered Electors

Whether William S. Worden is recalled as county judge, or whether his policies are endorsed by the vote of the people, it will be a perfect expression of the sentiments of Klamath county as to its official career, as every person who can possibly get to the polls today is doing so.

In every precinct in the city, there was a long line of men and women waiting to cast their ballots at the time the polls opened this morning, and at every ward there has been a continuous stream of electors going to vote on the recall question.

Reports from all over the county are to the same effect. Every county precinct forecasts the heaviest vote in history.

The interest that the newly qualified women electors take in today's fight at the polls has been demonstrated by their early arrival at the various precincts. A large percentage of the early vote was cast by women, and they have been going to the polls all afternoon, too.

In order to facilitate the operation of voting, both the Warden and White supporters have arranged to have the women and other electors registered, sworn in before pollsters before going to the polls. This is a decided convenience, for voters as well as for the election officials.

Install Fire Escape Workman today completed the installing of a fire escape from the third floor of the I. O. O. F. Temple. This is equipped with a swinging ladder from the first floor to the ground, making escape from the building in an emergency perfectly safe.

Compensation Act Held by Referendum

Three Important Measures Passed by the Last Legislature Cannot Go Into Effect Tomorrow

Referendum petitions against the workmen's compensation act, the county attorney bill and the sterilization bill were filed with the secretary of state at Salem Saturday, and these new laws cannot go into effect until a favorable vote is taken on them in November.

The compensation bill provided that all persons or firms engaged as employers in hazardous occupations came under the provisions of the act, unless notice was given to the commission before June 15th. Now that the bill has been referred to the people this notice will not be necessary, as the operation of the law is held up until decided by an election.

No Bids Received For the Purchase of Indian Timber

Tract on Reservation Containing More Than Fifty Million Feet Will Be Disposed of at Open Sale, According to Officials. Timber in Vicinity of Chiloquin

(Special Correspondence) KLAMATH AGENCY, June 2.—Although the sale has been extensively advertised, there were no bids received for the purchase of a tract of 52,000,000 feet of Indian timber today. The time for submitting bids for the tract closed today at 2 o'clock.

As a result of the failure of anybody to bid on the timber, it may be sold in open market for $3.75 per thousand feet, provided the entire tract is purchased at that price. Special permission must be secured from the government in order to purchase smaller portions of the tract. This was the minimum figure specified in the notice for bids.

The timber is in the vicinity of Chiloquin and Kirk, and is in easy reach of the railroad. For the most part it consists of Western yellow pine. A period of six years from the date of the acceptance of the purchase offer by the commissioner of Indian affairs will be allowed for the cutting and removal of the timber covered by the contracts. Actual logging operations will begin within six months after the first agreement has been executed, and will be continuous until the timber has been removed or the contracts expire.

CREWS WORKING TOWARD KLAMATH

ADVICES FROM LASSEN ARE THAT THE RAILROAD IS RAPIDLY TRAVELING TOWARD THIS CITY

During the past month an army of men and a never-ceasing stream of wagons loaded with construction supplies have been flowing through Susanville to the west, says the Lassen Advocate. Certainly the continuance of the Fernley and Lassen railroad to the Walker properties at Robber Creek would not demand any such force of men, or anywhere near the equipment that has passed through this place.

There is, then, but the one conclusion to present itself, and that is that the road is to continue on to the west and north as rapidly as possible. Vast quantities of material and appliances are arriving daily over the Fernley and Lassen, and the preparations that the Utah Construction company has made at this place lends color to the report that the U. C. intends to maintain branch headquarters here for some time to come.

There are indications to the northward also that the road is to be pushed to completion to Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Marion Barnes came here Saturday from Chiloquin to spend a few days with relatives.

Miss Estel Campbell is visiting friends at Weed.

Second Street Fill Crowds Into Courts

G. W. White, Member of Committee Named to Solicit Funds for Completion of Boulevard is Sued

A suit involving the work on the Second street boulevard last summer, was filed in the circuit court late Saturday evening, when C. A. Arnold commenced action against G. W. White to recover $540 for hauling dirt for the fill.

Gale, has filed a demurrer, in which every allegation of the complaint is denied.

According to the complaint, filed by Attorney J. C. Rutens, Arnold was hired by White to haul earth for a fill on Second street from Oak to Klamath avenue, at the rate of 50 cents a yard. He says he hauled 1080 yards, and asks a judgment for the cash value.

In order to put through this road so an entrance could be made by Second street, it was necessary to build a fill for several blocks on Second, and to collect funds for this a committee was formed, one of the members being G. W. White.
