Still These Office Seekers Are Busied

Special to The Herald

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 2.— Granting that a large proportion of the voters who contribute to the success of a party expect office or other advancement thereby, it is quite evident that a correspondingly large proportion of those who voted for President Wilson last November are distinctly disappointed over the painfull-ly deliberate way the new president has of reaching conclusions about dispensing patronage. They are making comparisons with former administrations, and especially with the two Cleveland administrations, to the marked discredit of the Wilson administration, now in its fourth month, with but few important changes made outside of the cabinet. As a consequence the countenances of the office seekers in the lobbies of the Washington hotels and in the corridors of the capitol are "sickled o'er with a pale cast of thought." They recall that before either of the Cleveland administrations was a month old the bulk of the more important nominations, along with the prizes in the diplomatic and consular service had been given to democrats, not to speak of Cleveland's greater patronage burden, having more offices to give, not then covered by the classified service.

Apropos of the melancholy condition of the office seekers, Private John Allen of Mississippi, sixteen years a member of the house, serving during both Cleveland administrations, while here a few days ago, recalled the story he had told to Mr. Cleveland when that president was slow appointing a favorite of Mr. Allen's to office.
It was of a Tupelo young man, whose father died leaving a large estate that was somewhat entangled in chancery litigation, with the proverbial chancery delay in reaching a settlement.
So often was settlement deferred that the heir apparent exclaimed in dis-pair to a group of his creditors:
"Boys, I'm a-gittin' almost sorry the old man died."

Young American Singer Scores Hit

LONDON, June 2.—Miss Frances Roeder of New York won quick success in her debut at Convent Garden before a brilliant audience when she sang the part of Conchita in "The Jewels of the Madonna." Her operatic debut has been looked forward with interest for some time.

Miss Roeder is the daughter of one of the best known newspaper men.
Her father, Gue Roeder, has long been one of the chief investigators of the New York World, and some of the most important criminal stories of that newspaper, stories which have startled the country, have been obtained by him. The daughter has been studying in Europe for several years.

Though the part she undertook was small, it was sufficient to prove she had a full, sweet and flexible voice.
She has qualities of personality and ability as an actress which will carry her far. It is the ambition of her father to present her to an American audience when she has had more professional experience under good training abroad.

COUNTY ATTORNEY BILL IS HELD UP

PROSECUTING ATTORNEY JOHN IRWIN MUST CONTINUE TO ACT FOR BOTH KLAMATH AND LAKE COUNTIES

John Irwin will have to continue to act as prosecuting attorney both for Klamath and Lake counties until next November, and O. C. Gibbs, who was appointed district attorney for Lake county by Governor West cannot take office until a referendum vote is taken on the new county attorney act passed by the last legislature.

A referendum petition was filed against the measure Saturday at Salem, and this will prevent the law from going into effect until the special election in November. In case the special election should be declared constitutional, the new law will be held up for two years.

Why suffer the handicap of looking denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance.

Your hair is your charm. It makes turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly just a few applications of Sage tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred fold.

HANLEY'S RANCH IN THE MOVIES

THOUSANDS OF FEET OF FILM, SHOWING THE CATTLE INDUS-TRY AND OTHER CENTRAL OR-EGON SCENES, TO BE MADE

BURNS, Ore., June 2.—Moving pictures are being taken of the great Central Oregon country, so the millions of people in the United States may see the actual development of this territory. In order to get the scenic and industrial pictures of Harney county stock raising, Ralph R.
Earle of Portland, in charge of the picture taking outfit, accompanied by Lloyd W. McDowell, publicity manager for the Hill railroad lines, is spending a week on Colonel William Hanley's ranches, in order to secure real buckaroo scenes and reproduce methods used in handling large herds of cattle.

Earle and McDowell arrived in Burns last Tuesday, and first secured photos of old Indians and settlers, then went to the "P" ranch to spend several days around the buckaroo camp. Then Earle secured views of the surrounding country and other interesting pictures of ranch and farm life in Harney county.

It is through Louis W. Hill, former president of the Great Northern railroad, that the Pathe's Weekly is enabled to get these pictures. He considers the moving picture one of the greatest things of the present generation to help educate the people regarding their own country.

The reels depicting the wonders of this part of Oregon will be sent to Jersey City at once, where they will be developed and placed into a machine, where it will be possible to produce from 300 to 500 positives from the one original negative. When the reels are made up in the proper order and completely finished they are sent to general film companies, which distribute them to all parts of the United States. They are to be released on a certain date, so that the people in Portland and Tacoma may see them as soon as those in New York.

The reels are given to the big houses first, and then to others, and finally to outside towns. In the large cities the pictures are shown ten times a day, while in country towns they are flashed on the canvas three times a week, making a total of 60-000,000 people, estimated, who gaze on one set of films. The sets run from six months to a year.

The Pathe people have representatives all over the world who send a total of 5,000 feet of news pictures a week to headquarters. From this about 1,000 feet is selected for use, generally. Several thousand feet of films will be used on the Harney county and Deschutes River pictures, so that a big selection can be made.
