

Reclamation Service Approves Application For Horsefly Reservoir Site; Now Up To Interior Dept

RIVERS-RITCHIE MATCH OFF; BUD MAY GET BOUT

ANDERSON FAVORED AS CRAMP'S OPPONENT

Although Graney Has Not Decided Definitely, It Is Believed That The Vancouver Lightweight Will Meet Ritchie in the Ring at San Francisco on the Fourth—In That Case It Is Rivers-Cross at Los Angeles.

United Press Service

SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—The proposed match between Joe Rivers and Champion Willie Ritchie for the lightweight title on the Fourth of July is off.

Sol Levy, manager of Rivers, remained firm for 134 pounds ringside weight, and Nolan held out for weight three hours before the mix. Levy left this afternoon for Los Angeles, and Nolan and Ritchie have gone to the former's ranch.

Now that the Ritchie-Rivers mix is off, fans are speculating as to who will oppose the champion. It is the general opinion that Bud Anderson, the Vancouver, Wash., lightweight, will be the man.

Promoter Graney stated this afternoon that he was still undecided as to who he would match with Ritchie, but he believed that Anderson would be the champion's opponent. It is known that he is in communication with Dick Donald, Anderson's manager.

United Press Service

LOS ANGELES, June 5.—Tom McCree, matchmaker and owner of the Vernon Athletic club, announced today that in case Bud Anderson is matched with Willie Ritchie for the 134, he will match Leach Cross and Joe Rivers for the Natal Day seance at Vernon.

Claremont Is Sold

A deal was closed today by R. E. Smith and W. S. Slough, whereby the Claremont rooming house on Fourth street was sold to Mrs. Henry Bolvin by Mary Wells. The building is to be equipped with a steam heating plant and other modern conveniences, and opened later as an apartment house.

Water Users' Meeting Of Great Importance

In Addition to Constitutional Amendments to be Voted Upon, Report of Ady Will Be Heard

Water users from all parts of the Klamath project will be in Klamath Falls tomorrow to attend the annual stockholders' meeting of the Klamath Water Users Association, to be held at 2 o'clock in the opera house. At this time a board of directors will be elected for the ensuing year.

LISKEY CASE UP TOMORROW

MIDLAND MAN, ACCUSED OF CREATING DISTURBANCE AT THE POLLS, TO HAVE PRELIMINARY HEARING

Justice Gowen has set tomorrow as the time for the preliminary hearing of August A. Liskey of Midland, who is charged with creating a disturbance at the polls in Midland precinct on election day.

Abel Ady is the complaining witness. The allegation if proved makes Liskey guilty of violating one of the provisions of the Corrupt Practices Act, and the matter may be taken before the grand jury.

OPPENHEIMER IS GIVEN REPRIEVE

GOV. JOHNSON GRANTS A LEASE OF LIFE TO JEW MURDERER UNTIL CASE COMES FROM THE SUPREME COURT

SACRAMENTO, June 5.—Governor Johnson today granted a reprieve to Jake Oppenheimer, who was to be executed tomorrow, until June 20th.

In granting the reprieve the governor stated that the case was before the supreme court on appeal, and that the reprieve was given that the condemned man may have every chance of life.

United Press Service

LOS ANGELES, June 5.—Tom McCree, matchmaker and owner of the Vernon Athletic club, announced today that in case Bud Anderson is matched with Willie Ritchie for the 134, he will match Leach Cross and Joe Rivers for the Natal Day seance at Vernon.

Claremont Is Sold

A deal was closed today by R. E. Smith and W. S. Slough, whereby the Claremont rooming house on Fourth street was sold to Mrs. Henry Bolvin by Mary Wells. The building is to be equipped with a steam heating plant and other modern conveniences, and opened later as an apartment house.

Water Users' Meeting Of Great Importance

In Addition to Constitutional Amendments to be Voted Upon, Report of Ady Will Be Heard

Water users from all parts of the Klamath project will be in Klamath Falls tomorrow to attend the annual stockholders' meeting of the Klamath Water Users Association, to be held at 2 o'clock in the opera house. At this time a board of directors will be elected for the ensuing year.

JAPAN WILL BE THEME OF TALK AT BIG BANQUET

SECRETARY BRYAN WILL OUTLINE HIS VIEWS

California Situation Will Be Discussed From Various Angles at Farewell Dinner Given in Pittsburg for New Japanese Ambassador—President Wilson and Ambassador Chinda Will Be Present.

United Press Service

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 5.—Prior to going to Pittsburg to attend the Guthrie farewell banquet, President Woodrow Wilson and Baron Chinda, the Japanese ambassador, will hold a private conference today.

United Press Service

PITTSBURG, July 5.—Pending the receipt of Japan's rejoinder to America's regarding the protest against the California anti-alien land bill, a general discussion of the Japanese situation will be held here this evening. Much interest is being manifested in the outcome.

The occasion for the discussion is a farewell dinner given by the business men of Pittsburg for George

(Continued on Page 4)

OVERMAN SEES STRONG LOBBY

CHAIRMAN OF THE JUDICIARY BRANCH SAYS PRESIDENT'S CHARGES AGAINST INTERESTS WILL BE SUSTAINED

United Press Service

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 5.—"President Wilsons charge that a powerful and insidious lobby is fighting to defeat the tariff measure in the senate has been fully sustained," was the announcement made today by Chairman Lee S. Overman of the senate judiciary committee.

Overman announced that the investigation would in all probabilities extend over a period of ten days. This is the length of time specified in the Cummins resolution asking for an investigation.

It was asserted by Overman that the sixty-five senators examined have proved conclusively by their testimony that there are at least three specialized lobbies. One of these works for wool protection, the other two for sugar and insurance.

Women Must Get Licenses

SALEM, June 5.—Women, as well as men, must hereafter take out licenses to fish and hunt, according to an interpretation made of the game law by Attorney General Crawford. Under the old law men only had to secure licenses, but the new law was made broad enough to cover women. The license fee is $1.

ADVISES A ROAD TO CALIFORNIA STATE HIGHWAY

RIGHT OF WAY AGENT VISITS KIAMATH

Although California Highway Route Will Enter Oregon East of Mountains, Ream Believes a Good Highway From Here to the Road Being Constructed Would Divert Half the Tourists

United Press Service

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 5.—"I believe that at least half the tourist travel coming north on the California State highway could be routed through Klamath Falls and Klamath county if a good road was built from here to Ager or some other point near the highway's terminus," says H. R. Ream of Sisson, route agent for the California highway commission. Mr. Ream, in company with Judge Henry McGuiness, is here for a short visit.

"It is certain that the northern terminus of the California highway is at a point on the state line east of the mountains, so there is no need for Klamath county and other Central Oregon people hoping to pull the routing through this section.

"With a good road through from (Continued on page 4)

WANT RIGHT TO SPEECH UPHELD

PROMINENT ECONOMISTS AND SOCIOLOGISTS ASK CONGRESS TO STOP THE ENCROACHMENT OF POLICE POWER

United Press Service

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 5.—A petition, signed by a large number of prominent sociologists, and asking congress to serve warning that the constitutional right of every American to free speech must be observed was presented to Senator Kern of California this afternoon by Frederick C. Howe, political economist and author of a number of books on this subject.

The petition declares that incidents occurring at the Paterson, Passaic, Lawrence, Little Falls, Charleston and West Virginia strikes recently indicate that there is a gradual encroachment by the police power on the right to freedom of speech as provided for in the Constitution.

ROYALTY HOLDS CHARITY BALL

ELITE OF EUROPE GATHERS AT LONDON FOR THE SMARTEST AFFAIR OF THE BRITISH SOCIAL SEASON

United Press Service

LONDON, June 5.—The most fashionable social function of the season will take place at Albert's hall tonight, when in the name of "Charity" society will frolic at the gorgeous ball called "a Fete at Versailles."

The ball is given for the benefit of the Soldiers and Sailors Help Society, and King George and Queen Mary and Queen Alexandra head the long list of patrons.

All the dancers will have to wear costumes of the period of Louis XIV, XV or XVI—from 1646 to 1783—and the ball will culminate at midnight in a grand spectacle in which Louis XIV will receive his contemporary reigning sovereigns attended by their courts. Many prominent Americans will be present, among them Lady Newborough (Grace Carr of Kentucky) and Lady Arthur Paget (Mary Stevens of New York), who have taken a leading part in the organization work. The former will represent Poland and the latter will appear as France in the spectacle of the nations.

SINNOTT WIRES THE TIDINGS TO LOCAL ATTORNEY

BELIEVED INTERIOR DEPARTMENT WILL ACCEPT FILING

Notices of Acceptance Is Expected in a Few Days—Is a Big Step Toward Securing Water for Acres in the Vicinity of Bonanza—Bids for the First Bond Issue Will Be Opened at Bonanza June 14th

United Press Service

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 5.—The reclamation service headquarters at Washington has approved the application of the Horsefly irrigation district filing on the Horsefly reservoir site. A wire to this effect was received today by Kuykendall & Ferguson, attorneys for the district, from Congressman Nick J. Sinnott.

Since taking office Sinnott has been active in getting the matter of a filing on the Horsefly site before the department of the interior. It is mainly due to his efforts that the matter is now so well on its way.

"Now that the reclamation service has approved the application, there is no doubt but what the department of the interior will approve it without delay," said Charles J. Ferguson today. "We look for an approval within a few days."

Another matter of importance to the Horsefly irrigation district is the sale of a bond issue for $30,000, to be used in defraying the cost of the preliminary work. Bids for this issue will be opened at Bonanza June 14th.

United Press Service

ANNAPOLIS, Md., June 5.—Secretary of the Navy Daniels and other navy officials arrived here today to take part in the graduation exercises at the naval academy. Secretary Daniels will deliver an address tonight after which the graduates and their friends will attend a farewell ball.

The old graduates of the academy attending the twenty-eighth annual reunion considered a plan to place a memorial window in the chapel of the academy in honor of Admiral Faragut. A subscription of $3 from each graduate was planned. The window will cost about $7,500.

G. O. Johnson, connected with the S. S. Johnson company, is here after a five months' absence, spent in various coast cities. He says much interest is being taken in Klamath Falls.

List of Veniremen Drawn For The June Term of Court

Sheriff Finishes Serving Jury Summons Throughout the County. Men are Summoned to be in court June 16, When Grand Jury Will be Chosen

Drawing of the thirty-one talesmen to act as jurors in the law cases to be tried during the June term of the June term of the circuit court has been completed by County Clerk De Lap and Sheriff Low.

The men drawn for jury service follow: C. M. Merritt, farmer, Merrill. Wilbur Miller, farmer, Merrill. W. H. Shook, stockman, Dairy. Jack Kerr, carpenter, Klamath Falls. W. E. Nicholson, farmer, Ft. Klamath. Wm. Tingle, farmer, Midland. R. F. Tuttle, farmer, Lorella. S. P. Dehlinger, farmer, Merrill. Chas. Woodard, retired, Klamath Falls. Chas. Koonitz, farmer, Klamath Falls. W. T. Elliott, farmer, Klamath Falls.

Geo. Loosley, farmer, Fort Klamath. Miles Moore, farmer, Merrill. W. P. Johnson, creamery man, Klamath Falls. A. D. Slack, millman, Bonanza. H. F. Chapman, farmer, Keno. Albert Bergdorf, farmer, Dairy. Glenn Johnson, photographer, Klamath Falls. Clyde VanMeter, farmer, Olens. Will Humphrey, farmer, Klamath Falls. C. C. Pearson, farmer, Dairy. John Myers, laborer, Klamath Falls. Fred Beck, farmer, Dairy. Charles E. Drew, farmer, Dairy. W. M. Coseboom, farmer, Klamath Falls. James Boyd, farmer, Bly. L. W. Copeland, farmer, Ft. Klamath.

H. S. Parish, farmer, Merrill. E. M. Leever, farmer, Ft. Klamath. Charles Steeman, farmer, Klamath Falls. All of the selected have been served with the jury summons by Sheriff Low. This summons orders them to be at the court house on Monday morning, June 16th. At that time the grand jury will be drawn, and will commence its work. The first trials of the June term will commence Wednesday, June 18, when the trial of W. H. Marcho, accused of stealing a calf, will be taken up. The criminal docket also includes a murder case and a charge of horse stealing. Besides these, it is believed that the grand jury will return several more criminal indictments.

PARRISH TO HELP ARRANGE SYSTEM

LOCAL MAN NAMED ON BOARD TO DEVISE A UNIFORM SYSTEM OF ACCOUNTANCY FOR COUNTY OFFICIALS

C. L. Parrish, who has been experting the books of Klamath county, has received word that he has been given a position on the board which will prepare a uniform system of accounting for the county and state officers, under the new law passed by the last legislature, which was introduced by Smith of Klamath.

Mr. Parrish expects to finish his work on the county books here so as to leave for Salem Saturday morning. Mr. Parrish has a statewide reputation as an expert accountant, and his long experience with the affairs of county offices will make him a valuable man on the new commission.

Mr. Parrish was also appointed by Governor West as a member of the state board of accountants, which will examine and issue licenses to public accountants in the state. This board has already been organized with John Y. Richardson as chairman and A. M. E. Ball secretary. The first meeting of the board will be held Monday in Portland.

Rebekahs Tonight Prosperity Rebekah Lodge will meet tonight in regular session in the east hall of I. O. F. Temple.

EIGHTH GRADERS TAKING SUBJECTS

THOSE WHO FAILED IN TWO OR LESS SUBJECTS LAST MAY ARE GIVEN A CHANCE TODAY TO MAKE GRADE

A special examination for Eighth grade pupils who failed in one or two subjects is being held at Merrill, Fort Klamath and Klamath Falls today. The pupils who make up the subjects at this examination in which they were deficient in May will be awarded diplomas entitling them to enter any high school of the state.

Four Klamath Widows Applying For Pensions

New Law, Just Gone Into Effect Provides $10 Monthly For First, and $7.50 For Additional Minors

So far, there are four Klamath county, heads of families, who will take advantage of the relief afforded by the widow's pension bill. All filed their applications with the county court today.

There are four Goddard children, aged from 5 to 13 years. Mrs. Mary E. Jones, who has a homestead on the Upper Lake. Mrs. Jones has several young children to support. The widow's pension bill is one of the measures that was passed by the last legislature. It went into effect Tuesday. Under its provision a widow will receive $10 a month for the first child who is dependent upon her, and $7.50 for each additional child. The maximum monthly payment is $70.