

The Evening Herald.

SUPPLIED BY THE UNITED PRESS NEWS SERVICE

PRINT THE NEWS FOR HIMSELF

Seventh Year—No. 2,108

KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON, TUESDAY, JULY 8, 1918

Price Five Cents

First National Bank and Captain Siemens Raise Question Over Funds, of State Wide Importance

M'REYNOLDS IS AGAINST CIVIL SERVICE RULING

OVERRULES OPINION IN THE ARANT CASE

Park Superintendent is Again Requested to Resign by Secretary Lane of the Department of the Interior—Arant Says He Will Carry the Matter into the Courts and Fight to the Last Ditch

LOUIS FURBER PASSES BEYOND

WELL KNOWN MIDLAND FARMER SUCCEUMS AFTER AN EXTENDED ILLNESS FROM BLOOD DISEASES

Following a long illness, Louis Irvin Furber died Monday at his ranch near Midland. Death was due to blood troubles.

Making Investigation United Press Service. ALBANY, N. Y., July 8.—Formal charges that Supreme Court Justice Cohalan did not adhere strictly to judicial ethics, were inquired into today when the legislature started its investigation.

Count Tisza New Premier of Hungary

The new premier of Hungary, Count Stephan Tisza, is said to be a man of iron, who will rule the turbulent parliament in the same iron way as his predecessor.

MITCHELL SEEN AT GRASS LAKE THIS MORNING

ALLEGED HORSESTEALING IS BEING PURSUED

Northern California Officers Are Not on the Trail of Offender, and his Capture is Momentarily Expected.

Gordon Mitchell, the young man charged with the theft of a horse, a silver mounted bridle, some money and a Colts revolver from the Bunting ranch near Merrill, will soon be in jail, according to information received at the sheriff's office here.

Word was received here that Mitchell was seen near Grass Lake, Calif., early this morning. The horse he was riding showed evidence of hard usage, and was plainly tired.

Men Involved in Mulhall Charges

James W. Van Cleave, Ex-president Manufacturers Association, John Kirby Jr., President Manufacturer National Association, John Kirby Jr., the president of the National Association of Manufacturers, and James W. Van Cleave, the ex-president, both of whom were in office during the time that Colonel M. M. Mulhall was employed as a lobbyist and general handy man in underhand work, will likely be called before the senate lobby investigation to tell of the charges made by Mulhall that money was spent for and against members of congress.

CURRENCY BILL IN COMMITTEE

BANKING COMMITTEE OF THE HOUSE IS TODAY MAKING ITS STUDY OF SECOND ADMINISTRATION MEASURE

United Press Service WASHINGTON, D. C., July 8.—The house banking committee today commenced a consideration of the currency reform measure.

It is expected that there will be a number of "opposition" currency bills introduced.

Go for a Visit—Mrs. F. J. Williams and daughters, Misses Margaret and Katherine Williams, leave in the morning for a visit in Vancouver, B. C. They will be away about six weeks.

COUNTY MONEY INVOLVED IN PROCEEDINGS

MATTER IS TAKEN TO THE SUPREME COURT

Right of a County Treasurer to the Use of Money in the Payment for County Money in the State of Issue in Action Brought by South Fork—Alternative View of the County Issued by Judge McCallister

An action having a bearing on the legality of one of the measures passed by the last legislature has been started in the supreme court by the First National bank of this city.

Mulhall Ready to Tell His Story to Committee

Congressional Investigators Will Allow Wall Street Man to Tell His Story Without Interruption

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 8.—M. M. Mulhall and a score of prominent manufacturers are here, ready to testify in the investigation of the charges of a combine to suppress labor, which will be taken up tomorrow by the senate judiciary committee.

Box Factory Employee is Injured by a Saw

Clifford Rambo's Right Leg is Almost Severed at the Thigh by a Saw. Limb May be Saved

Struck by the whirling blade of a cutoff saw at the Evans box factory, Clifford Rambo, 15-year-old son of Dr and Mrs. C. A. Rambo, is at the Blackburn hospital, his right leg nearly severed at the thigh, and his right foot badly cut. The lad suffered intensely from his horrible wound, the terrible shock and the loss of blood.

TURKS TO FIGHT FOR LOST LANDS

FORTE ANNOUNCES SULTAN'S FORCES WILL RETAKE TERRITORY WON BY THE ALLIES IN BALKAN WAR

United Press Service CONSTANTINOPLE, July 8.—The porte today decided that Turkey will re-occupy the territory the Balkan allies took from her as a result of the London peace treaty.

John and Henry Schmor were here from Swan Lake Monday, attending to business matters.

San Francisco Wins Signal Bout in Hetch Hetchy Fight

Public Lands Committee, After Executive Session, Announces That it Will Report Favorably Tomorrow. The Authority of Secretary Lane is Broadened

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 8.—The house committee on public lands went on record as being heartily in favor of the bill allowing the city of San Francisco to secure a filing on the Hetch Hetchy Valley as a reservoir site.

Band Asks Council to Think the Matter Over

Believing Members Acted Hastily in Turning Down Concert Appropriation, Ask Reconsideration

There is much consternation among the members of the Klamath Falls Military band as a result of the city council's action last night in refusing the petition of the band for an appropriation of $200 for a series of weekly concerts in the park during the next two months.

McLemore Starts a Fund for Rodeo Park

Donates His Winnings in the Contests. Elks Hope to Secure a Quarter Mile Track

The first step toward securing a new Rodeo grounds was taken Monday, when D. M. McLemore, whose chariot team won some of the money at the Rodeo last week, donated this toward the purchase of grounds.