Black suede gloves are worn with mourning on account of their lustrous finish, but these wear shabby very quickly, and the economically minded woman uses the black glace kid. Silk gloves are used in the hot weather, though not absolutely correct mourning wear on account of the brightness of the silk.

Don't fall into the modiste mistake that black is the most suitable hue for women of a certain age to wear. It is, in fact, about the most trying one possible for those on the shady side of forty to adopt, as do so many. If you must wear black, let it be brightened with trimming of some becoming color.

Why K. Sugarman Was Asked to Close His Store at Six O'clock

To the Public—

Mr. K. Sugarman, in a signed article in Sunday's issue of the Northwestern attempts to explain why he is the only merchant in the city who refuses to close his store at 6 o'clock.

His explanation is high sounding and full of heroics. Sugarman, according to his article is the only friend of the "working man." His explanation of this same "working man" is, "the man who is unable to get away from his business or job until after working hours, WHICH IS USUALLY SIX O'CLOCK."

Sugarman himself will have to admit that the petition mentioned which asked that the stores close at 6 o'clock was signed by these same "working men" for whom he expresses such great friendship, and in whom he takes such a great interest. It was not the merchants themselves who signed the petition, but the working people of Klamath Falls who desire that the stores close at 6 o'clock so the "working man" can have a few hours in the evening to rest after the day in the store. We feel safe in saying that there are no "working men" in Klamath Falls who desire or would ask that the stores keep open, and thus force their fellow workers and co-laborers to remain behind the counters after 6 o'clock.

of said city, a reference thereto is hereby made for greater detail regarding work and materials. The improvement is to be fully completed by November 1st, 1913, and the contractor will be required to give a bond in the sum of $7,000.00 conditioned for the faithful performance of the work to the satisfaction of the Common Council and the city engineer. Said improvement will be let in one contract. Bids for making said improvement will be opened and considered by the Common Council on the evening of August 4th, 1913, at the hour of 8 o'clock p. m. at the office of the Police Judge in said city.

Each bid must be accompanied by a certified check on some responsible bank for five per cent of the aggregate bid, as a guarantee that the bidder, if successful, will enter into contract with the city for the making of the improvement. The city reserves the right to reject any and all bids. And the city further reserves the right to reject any and all bids, and to make such proposed improvement itself.

A. L. LEAVITT, Police Judge.

Suit in Equity for a Divorce (Number 477 Equity)

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Klamath.

Marie C. Hughes, Plaintiff, vs.

Albert M. Hughes, Defendant.

To Albert M. Hughes, the above-named Defendant:
In the name of the State of Oregon you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit, on or before Thursday, the 14th day of August, A. D. 1913, that being the day of the last publication of this summons, and the last day within which you are required to appear and answer, as fixed by the order of publication of this summons. If you fail to appear and answer, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in said complaint. Said suit is brought to secure dissolution of the bonds of matrimony existing

Let us rather look to the other statements in Sugarman's article which reveal his true reason for being the one and only merchant in the city who forces labor in the stores to remain during the long hours of the evening, and that is, "we have things to sell—you have the money." By these statements he himself pleads guilty and admits the true reason for keeping his store open and all who labor in the stores are thus forced, through his greed and avarice, to spend the evenings behind the counter and put in additional hours.

In view, therefore, of the fact that it was the "working man" who petitioned the stores to close, the public will not swallow the oily statement of Mr. Sugarman, and believe that of all the merchants in the city, he alone has the interests of the "working man" at heart.

This same "working man" appreciates the character and generosity of the other employers of labor, and realizes that it is through the action of Mr. Sugarman alone that burdens are imposed upon those who are striving to earn a livelihood behind the counters, and this explanation is made to the public that the true reason why the stores are forced to remain open will be understood.

BY THE CLERKS.
