$155,000 NOW AVAILABLE ON MODOC PROJECT

ADDITIONAL MONY FOR INVESTIGATIONS... Full Amount Needed for Modoc Point Irrigation Project is Appropriated.

The full amount necessary for the construction of the Modoc Point irrigation project on the Klamath Indian Reservation is now available.

In addition to this last appropriation, $50,000 has been set aside for the work, so the total of $155,000 needed is now available.

Besides the money for the Modoc Point project, $5,000 was appropriated for looking into other projects on the Klamath Indian reservation.

TWO COMMITTEED TO THE ASYLUM

OVER-INDULGENCE IN LIQUOR CAUSES MAN TO MAKE DESPERATE ATTEMPTS AT SELF DESTRUCTION

Two men were Monday committed to the insane asylum, and are being held at the county jail pending the arrival of asylum attendants.

Allen M. Gathers, the other man, was found between Chilquin and Fort Klamath, attempting to beat out his brains with a rock.

Mrs. C. V. Fisher has gone to Portland to visit friends.

Eureka Convention Conflicts With Local Dates, Despite Promise Made

Great disappointment is felt among the members of the Chamber of Commerce and other public bodies of Klamath Falls over the announcement of the dates set for the Eureka conference by the Humboldt Chamber of Commerce.

The Klamath Falls dates were set early in the spring, and at the recent meeting at Eureka a definite promise was made that the Eureka meeting

TELEGRAPH CO. IS DEFENDANT

GEORGE REED, STRUCK BY A PAINT BUCKET, IS SUING THE WESTERN UNION COMPANY FOR DAMAGES

Damages amounting to about $5,000 are asked for by George Reed, whose suit against the Western Union Telegraph company commenced today in the Circuit Court.

Reed, according to his complaint, was struck on the back by a bucket of paint, dropped from the Western Union pole at Seventh street and Klamath avenue, by an employe of the company.

The jury is composed of Henry Rabbes, Will H. Shook, R. E. Hunsaker, W. T. Elliott, E. K. Seehorn, R. H. Bunnell, R. E. Smith, J. H. Berry, P. L. Fountain, Ralph Ross and J. W. Lindsay.

Postmasters Convene... COLUMBUS, Ind., July 22.—The postmasters of Indiana, whose annual convention opened here today, will consider the civil service and postal savings bank reforms this week.

Middle Return... ANNAPOLIS, Md., July 22.—The battleship Illinois, with the third class of the naval academy on board, is due here today after the most extensive cruise ever made by any other class of middles.

Walker Buys Car.—Luke Walker, who has been associated with D. M. McLemore in buying and handling cattle in California, is on route to Klamath Falls with a powerful new Oakland automobile.

Marriage License... A marriage license was issued today to Joseph Jackson and Lou Wilson. Both are from the Klamath reservation.

Go Camping.—Mr. and Mrs. W. T. H live and family have gone to Spring Creek for an outing. Miss Fern Hoagland was also in the party.

FLYING SQUAD WILL ARRIVE HERE TONIGHT

HOOSTERS TO BE TENDERED A BANQUET

Party is Touring Central Oregon in the interests of the Central Oregon Development League Congress to be held here next month.

The "Flying Squad" is composed of Phil B. Bates, publisher of the Pacific Northwest, and good roads disciple, who comes representing C. C. Chapman of the Portland Commercial Club.

Tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock about thirty automobile loads will leave the Hotel Hall for a trip through the Klamath Basin to Merrill and Malin.

About thirty automobile owners have promised to take their cars on the trip tomorrow and the committee is desirous of having as many machines as possible to join the party to Merrill.

North—Niles... At the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. North, William C. North and Miss Ruth Niles were united in marriage last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis, who have been visiting Mrs. M. M. Straw, have gone to Fort Klamath.

SELLS CATTLE AT GAZELLE, CALIF.

LOCAL STOCKMAN DISPOSES OF FIFTEEN CARS OF BEEF STOCK TO EDISON FOLKE COMPANY IN CALIFORNIA TOWN

D. M. McLemore arrived here last night from Gazelle, where he sold fifteen car loads of cattle to the Edison Folke company.

The cattle were in good flesh, considering the dry season in the vicinity from which they were shipped.

Edison Folke, buyer for the Edison Folke company, has been in Klamath and Lake counties for some time buying feeders.

McLemore will remain in this city for several days, and will then go to Canada on a brief business trip.

TERROR REIGNS IN MEXICO; ALL OPPOSE ALIENS

BOTH ARMIES MURDER AND PILLAGE

Rebels and Federalists Resort to Bomb-throwing Methods, Say Confidential Dispatches Received at Washington—Situation is Said to Be More Grave for Foreigners' Safety Than Days After Madero's Defeat

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 22.—Confidential information received by government officials here indicates that foreigners in the interior of Mexico are more in peril of their lives today than they were in the chaotic days following the overthrow of the Madero regime.

Hands of robbers are plundering ranches and towns, and are torturing and murdering people. These are composed of both rebel and federal soldiers.

President Wilson is much troubled. He is preparing a list of searching questions to ask Mexican Ambassador Wilson when he reaches Washington this week.

It is openly charged that, officially, Huerta is seeking a general understanding with the rebels, so the Mikado will aid him against American intervention.

R. C. Klepper, a local grocer, left this morning for Portland, where he will attend to business matters.

DOE BOYS ARE ALL IN PRISON

CHARLES WALKER, CHARGED WITH ASSAULT AND E. M. HOPPE WITH KILLING A MARE, ARE UNDER INDICTMENT

The identity of the two John Doe indictments by the grand jury became known last evening, when Sheriff Low arrested Charles Walker of Barrow Valley and E. M. Hoppe of Midland.

Walker is charged with a statutory crime by his sister-in-law, 14-year-old Oakie Coburn, who alleges that he is the father of her young child.

Hoppe is charged with shooting a mare belonging to E. L. Hopkins. The men, though neighbors, are not friends, and Hopkins took the matter before the grand jury.

Hoppe's trial is set for Thursday. Rollo C. Grossbeck is his attorney.

The trial of Walker has been set for Tuesday. He is being held in jail in default of $5,000 bonds.

MM to Resume... Captain Harry Gallagher of the steamer Canby, who is also superintendent of the Big Basin Lumber company's West Side sawmill, stated today that the plant will commence operations the 1st of August.

Mrs. Robert Jones and her daughter, Miss Jessie Jones and Miss Mary Jones of Lafayette, Ind., are here to visit the former's daughter, Mrs. J. C. Brockmough. They will spend the summer here.

Three Presidents of Great Railroads

WILLIAM C. BROWN, President New York Central; SAMUEL REA, President of the Pennsylvania; DANIEL WILLARD, President Baltimore & Ohio

The three presidents of the most important railway lines of the East, William C. Brown of the New York Central; Samuel Rea of the Pennsylvania; and Daniel Willard of the Baltimore & Ohio, were among those who called on President Wilson Monday to discuss the demand of Eastern trainmen and conductors of Eastern railways for higher wages.

Their roads would be the greatest losers by a strike, for the Central and the Pennsylvania are the largest systems in the country.

PORTLAND, July 22.—With good roads to make more easily accessible, and with a little judicious advertising to get its beauties and wonders before the public, Crater Lake, Oregon, could be made the Mecca of tourists the country over.

SHRINERS TO SEE K'LAMATH RESORTS

A ST. CAMES TRIP TO HARRIMAN LODGE TO BE ONE OF THE FEATURES OF THE COMING PILGRIMAGE

Although it is several weeks until the membership of Hillah Temple, Ancient and Arabic Order of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, leave Ashland for their pilgrim to Klamath Falls, the local Masons have already commenced preparing for the visit.

CONGRESSMAN SEEKS INTERVENTION WITHIN THIRTY DAYS—RESOLUTION TO THAT EFFECT BEFORE CONGRESS

OKLAHOMAN WOULD HAVE PRESIDENT DEMAND FULL OBEY

Early on the day following the arrival of the Shriners, they will be taken to points on the Upper Lake in a chartered steamer, and will stop for lunch at Harriman Lodge.

In the evening a class of twenty novices will be taken across the burning sands by the visiting Nobles.

The following day will be taken advantage of by many of the Shriners to visit Crater Lake. For those who do not go to the lake the local members are arranging to take them through the fertile Merrill Valley, to show the effects of irrigation.

Makes Engines, Too.—Since September of last year, C. B. House has been working at odd moments on the construction of a gasoline launch, and by the first of next week expects to put it in the waters of Upper Klamath Lake.

THE "DOLL SHOP" AWAITS CURTAIN

THIRTY LOCAL PEOPLE WILL APPEAR TONIGHT AND TOMORROW NIGHT FOR WOMAN'S CIVIC LEAGUE'S BENEFIT

Under the auspices of the Women's Civic League, the musical pantomime, "The Doll Shop," will be presented this evening and tomorrow evening at Houston's opera house.

The curtain rises at 8:45 upon a great array of dolls of all sorts, rag, bique, paper and wood.

The second act is the dream of the shopkeeper, in which his dolls come to life.

Portland Tourist Says Crater Lake Suffers From Poor Roads

PORTLAND, July 22.—With good roads to make more easily accessible, and with a little judicious advertising to get its beauties and wonders before the public, Crater Lake, Oregon, could be made the Mecca of tourists the country over.

The government has about 100 men at work in Crater Lake Park making roads. Two hotels are to be built, one of them being under construction now, and other improvements are being made to make the park more attractive.

MURRAY WANTS THE CONGRESS TO CALL INTO SERVICE ITS ARMY AND NAVY TO PROTECT INTERESTS

United Press Service... WASHINGTON, D. C., July 22.—Congressman William H. Murray of Oklahoma today introduced in the House a resolution demanding that the American government in Mexico, within a certain period of time, should be required to protect the interests of American citizens.

The resolution proposes that President Wilson issue a proclamation to each of the warring factions, demanding that they restore order and respect to American property, and the security of American lives.

Murray would authorize President Wilson to use the American land and naval forces to establish peace in Mexico until the demands in the treaty of any American or any other foreign nation shall be fully satisfied.

The resolution has been referred to the House committee on foreign affairs.

FORTY FACTORY GIRLS BURIED

MORE THAN ONE HUNDRED EMPLOYEES OF OVERALL FACTORY HAD BEEN KILLED ACCORDING TO POLICE

United Press Service... BINGHAMTON, N. Y., July 22.—While it is impossible to exactly determine the number of girls and women killed to death, it is estimated that 100 lives were lost in the factory explosion.

Many of the girls were badly injured and others were crushed in the stampede. The latest report indicates that 117 girls and women were in the building when the explosion occurred.

The explosion has been referred to the House committee on foreign affairs.
