LIBERTY'S ATTITUDE TOWARD LIND

Many believe the Liberty faction is bluffing in this new situation.

United Press Service
PARIS, Aug. 7.—The following statement was made by constitutionalists headquarters today:

"We learn that Lind has been sent to Mexico as a mediator. The constitutionalists here protest the pretended mediation by the United States. We do not wish for any foreign intrusion. Only military intervention could be worse than mediation, as that would mean war."

United Press Service.
SAN DIEGO, Calif., Aug. 7.—Five hundred Mexican refugees, from both factions are here to remain until peace permits them to return south.

The party arrived last night from El Paso and Nogales, and there are many women in the company. All are living in army tents.

she learned that in her absence from her two other daughters they were again victimized for their unnatural parent's bestial passion.

When Mrs. Tappan heard this she summoned the authorities and told a story of her husband's carnal pervasions that shocked even hardened officers. Tappan was arrested, and was held here until it was learned that the outrages had been committed in California, when he was sent to Yreka.

While in the jail here Tappan was recognized by a horse broker as a man who had been arrested on a similar charge in Boise, Idaho.
