TENNIS CHAMP TOURNAMENT STARTS

McKENNEN AND BUNBY WILL OPPOSE THE REPUTATION OF THE PACIFIC SLOPE IN FIRST MATCHES

United Press Service
NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 18.—It looked to be West against West here today, when the play for the national tennis championships started with two teams of Californians as the head on favorites. Maurice E. McLoughlin and Thomas C. Bundy, and Clarence Griffin and John Strickland are the two team teams which meet in the challenge round.

Other tennis matches on the schedule of the National Lawn Tennis Association today were the Englishmen championships at the Englewood (P.E.) Athletic Association grounds; the All-Ireland Championships open championships on the Potomac Club courts at Chestnut Hill, Md., and the Central West mixed doubles on the Ivanhoe Tennis Club courts at Kansas City, Missouri.

Rebuilding Building—Workmen are remodeling the front of the building occupied by the Klamath Music company on Main street, and patching a leak in the roof.

To Policy Holders
Having sold our fire insurance business, all accounts for fire insurance policies written during the months of July and August, 1913, are payable, when due, at the office of the City and County Abstract company, 157 Main street.—Klamath Falls Insurance Co., by O. H. Hunter, 10-4 Wilson, 11-6

STAR BILL IS HOLDING CROWD

VIC AND DELL DO SOME GOOD SINGING, DUTCH COMEDY AND NOVEL FOOTWORK—GOOD PICTURES, ALSO

United Press Service
It was real enjoyment after a day's outing to return and enjoy a program of vaudeville and pictures such as was presented at the Star last night. As the vaudeville attraction for the first half of this week could not arrive before 8:30, Mr. Houston persuaded the LaKolas to remain over one night, thus giving the patrons the benefit of a double bill of vaudeville.

Vic and Dell, novelty singing, talking and dancing act, certainly won the hearty applause of a packed house. Vic, as the "Dutch," is a most capable comedian, and with his style of "doing things," he can make a "riot" out of most any old "pun." Vic does not run all together to comedy, however, as he does some of the best acrobatic dancing ever seen. Furthermore, he is not the whole act—far from it, for he has the able assistance of Miss Dell, who offers some very good song numbers, and still better dancing oddities.

To the Incoming Public—We wish to announce that we have purchased the fire insurance business conducted by O. H. Hunter and combined it with our own insurance agency. We assure our new policy-holders that their interests will be carefully safeguarded, and that we will do our best to deserve a continuation of their patronage.—City and County Abstract company, 157 Main street. JAP COAL NOT WANTED IN B. C.

FORCED IMPORTATION OF PUEL, OWING TO REFUSAL OF OPERATORS TO ARBITRATE, CAUSES INDIGNATION

United Press Service
VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 18.—Public indignation over the forced importation of Japanese coal here as a result of refusal of the operators to arbitrate the strikes in the mines east of here, is liable to affect, it was declared today, the opening of government mines in Alaska. Mine operators declare they will import Japanese coal until the strikers return to work, and the owners today are being bitterly denounced as responsible for this situation when there is unlimited supply forty-five miles from Vancouver.

his white brother, and that he will be accorded the same consideration and privileges. Preceding the flag raising ceremony Dr. Dixon painted a beautiful word picture in a patriotic setting, as holding the flag in his arms, he told of the treatment of the Indian by the white in the past, and brought the promise of equality in the near future. "The new era in the life of the North American Indian is near at hand," said the Doctor, "and this new life to come is one of uplift, until the treatment of the Red Man will not be that accorded to a child, but as man to man. The Indian has two eyes, two hands, one thinking part and one heart, the same as the white man, but the hearts of these two races have not beat together as the Creator intended. "At this late day, though, the matter is receiving its full attention, and you men will find that your taking the oath of allegiance today is your knock on the door of this privilege to which you are entitled."

"As children of the forest," continued the Doctor in a eulogy of the flag, "Your forefathers were guided at night by the stars in the heavens, which they followed. You will find these stars in this flag turning to you, but like your forefathers, you must follow the stars, and do your part toward proving your right to full citizenship. The schools are the open door from the reservation of citizenship, but if each Indian puts himself upon his own responsibility, and proves himself reliant in all matters, he will soon be entitled to the vote. Such a course beats all the allotments and land grants ever made. "Be no longer subject to any living power except the pure conscience and a sense of right. Keep your treaties, as you always have, and shame the white man into keeping his. The day is coming soon when the Indian will stand out as a free citizen, as was intended by the Great Builder."

Following the flag raising, Levi Walker, Choke Monakookos, Yellow Hammer, John Ball, Christ Tom Chokotot, Link River Beal, one of the Scotchies and other Indians of the four tribes affixed their signatures and thumb prints to a declaration of allegiance to the United States. During these ceremonies Roland Dixon, a son of the leader of the party, operated a motion picture machine, and a battery of other cameras took other pictures of the scene.

SEEKING ROOMS FOR VISITORS

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MAKES APPEAL TO PRIVATE FAMILIES FOR A LIST OF AVAILABLE QUARTERS

In order to insure proper accommodations for the many people who will be here to attend the Central Oregon Development League Congress, which opens tomorrow, the Klamath Chamber of Commerce has commenced listing private rooms, in case the hotels and lodging houses are overcrowded. Any persons having rooms to rent should notify the Chamber of Commerce at once, either by telephone or in person.

Following the flag raising Major McLoughlin, Inspector in the Indian service, addressed the tribesmen to their great delight. Major McLoughlin was here twelve years ago in connection with the settlement of some matters in dispute, and the affection the Indians bear toward him is shown by the fact that some of them came sixty miles or more to shake hands with the veteran, and proudly proclaimed him as "my cousin."

Captain Oliver C. Applegate, who accompanied the party as a guest, and who has known the Klamath Indians intimately for forty years, addressed them in a manner touching upon their plea for citizenship. In behalf of the Indians, Stonewall Jackson made the response, and in a stirring speech he called upon his fellow Indians to live up to the confidence displayed in them by the Wamanaker party, and prove their right to the ballot.

TOWN TOPICS

Returns From California.—Mrs. E. Wing is back from a two months' sojourn in Southern and Central California, where she visited relatives and friends. Like all the others, Mrs. Wing is glad to get back to Klamath.

To Oakland.—Mrs. A. L. Leavitt and daughter, Miss Maybelle Leavitt, left Sunday afternoon for Oakland, to remain for some time, in the hope of benefiting Mrs. Leavitt's health.

New Sporting Goods Store.—Shubert & Son have established themselves in their new place of business, the Mayhew building, on Main street, near Eighth. In addition to their repair work, they will carry a line of sporting goods, motorcycles and accessories.

Quite a Novelty.—Many people are stopping to examine and admire the beautiful mantle work on exhibition in the window of Campbell's hardware store, but very few know the work is by a local artist, though the name of W. O. Graham is worked in the feet design. The work is known as Tirazza compress, and is said to be more durable than marble.

Bicycle Brigade Back.—Johnny Houston, Ernel Stearns and Elmer Lawrence of the Herald circulation force, and Will McMillan, the quartet of youngsters who biked to Crater Lake for a ten day outing, returned Saturday evening. The boys had many wonderful experiences to relate of their trip, such as being lost in the rain, smashing a bicycle and foraging for grub.

A Venison Feast.—The boarders at the Marshall house were treated to venison steak this morning for breakfast, the result of the marksmanship of Paul Noel, who with his father and Louis McClure left a week ago for the haunts of the elusive buck. The venison was sent down on the steamer Winema from Fort Klamath Sunday, and with it a note from Paul to his mother, describing how he killed his first deer. The hunters will not be home for a week or more.

Clever Work.—Some of the prettiest designs ever constructed for advertising purposes in this city are to be seen in the Palm, the Idle Hour and other cigar stores, the handwork of W. O. Hendricks, salesman for the Hurley Tobacco company of Kentucky. Mr. Hendricks used nothing but a lot of empty City Club and Satisfaction cartons, a few small wire clips and original ideas. Mr. Hendricks is doing missionary work for City Club and Satisfaction brands of smoking tobacco, and is some missionary.

Good Huckleberrying.—F. W. Riggs, manager of the W. O. Smith Printing company, and family have gone to the Lake of the Woods to bring huckleberries.

Returns From Merrill.—E. M. Hubb, who has had charge of the First National Bank of Merrill, during the absence of Cashier Merrill on a vacation, has returned to Klamath Falls.

Goes Home.—R. C. Dement, who has been visiting his son-in-law, Dr. F. M. White of this city for a few days, left this morning for his home, Myrtle Point. During Mr. Dement's stay he visited Crater Lake, and Sunday he was taken through the Merrill Valley by Dr. White. Mr. Dement is much impressed with the possibilities of this section.

Chastains Back Tonight.—Circuit Court Clerk George Chastain and family are expected home this evening from Spring Creek, where they have been sojourning at their camp in Idlerest.

Old Forester Whiskey

Old Forester Whiskey is a perfect combination of straight and pure old Kentucky whiskey, aged in wood, in United States bonded warehouses; mellowed by the mature methods of time; smooth and delicate, with a wonderful bouquet—a whiskey as rich and palatable as fine old wine.
