

ANOTHER CREAMERY FOR KLAMATH

SULZER WILL STUMP NEW YORK IN BEHALF OF JOHN PURROY MITCHELL; MAKES CHARGES AGAINST MCCALL

SAID TO HAVE ACTED AS A GO-BETWEEN FOR TAMMANY BOSS AT THE CAPITOL.

Mrs. Sulzer Issues Statement Accusing the Tammany Candidate for Mayor, and Declares He Attempted to Influence Her Husband Through Her by Making Threats. Sulzer May Be Sent to Legislature.

United Press Service

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—William Sulzer, removed from the office of governor of New York, is today the dominating figure in the mayoralty election.

Sulzer is helping John Purroy Mitchell, the fusion candidate, in his fight for the executive office. He will undoubtedly stump the borough of Manhattan in his behalf.

Charges are made against John McCall, the Tammany candidate for mayor, by both Mr. and Mrs. Sulzer. It is alleged that he acted as a go-between for Boss Murphy.

There is no doubt but what Sulzer will be elected to the assembly.

By JOHN CHESTMAN

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—The charge that McCall acted as messenger for Charles Murphy rests not alone upon Governor Sulzer's word. Mrs. Sulzer makes a similar charge, in the following interview:

"Mr. McCall constantly came to the executive mansion, urging the governor to do this or that. He even went so far as to say to me: 'Your husband must do these things or he is destroyed, Mrs. Sulzer. Make him do them.'"

"After Mr. Sulzer's revelations yesterday, I asked Attorney Marshall to explain why Mr. Sulzer did not make these disclosures on the witness stand.

"It was attempted at the beginning of the trial, but the court would not allow us to go into what it held was outside matters, and ruled the evidence out. It was made certain that the court would allow Sulzer to tell of his dealings with Murphy."

"One incident leading up to the secret authority Murphy assumed over the government I omitted in yesterday's account. Sulzer had prepared a statement reciting all the incidents just as he would have told them on the witness stand, but was not allowed to give them."

SCHMIDT WASN'T AND ISN'T INSANE

ACCORDING TO RUMORED REPORT FROM PROSECUTOR'S OFFICE, WHICH IS SAID TO BE OFFICIAL.

United Press Service

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Four eminent attorneys are making a thorough examination as to the sanity or insanity of Hans Schmidt, the murderer of Anna Asanbiller.

Before their examination is complete they will have made seven examinations of the man at different times and under different conditions, observing in every way possible any chance of error.

It has been reported from the prosecutor's office that the man is sane now, and was sane at the time he committed the crime.

Prosecutor Whitman announces that he plans to ask Judge Foster to set an early date for the trial, which he feels sure will be granted.

CANTRALL A LONE CANDIDATE IN 5th

NO EAR HAS NO OPPOSITION IN HIS QUEST FOR THE OFFICE OF COUNCILMAN TO SUCCEED HUSON

Rowson A. Cantrall has declared himself a candidate for councilman in the Fifth ward, to succeed W. O. Huson, who some time ago tendered his resignation. Huson's successor is to be chosen at a special election November 17th.

Thus far, no other candidate has appeared in the field against the lumber man. It is generally believed that he will have no opposition for the vacant place on the city board.

PORTLAND CUSTOM FAVORS HOTELMAN

LETTER FROM CITY ATTORNEY SAYS POLICE OF ROSE CITY MAKE NO ARRESTS WHEN SIDE LIGHTS BURN

"In reply to your favor of the 11th in regard to lights on motor vehicles, I beg to advise that it has been the practice of the police officials of the city of Portland not to make any arrests in case the side lights on a car are burning. I do not know of any case in which this matter has been judicially determined in this city."

The above letter has been received by Police Judge Leavitt from City Attorney LaRoche of Portland, following a question arising at the time E. H. Hall was arrested, charged with failing to light his headlights. He was fined $5, and paid it, but he held that it was the custom in Portland and other cities not to compel the lighting of headlights if the side lamps were lighted.

To settle the matter, Leavitt wrote to Portland. On account of the last sentence of the letter, it cannot be said for certain at this writing that Hall's five-spot has been returned to him.

OREGON ELEVEN SHOWING CLASS

MEZDEK'S HUSKIES SLIP AWAY TROUCING TO ALL-STAR NAVY TEAM—FOOTBALL PROSPECTS BRIGHTEN

(Herald Special Service)

EGGERS, Ore., Oct. 21.—Playing straight football, and without taking a man out for injuries, the University of Oregon football team won from the U. S. Navy all-star team of Bremerton by a score of 43 to 6.

At the end of the first half the score stood 26 to 6, with the varsity playing stronger every minute and the team intact, while the sailors were weakening and putting in new men. In a recent game with Dobie's aggregation at Seattle, Oregon's most vicious rival, the score was 27 to 6 at the end of the game.

The features of the game were Quarterback Cornell's long end runs, Right Halfback Person's line plunging, and the marvelous strength of Oregon's line, which held like a stone wall throughout the game against the heavy tars.

Coach Bezdek has built up a great team this year, and Oregon's hopes are high.

EMMELINE FETED IN NEW YORK BY SUFFRAGE CLUBS

MILITANT IS MADE THE HEROINE OF THE HOUR

White House Sends Out Word That No Invitations Are to Be Sent to the English Militant, But Woodrow Will Receive Her, Should She Happen to Ring His Doorbell While He Is in the City.

United Press Service

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst is being lionized by suffrage workers today, and was tendered a reception at suffrage headquarters at the Belmont. Tonight she addresses a mass meeting.

"When I reach Washington I want to call on your president," said Mrs. Pankhurst today. "He is a very busy man, and I would esteem it an honor to see him, but of course I won't go unless I am asked from the White House."

United Press Service

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 21.—It was officially stated that Mrs. Pankhurst will not be given a special invitation to the White House. If she calls, though, she will be received by the president.

Immigration Commissioner Caminetti says the admission of Mrs. Pankhurst is not to be construed as an official approval of militancy.

An Open Letter to Taxpayers

By the County Court

In the classification of the four main highways to be developed throughout Klamath County, it has been the idea of the County Court that the road to Midland properly fell under the heading of the highway from Klamath Falls to the Modoc county line by way of Merrill and Malin.

There is much to be said about this route and it was thought wise at the time the classification was made, to treat the matter as a special subject, as we will now do in this letter.

Most taxpayers will remember that during the last two years a great deal has been said by various interests in Klamath Falls that a highway should be constructed along the easterly side of Lake Ewauna to the fair grounds and then on to Midland and to Merrill. The County Court, upon the suggestion of those people, went so far as to have the road viewed and accepted in order that construction work might be done thereon and has been ready at all times to do this construction work whenever those interested, or the City of Klamath Falls itself, has built that portion of the proposed road from Klamath avenue by way of either Second or Third street to the corporation line, thus affording a terminus for Klamath County to join to and something definite upon which to work.

All reasonable people will admit that it would be utter foolishness for the County Court to send a thoroughfare in the middle of a swamp with no connection or outlet. Therefore nothing was done by the County along this line for the reason that those who brought about the agitation never made good or accomplished any results. Construction of this road has always meant much to the West end of town and it is the opinion of the County Court that sufficient money has been spent in opposition to improvements during the past few

Henry Spencer, Chicago Murderer, Who Confessed

Henry Spencer, the Chicago murderer, has told the police that he has killed some ten or twelve persons, many of them within a year. There is yet considerable doubt as to whether or not he is telling the truth about the number of his victims.

THEY WOULD KEEP STEERS 3 MONTHS

RUSSIANS HOLD THAT WEBB AGREED TO PASTURE CATTLE ON THEIR RANCHES THREE MONTHS

Alleging that Michael Shirkoff and John Kosmo, two members of the Russian colony wrongfully held 162 head of young steers belonging to him, G. R. Webb this morning started a claim and delivery action against them through Kuykendall & Ferguson. Sheriff Low removed the cattle from the pasture, following the posting of sufficient bond by Webb.

Webb placed the cattle on pasture belonging to the two a short time ago, agreeing to pay $1 a month per head. A few days ago he went to get the cattle and pay the pasturage fee, but the Russians refused both these attempts, saying that Webb had agreed to keep the cattle there for three months.

REGISTRATION TO GO BEYOND 1,500

MORE THAN THREE HUNDRED REGISTERED HERE MONDAY, AND THE CLERK'S OFFICE IS SWAMPED WITH AFFIDAVITS

Following the rush on the part of voters to register just before the books closed Monday evening, Registration Clerk Perry O. De Lap is a very busy young man, attesting all the registration papers sent in from outside precincts, arranging the cards in alphabetically, and arranging alphabetically for each of the different precincts a list of the voters registered therein.

The county registration is somewhat in excess of 1,500. Of these 322 were registered at the court house Monday. At Fort Klamath Monday John Hoesig registered 78 voters.

MAN BEHIND IT ALSO PLANS FOR MORE DAIRY COWS

IS MUCH IMPRESSED WITH THE KLAMATH COUNTRY

Recent Arrival, During Trips Through the County in Purchasing Potatoes and Dairy and Farm Products, Becomes Convinced That Klamath County is in Need of More Dairy Operations and a Creamery.

Another creamery for Klamath Falls is said to be a certainty, following the trips through the county by H. L. Nelson.

Mr. Nelson has been in Klamath county with his family a short time, and is convinced that this section is ideal for dairying and farm development. He has leased the Stone residence in Hot Springs addition, and has moved his family there.

During the past summer and fall Mr. Nelson has been purchasing dairy and farm products from the Klamath county ranchers, and shipping it to outside markets. His trips through the county have convinced him that another creamery is needed to take care of the increased dairy business.

In addition to commencing a creamery, Mr. Nelson is said to be planning to purchase a thousand head of fine dairy cows. These, it is understood, he will sell to farmers on time payments, payments to be deducted from the cream check issued by the creamery each month.

DUCK SEASON JAN. 15

Federal Season Longer Than First Reported

Little genuine joylets will supplant the wailing and gnashing of teeth that has been indulged in by local sportsmen, following the adoption of the federal game laws to protect migratory birds. The duck season does not close until January 15th, so the Christmas shooting can still be held out as an incentive to draw relatives here at holly-and-stocking time. It has been generally understood that under the federal regulation, the duck season here closed December 15th, and this news was not very enthusiastically received here. A synopsis of the federal game laws applying to Oregon has been prepared by L. Alva Lewis, agent for the biological survey of the department of agriculture, and it follows: "A daily closed season on all mi-

HARDSUITS DOCKETED

U. S. Supreme Court Has Freak Matters to Settle

United Press Service

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 21.—Some of the most extraordinary unique cases in history are awaiting decision of the Supreme Court of the United States. Approximately 700 mooted questions are before the highest judicial body for the October term.

Whether negroes may call upon their constitutional prerogatives to force the right to bury members of their race in cemeteries reserved for whites; whether the United States army must pay for business damage through fear of shrieking shells from its big guns; determining the rightful mother of an incubator baby; and to determine the constitutionality of the "grandfather clauses" of Oklahoma and Maryland, designed against voting privileges of negroes whose grandfathers were not voters, are but few of the singular questions the court is called upon to pass on. Though decided against the plaintiff in the Illinois supreme court and a lower court, the supreme court must decide whether the Forest Home Cemetery company of Chicago shall be required to sell a burial lot to John B. Gaskill, a negro. The body of Gaskill's wife, who died in March, 1912, still reposes in a temporary receiving vault. The place of permanent burial depends upon the court's decision. Four deceased children of the negro are buried in the Forest Home cemetery. Before his wife died, however, a will
