RITCHIE-CROSS BOUT DECISIVE

LIGHTWEIGHT CHAMPION IS WORKING HARD TO REBUKE CRITICISM THAT HAS FOLLOWED VANCOUVER EPISODE

By HAL SHERIDAN
(Written for the United Press)

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Willie Ritchie, light weight champion of the world, and Leach Cross, the New York dentist fighter, were today beginning to put the finishing touches on their training for a ten round bout here next Tuesday. This means that the Eastern critics as well as the fight followers are to be given a chance to see Willie in what promises to be a real fight. Ritchie has been panned more or less since his fight with Freddie Welsh was called off at Vancouver, and the Eastern hoge now want to be shown. It is up to Willie to show whether he is of real championship caliber or is of the "chaser" variety, of which there are large hunks, to say nothing of gobs, now operating about Manhattan.

Most any frosty morning during the past three weeks you might have spotted Ritchie hitting it up along the roads through Central Park, getting himself into condition for the Cross bout. He does not hold Leach lightly, considering that Cross has a knockout over Bud Anderson to his credit. But he doesn't expect to run into a great deal of trouble handling Leach.

If he will just fight and not back away and cover up, I am sure to knock him out," said Ritchie. "Leach is strong for the covering up game, but if he stands out and fights I'll get him."

If Ritchie hangs one over on Cross he may expect to have a reasonably busy winter, if he cares to stay in the East. There is Jack Britton and Johnny Lore to draw on for fights. Ritchie declares he is willing to meet Freddie Welsh at any time. He may be accommodated here if the going gets good. A word from Welsh and a half dozen fight managers would be in a scramble to sign up such a bout, providing Willie shows something more than a pair of arms, legs and a title. The title sounds good, but New York fight fans are beginning to demand a little fight on the side.

MACK SEES TEAM WIN FOR AEONS

THE OTHER TEAMS ARE SAYING "NEXT YEAR," AND SO IS THE CRAFTY HEAD OF THE WORLD CHAMPIONS

By HAL SHERIDAN
(Written for the United Press)

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—By this time the last alibi should have been offered and the last postmortem held over the late lamented world's series—lamented so far as the Giant fans are concerned. The cry is now "next year."

After everybody has gotten a good square sine-up of the bunch piloted by Connie Mack, however, the vote from around the stove of the winter league is that Griff's new kid pitchers are going to be in for a warm reception when the new season rolls around.

Mack had one of the greatest ball clubs that ever went on the field this year, but his "next year" song is that he will have the greatest club he ever managed. If the other seven clubs in the American League can get any satisfaction out of that announcement they are welcome to it.

Mack not only looks to next year, and the next, but so far ahead we do not know the exact limit of his sight.

During the world's series forty-seven young men sat in the grand stand and watched the game. Connie Mack had them there to learn something.

They represented his "baseball school," and from the bunch may come another Baker, Collins or McInnes. Some of them are only high school boys, others were from colleges, but they all have shown a slant toward baseball, and when they have developed enough stuff will be pushed into Mack's fighting line.

With such a system as that working Mack is not likely to suffer from a lack of reserve material within the next few years.

Captain Hoge, West Point

Captain Hoge of the Army eleven is an end. He is a rangy, aggressive type of player, who is best suited for a wing position. It is a coincidence that the leaders of both Army and Navy elevens this year should be ends. Hoge is confident of turning the tables on the midshipmen when West Point meets Annapolis in New York on November 29th.

CENTRAL SCHOOL TO PLAY FROSH

GRAMMAR FOOTBALL PLAYERS ARE AN ACTIVE LOT AND PLAN ON DRUBBING THE CLASS OF NINETEEN-SEVENTEEN

Besides the football game scheduled for Saturday between Klamath county high and Ashland high, another contest has been arranged for Modoc Park. In this the freshmen of the high school will be pitted against the Central school eleven.

The grammar school lads have organized a team that is a whirlwind, and which is equal in weight to the best the frosh can turn out. Every night they are holding practice.

The freshmen have a number of good players in their class, and they are working under the high school coach. The date of the game has not been settled.

LINE-UP SETTLED FOR COMING GAME

HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETES FEEL EQUAL TO BEATING ASHLAND. WORKING FOR A GAME WITH MEDFORD NOVEMBER 17TH

Never did a coach of a football team exude the confidence in his team that radiates from Coach M. A. McCall of the high school. He was so well pleased with the snap and ginger displayed by his boys at Wednesday's practice that he can't figure where Ashland has any chance in the big game Saturday.

Every man on the Klamath county high is as fit as can be, and each one is possessed with the necessary amount of confidence to be at his best.

McCall has sent a wire to the Medford school asking about the game with Medford on the morning of the 17th of November, which is the day of the Giants-White Sox baseball game.

The Southern Pacific has announced a ten day limit on all tickets sold for the Herald Baseball Special, and it is almost certain that the football team will go on the special and remain over a few days to play Ashland, Medford and Grants Pass.

Both Coach McCall and Manager Noel feel sure that such an arrangement will be made.

MEDFORD TICKETS NOW BEING SOLD

ASK ANY MEMBER OF THE HERALD FORCE, OR CALL AT THE HERALD OFFICE—MATTHEWSON MAY PITCH THE GAME

In response to popular demand, tickets have been issued for the Herald's Special Baseball excursion to Medford, November 17th, and are now on sale. They are being sold at the Herald office, or can be secured from members of the Herald force.

The excursion has been arranged by the Herald in order to give local people an opportunity to see the New York Giants, champions of the National League, and the Chicago White Sox play baseball at Medford. Some of the most prominent baseball players under the Big Canvas are included in these teams, and a rattling good game is assured.

Application has been made by the Herald to the Southern Pacific for a special train to carry the rooters on the Klamath-Weed line to Medford. This has been granted, together with a special half fare rate for the trip, in case a hundred tickets are sold.

In order to have an early assurance of the special train, the Herald tickets are being sold with the understanding that if 100 or more are not sold the $6.30 will be returned to each and every purchaser. It behooves the fans wishing to make the trip, therefore, to secure their tickets early, and allow the cinching of the special train.

Efforts are being made to have Christy Matthewson pitch for New York. "Big Six" is a great favorite in Southern Oregon.
