OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

By MARGARET MADON

(Written for the United Press)

If you're fat or if you're fair, if you're slim with dusky hair, if you're old or young at all, if you're old or young at all, you should dress to suit your style. So you'd better pause a while ere your hats and gowns you choose. And this article peruse.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—To know what not to wear is quite as important as what to wear. You'd best study the style books. Yes, verily; what is sadder than a fat woman in the bouffant draperies meant for a svelte sylph, or a fluffy hat for sweet sixteen on the grizzled locks of almost sixty.

If you are of ruddy tresses, look not upon a gown when it is red, and if you are a blonde turn your back upon yellow. The best color selections for the golden girl are all shades of green, blue and the darker shades of brown, black, white and deep shades of plum and amethyst. The dark beauty, if her skin is a clear olive, has a wide selection among all shades of brown, green, blue, red, yellow and purple, gray, black and white. If there is the least tendency to sallowness, purple, green and yellow must be eschewed, and if her complexion is too vivid, the more subdued tones must be her choice. This is true of both blondes and brunettes whose coloring is high. The Titian-haired Venus is wise who sticks to olive and Nile green, old blue and navy, golden brown, burnt sienna, taupe, gray, black and white.

If you are portly with broad shoulders, a full face and several chins, your hair should be dressed plainly and on top of your head. Your hats should be trimmed high and have medium brims. Long lines should be striven for, and only dark colors worn, as they tend to reduce your bulky outline. Black is the very best for this purpose. Your blouses and waists should be loose and softly full to conceal your generous curves, and the skirts should be plain and but slightly draped. Never indulge in an overskirt, peplum or tunic, for this cuts off height and adds to breadth. If a lassie is fat and short all at the same time she is sorely tried indeed. If she gets a hat with a brim wide enough to fit her face it will take from her height alarmingly. A short woman should never wear an all black hat. The head mass of shadow will cut her off while just a touch of color will overcome this shortcoming.

Shoulders should be narrow for the plump girl, her gowns should be collarless and cut out close to the neck and in a long V-shape in front. She should cling to long plain sleeves and normal waist lines.

The slim maid nowadays is the favored of the gods. She can pick all her costumes unhampered by the fear of showing lumps instead of lines. Her only don'ts—if her face be long and thin—are to eschew long drippy earrings and high coiffures.

In playing her little part of the world's stage, lovely woman certainly has to be careful how she dresses the part, or she will never make a hit as a star performer. She must pick her type according to her personality as well as to her coloring and embonpoint, and then proceed to costume it appropriately.

Since time immemorial the petite blonde has wisely chosen the role of a baby doll, and dressed in book muslin and blue ribbons. The petite brunette should take the tip, and go in for the reguish effervescent elfin type.

The medium sized and complexioned girl should adopt the boyish, box-coated, bee-line shoe and tailored effect, while the languorous slender brunette or red-haired champion should play the Oriental game to the limit by wearing clinging, colorful gowns, henna jewelry, subtle perfume and unobscured effects.

But for the sake of suffering humanity, if you weigh 200 on the hoof and have a substance of china, don't try to be an Oriental hour or a baby doll. Just acquire a cheery personality and go in for comfort rather than style.

What the Tariff Will Do for Us

A Careful Study of the New Measure by an Expert

By BOND P. GEDDES
(Staff Correspondent of the United Press)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 1.—Better clothing, and cheaper, too, is the joyful prospect for Americans as a direct and early result of the new tariff law. More real, tangible reductions of the "high cost of living" as a result of tariff legislation will be effected by the reduced duties on clothes and wearing apparel of all kinds than on any other commodity. Many republicans, as well as democrats, concede that clothing will be both cheaper and better because of tariff slashing. It is estimated the actual saving will be as much as $60 a year for the average family of five persons.

President Wilson today has before him statistics estimating the probable, concrete savings Americans may expect on "wearables." The United Press is able to present exclusively these estimates, which were prepared by the official statistician and "tariff expert" of the democratic party, who drafted the democratic campaign "handbook" used in the presidential election last year. The figures will be used by the democratic congressional campaign committee during the forthcoming congressional campaigns. They are the democratic dictum on the probable reduction of the "high cost of living" as a result of the new tariff. Here they are:

ARTICLES.

Articles	Present Price	Estimated Reduction
All-wool serge suit	$27.00	$6.75
Worsted suit	18.00	4.50
Overcoat	21.60	5.40
Shawl	8.00	3.60
Shawl	4.00	1.80
Shawl	2.00	.90
Collars and cuffs, dozen	2.10	.35
Linen cloth, yd.	.25	.25
Woolen cloth, yd.	1.95	.60
Blankets	1.70	.45
Flannels	1.40	.40
Knit underwear	3.05	.45
Wilton carpet, sq. yd.	3.58	.78
Brussels carpet, sq. yd.	1.14	.34
Tapestry Brussels, sq. yd.	1.14	.34
Treble Ingrain, sq. yd.	1.60	.40

The democratic statistician figures that the ordinary family will be able to save under the new law between 15 and 45 per cent each year on clothing, or between $0 and $60 a year. Republicans admit there will be a saving on clothing, but do not concede it will be so large. It remains to be seen which is right. But the greatest tariff slashing was done in the wool, cotton and linen schedules, and some saving is bound to re-
