Vocational Conference Called. A vocational conference is to be held at the Montana State College in November under the direction of the dean. The purpose is to acquaint young women with the various lines of work now open to them, as an aid to intelligent choice of self-supporting occupations. Only two or three such conferences have been held in the United States. Each woman's club has pledged itself to send one or two high school girls to the conference, and to pay their expenses. The teacher's profession will not be considered at the conference.

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

TAKE A GLASS OF SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS IF BLADDER BOTHERS YOU—DRINK LOTS OF WATER

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation. The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders. Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

Klamath Club dances in seasons past have been among the greatest social successes of each year, but if the initial dancing party of the present series can be accepted as a criterion, the 1913 dances will surpass all previous efforts along such lines in the town's history. Wednesday night's dance was successful in every way, and the members are being congratulated by all who attended for the splendid entertainment accorded. In Mrs. E. B. Hall, of the new hotel management, the Klamath boys have discovered a valuable, resourceful and helpful ally, for under her direction, the White Pelican hotel was decorated for the occasion in a manner that surpasses all other decorative work in the history of the big hotel. Special decorations were secured from San Francisco, and the lobby and dining room were literally alive with Jack-o'-Lanterns, pumpkins, witches, cats, hobgoblins and other spooky subjects in silhouette and varicolored crepe and border. About seventy couples danced to the strains of Tindall's orchestra, and the program, with extras, etc., continued until midnight. Among those attending were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Brockenbrough, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Kent, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis F. Setzer, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Will C. Hurn, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Whitman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. On Thursday night the women of the Happy Hour Club entertained their husbands at the home of Mrs. S. T. Summers with an evening at five hundred. Miss Helen Du Paul, Miss Marjorie Detsell, Miss Adele Fitzpatrick, Miss Clara Calkins, Miss Claudia Spink, Tom Detsell, Clarence Montgomery, John Houston, Wilfrid Henry, Earl Everett, Estel Wirtz, Howard Winnard and Alfred Austad. The Spink home was appropriately decorated for the occasion with subdued lights, Jack-o'-Lanterns, greenery, etc. A fortune teller also added to the evening's entertainment. The young folks strove to outdo each other in the matter of suitable costumes, and there were many pretty character representations. The Leavitt sisters made a decided hit as George and Martha Hamilton. At 10 o'clock the party unmasked, and Halloween sports were enjoyed. An hour later a splendid repast was served by Mrs. Spink and Mrs. A. M. Worden, who assisted in the entertaining.

Halloween decorations were in order at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Spinning last night, when they entertained a number of friends at auction bridge. There were spoken decorations in professions, and Jack-
