Odd Fellows Wanted.
And if any Odd Fellow wants to know what they are wanted for, they want to be at the hall at 2:30 Sunday afternoon. The lodge officers want to see a good turnout, for they have their wants to be satisfied as well as all the brethren. The proposition is this: The entire lodge wants to fill a long-felt want.

Frank Swingle arrived in the city Thursday from Ashland, on his way to Langell Valley to look after his property interests in that section.

Charles Martin and E. B. Ramsby have returned from an auto trip through Langell Valley. Mr. Ramsby reports nearly all the grain threshed over there.

Society Notes

o-Lanterns and autumn leaves were used with pretty effect. Prizes for playing were won by Mrs. Wesley O. Smith and Herbert Gale. Another prize was won by Mrs. E. B. Hall. Following the games the guests were served a delicious two-course luncheon. The table was also bedecked for the occasion, the centerpiece being a large pumpkin, hollowed out, and filled with fruits, etc. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Reames, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Gale, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley O. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Richardson, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Mary Jackson and Hunter Savidge.

Nearly one hundred young people were in attendance at the Halloween social given by the Epworth League at Grace M. E. church last evening, which, members say, was one of the best ever given by the league. The church was decorated in black and yellow, with the usual array of pumpkins, etc., and the lights were all covered with yellow, adding to the effect. Each guest brought with him a little shoe, containing in pennies four times as much as his shoe size. Games and Halloween diversions were enjoyed, and were followed by a luncheon of pumpkins and apple cider. Remarks were made by Rev. E. C. Richards, Chairman Charles Rogers of the social committee and President Stanley Wood of the league.

Margaret and Buford Hargus were hostess and host at a Halloween party given Friday afternoon at the home of their mother, Mrs. Wesley O. Smith, which was attended by Mildred Taber, Frances McLane, Sybil Bamber, Zepha Rogers, Gene Hayden, Hillis McCall, Miles McLane, Marjorie Clark, Wilbur Harris, Innis Roberts, Freddie Goeller, Henry Gerber, Boyd Yaden and John Kuykendall. The decorations were in keeping with the season, and Halloween favors were also given out. The children enjoyed to the utmost games on the spacious lawn, and also tried a number of contests in the house, after which refreshments were served.

Members of the Mills Addition Embroidery Club spent a highly enjoyable afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Applegate Thursday. The afternoon was devoted to needlework and conversation, after which dainty refreshments were served.

The Friday Afternoon Club, an organization that meets fortnightly at the White Pelican Hotel, held its regular session Friday with Mrs. J. C. Brockenbrough as hostess. Bridge was played, and the prize went to Mrs. Schallcock. Following this, Mrs. Robert A. Johnson was taken in as a member, and refreshments were served. In attendance were Mrs. Fred English, Mrs. Fred Schallcock, Mrs. Thomas Hampton, Mrs. Herbert Gale, Mrs. Mary A. Jackson, Mrs. E. B. Hall, Mrs. Earl Whitlock and Mrs. Charles Meldrum.

Mrs. Clarence Underwood is entertaining the Bridge Club this afternoon at her home on High street. Among those present are Mrs. E. R. Reames, Mrs. Geo. Noland, Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt, Mrs. W. O. Smith, Mrs. R. M. Richardson, Mrs. Will W. Baldwin, Mrs. H. J. Benson, Mrs. Zim Baldwin, Mrs. Thos. Hampton and Miss Maud Baldwin.

A joyful crowd of the young 'uns gathered at the home of Miss Erma Bamber on Washington street Friday night and enjoyed Halloween games and pranks until a late hour. The refreshments served followed the spirit of the times, while the decorations were of the same description. Those present were the Misses Erma Bamber, Flora Ward, Karle Montgomery, Gertrude Wirtz, Clara Hicks, Veva Martin, Fern Hoagland, and Masters Robert Turner, Willie McMillan, Herman Foster, Homer Winter, Paul Hilton, Finny Carr, Ronald Jeffers, Floyd Sparks, Lester Sparks, Ira Oren.

To the ladies of the Sacred Heart church must go the credit of assembling the greatest number of dancers ever gathered together in a hall in Klamath Falls, for the attendance at their Halloween dance given at the Moose hall last night reached, for the first time in the history of the city, a little beyond the three hundred mark. The success of the dance was not a matter of attendance alone, however, as the uniquely appropriate decorations, the entrancing selections from the orchestra and the appetizing viands from the refreshment committee all deserves special mention and praise. Mesdames Riley, Robertson, Bolvin, Konop and McAndrews comprised the "feed" committee, and their efforts evoked warm words of approval from every caller at the banquet room. The floor committee was Miss Virginia Callahan, Miss Claudia O'Loughlin, Miss Pearl Bolvin, Miss Mary Schubert, Mrs. Fred Houston, Fred Houston, Mike Lavenik and J. B. McAllister, and each vied with the other seeing to it that all and sundry were plentifully supplied with dancing partners. The gathering could easily have been taken for a fashion show on account of the great number of elaborate gowns and smart frocks in evidence.

Two hundred people gathered at Grace Methodist church Tuesday evening to attend the reception given to the new pastor, Rev. E. C. Richards and wife. During the evening the following program was rendered: Mandolin and piano trio—Mrs. Birgean Fraker-Gambell, Miss Dorothy Masten, Miss Constance Fisher. Solo—Mrs. William Wagner. Solo—Mrs. Elmer Beardsley. Piano duet—Dorothy Masten and Lucille Waldron. Solo—Iris Turner.

A Suffragette Many Days After Marriage

Mrs. Eugene Boissvain, formerly Miss Inez Milholland, has come back to the United States after running off to wed a Dutchman. She arrived in New York the other day.

"I am still a suffragette," said she, and she seemed as valiant as ever. "What about the tyrant man?" she was asked.

But the former enemy of man refused to answer, and then the report-

Mrs. Jack McLean is entertaining the Five Hundred Club at her home on Ninth street. Auction bridge is being played, and the guests are Mrs. Louis Gerber, Mrs. E. W. Gowen, Mrs. E. B. Hall, Mrs. Silas Obenchain, Mrs. Charles I. Roberts, Mrs. Levi Willits, Mrs. Frank Ira White, Mrs. G. W. White, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. George H. Merryman, Mrs. Robert A. Johnson and Mrs. Gus Krause.

Arrangements for a dance to be given Tuesday night are being made by members of Ewauna Circle, Women of Woodcraft. This will be given in the west hall of the Odd Fellows building.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Murray left Friday for Portland, where they will remain for several months.

Canada cuts about 2,000,000 cords of pulp wood annually, about half of which is exported for manufacture in the United States.

It is claimed that some of the eucalyptus of Australia are taller than the California redwoods, hitherto considered the highest trees in the world.

ers know that there was at least one man who was not a tyrant.
Mrs. Boissvain, who was hailed for some years as the most beautiful exhibit in the American suffragette gallery, will continue her work in "the cause."

German foresters are experimenting with Douglas fir from the United States trying to find a variety which will combine the fast-growing quality of the Pacific Coast form and the hardness of the Rocky Mountain form.

Room and Board by Week or Month, $1.00 PER DAY

Table Board, $6.00 PER WEEK

Two Meals a Day, $4.50 PER WEEK

A limited number of men can now obtain quarters at this place. Lack of room makes it impossible to accommodate more than a few more in addition to those who now make this their home, but there is room for a few. The first applicants will be the fortunate ones. The Oregon House is the most home-like place in Klamath Falls, and it isn't necessary to say a word about the table.

OUR WEEKLY SERMON
"The Second Chance"
By R. J. S. Stubblefield, Pastor First Presbyterian Church

This Year's Grain Crop in Klamath County Is Estimated at One Million, Two Hundred Thousand Bushels

One-third more grain has been produced in Klamath County this season than has ever been produced before. This has been due mainly to the fact that we have in the last twelve months had quite an influx of new farmers. Within the next year there will be a great many more farmers coming into this county. This will mean increased business in the city of Klamath Falls. More business houses will be required to cope with the increase of trade. More workmen will have to be brought in. These workmen will require homes to live in. Property values will increase with the increased business. We have some choice locations which can be bought at a reasonable price on easy terms. Why not buy one of these lots, build on it and secure yourself of from 15 to 30 per cent interest on your investment? This is an opportunity to let your money make money. Why not take it? Call at our office for information as to good building locations.

Text: "And Peter." Mark 16:7.
Our text, "And Peter," is used in connection with the first message that Jesus sent to his disciples after his resurrection. Here Peter receives a little special attention. This seems strange, too, coming so soon after Peter had denied, with an oath, that he had ever known Jesus. Dr. Chapman says that these two words, "and Peter," are full of love, and from this text he gets a sermon of love, but when Peter received the message, I think the first thing he saw in it was another chance. Before the crucifixion Peter had said that he would be loyal to Jesus, even unto death, and a few hours later he denied him. Then Jesus was crucified and Peter had no chance to show how good his intentions really were. When Peter got this message, which said that Jesus had risen from the dead and would meet them in Galilee, I am sure Peter's first thought was, "Now I will have another chance of proving my loyalty."
The second chance is a very important factor in life. It is something that we all want for ourselves, especially when we fail. I think God put the desire for a second chance in every human heart. When a little child falls in a contest, if he has the right sort of stuff in him, he says: "I wish I had another chance." When a young man does something bad and society turns him out, he says: "I think I ought to have another chance." God put that feeling that he ought to have another chance into his heart. Today in our juvenile courts we are beginning to realize that the young man or young lady really ought to have another chance, and our best juvenile judges are giving them a second chance. I have never yet seen a business man of the right sort who failed who did not think he could make good if he only had another chance. If you will study carefully the lives of our most successful business men, it may surprise you to see how many succeeded only by virtue of the second chance. Even the conservative Russell Sage was at one time a bankrupt, and made his great fortune out of his second chance. Cyrus W. Field never could have put the cable under the Atlantic if he had not had a second chance. Demosthenes failed in his first oratorical efforts and succeeded only when he was given a second chance.
God himself seems very partial to the second chance. Almost every shrub that grows on the mountain side has some dormant buds near the surface of the ground. They just lie there under the bark and sleep until perhaps the top of the bush is broken, then they begin to grow. God put those buds there to give the bush a second chance. God thinks more of his children than he does of his shrubs, and he is just as willing to give them a second chance. He gave Adam and Eve a second chance after they had sinned. He gave Abraham, Jacob, Moses and Daniel a second chance. Our Lord's mercy is just as great now as it was in the past, for he is the same yesterday, today and forever.
