

ARLET-M'DOUGAL BUILDING BOUGHT BY C. E. WORDEN

CONSIDERATION WAS CLOSE TO FORTY THOUSAND

In the last year, Old-Timer Has Purchased Nearly $60,000 Worth of Property in That Part of the City

By the terms of a deal completed Tuesday, Major Charles E. Worden becomes the owner of the Arlett-McDougal block

The building was constructed along the most practical lines, and the best of materials were used

Major Worden is an old resident of this section, and is thoroughly conversant with local conditions

At the time Vice President Kruttschnitt visited Klamath Falls, he and his party were closeted with Major Worden for some time

Under a Washington date the Portland Journal prints a dispatch stating that Senators Chamberlain and Lane have urged the president to consider favorably application for a pardon for Pat C. Lavey

Misses Clara and Clarissa Pritchard, twin sisters, living at Albany, N. Y., passed the recent bar examinations, and will practice law

BONANZA SCHOOL DISTRICT IS SUED

HOW THAT HAS BEEN IN THE AIR SINCE LAST SEPTEMBER GETS INTO COURT—DAMAGES ARE DEMANDED

A suit for damages and expenses aggregating $1,485 was commenced against School District No. 2, Bonanza, by Thomas A. Barton, through Attorney H. M. Manning

According to the complaint, the school board of the Bonanza district last June entered into contract with him to teach at Bonanza this term, at a salary of $100 monthly for the term of nine months

Barton says that the annulling of the contract was illegal. He also states that the lateness of the date prevented him from securing employment as a teacher this year

He asks $900, the salary for the term, from the directors. In addition he asks to be reimbursed $58 for the expense of coming to Klamath county, and wants $500 damages for the humiliation placed upon himself and family

In 1867 Mrs. Deborah Van Ness of Mineola, I. T., now 92 years old, obtained a divorce from Cornelius H. Van Ness, who later married, and who died in 1911

As a feature of a dinner at the Bellevue-Stratford hotel, Philadelphia, given by the Edward T. Stokesbury, chattering monkeys entertained the guests by tearing to pieces priceless orchids with which the rooms had been decorated

Carranza Breaks With United States

Rebel Troops Capture Many Cities and Towns

LEADER OF REVOLUTION ATTEMPTED TO MAKE CREDENTIALS OF WILLIAM BAYARD HALE APPEAR TO BE RECOGNITION OF HIS REBELLION BY THE UNITED STATES—BIG LOSS OF GROUND BY THE FEDERALS

Noted Press Service. Nogales, Nov. 19.—Considering negotiations with the United States to be broken, General Carranza, head of the Mexican constitutionalista party, left with his cabinet for Hermosillo

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 19.—Officials today made it plain to Carranza that negotiations would end if their continuation depended upon Carranza receiving a card of credentials from William Bayard Hale

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 19.—Advice received here as to the effect that the constitutionalistas are routing the federal army in Northern Mexico, with fearful loss of life

In case of an invasion it is believed that at least half of the federal soldiers would desert to the ranks of the rebels. Loyalty to the Huerta cause is by no means strong, but the majority of the troops are remaining in the hopes of getting their back pay

LONDON, Nov. 19.—The admiralty at midnight ordered four cruisers stationed in the British West Indies to proceed to Vera Cruz. The squadron has sailed

COMFORT STATION QUARTERS GIVEN

WOMEN'S CIVIC LEAGUE SECURING ESTIMATES ON FURNISHINGS, ETC.—TO BE AT CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

At last evening's meeting of the Chamber of Commerce directors, the organization turned over to the Women's Civic League the middle room of the organization's quarters in the Loomis building to be used as a rest room

The offer of the Chamber of Commerce has been accepted by the Civic League. The League has been hard at work to secure a suitable comfort station for the benefit of farmers' wives and other women visiting the city

The League is now securing estimates on the cost of furnishings, plumbing, etc., for the rest room. The expense is to be defrayed by a fund the women are raising through a chain of ten-cent teas

Besides this, the Klamath Ministerial Association has voted to donate to the cause all the collection taken at the union Thanksgiving services

REBELS CONTROL THREE STATES IN NORTH OF MEXICO

CAPTURE OF GARRISON AT VICTORIA IS LATEST

Dispatches indicate hundreds were slain in this engagement—Defeat of Federals at This Point Placed in the Hands of Revolutionists Additional Artillery, Small Arms and Ammunition

BROWNSVILLE, Texas, Nov. 19.—Five thousand rebels, under General Gonzalez today crushed the 3,000 federal troops garrisoned at Victoria, inflicting fearful loss

Gonzales telegraphed rebel headquarters at Matamoros that the rebels lost four officers and forty men in the fight. The federals lost about 300 men

By taking the garrison the rebels captured four cannons, many rifles, a big supply of ammunition and 300 cavalry horses

The federals were pursued thirty miles from Victoria, becoming badly routed and disorganized

EMINENT COMMANDER HERE FROM GRANTS PASS—BANQUET WILL FOLLOW TONIGHT'S CELEBRATIONS

The annual inspection of Calvary Commandery, Knights Templar, will be held this evening in Masonic hall. Elwyn Jewell, the right eminent commander of the state commandery, arrived last evening from Grants Pass to conduct the inspection

Following the inspection and drill this evening a banquet will be given in honor of the visiting state officer

Upper Air is Very Cold. Tests made with balloons carrying meteorological instruments on Catalina Island, California, show that some balloons reached an altitude of 20.3 miles

EL PASO, Texas, Nov. 19.—Rebels confirm the reported capture of Victoria

The states of Sonora, Sinaloa, Chihuahua and Coahuila are controlled by the rebels, except the cities of Chihuahua, Tampico and Guaymas

The city of Chihuahua is surrounded by the rebels, and the capture of Tampico is predicted a certainty

There is some uneasiness here because of the lack of troops along the border, while General Villa is concentrating his 7,000 men at Juarez

In case of intervention, it is certain that all the Mexican factions would combine in defense. Some say the United States is unprepared here and at other border points in New Mexico, Arizona and California

To Check Use of Poison. As a result of many deaths from bichloride of mercury on the instance of Representative Mann of Illinois, two departments of the government are working on plans to prevent the careless sale of the poison

Home on a Visit. Miss Erma Hoagland arrived home Tuesday evening from Portland, to visit for a couple of weeks with her mother, Mrs. Nats Otterbein. Miss Erma was accompanied by her cousin, Miss Chlora Rippey

EVERYTHING CLOSED FOR THE WINTER—TOURIST TRAVEL TO CRATER LAKE THIS SUMMER THE GREATEST EVER

H. E. Momyer, chief ranger and acting assistant superintendent of Crater Lake National Park, returned last evening from the park headquarters. The park has been closed for the winter, and all supplies moved out and buildings locked up

The season just closed has been the largest in the number of tourists in the history of the park. The regular tourist season only lasts from about the middle of July to September 30th, and this year there were registered 6,255 tourists, compared to 5,233 for the year of 1912

August was the big month of the season, when 3,002 tourists visited the park. Mr. Momyer looks for a much heavier travel next season

DAIRYMEN MEET AT MILLER HILL

AT THIS EVENING'S GATHERING MATTER OF A CO-OPERATIVE CREAMERY WILL BE BROUGHT UP FOR DISCUSSION

A meeting of the Klamath County Dairymen's Association will be held this evening at the Miller Hill school house. A large attendance is expected. At tonight's meeting further consideration will be given to the idea of taking over the Klamath Falls creamery and operating it upon a co-operative basis

B. G. Terry was in from Miller Hill today

YOUNG MOTHER DIES SUDDENLY

MRS. JESSE DREW OF YONNA FALLS IN A FAINT AND ALL EFFORTS FAIL TO RESTORE THE VITAL SPARK

Mrs. Drew, wife of Jesse Draw a young farmer of Yonna Valley, died suddenly Tuesday afternoon

Mrs. Drew became a mother about a week ago, and was apparently getting along nicely, her natural high spirits causing all to believe that she was rapidly coming into her usual robust health

Praises the Crater Roads

Returned Official Reviews First Season's Work

Judging from the work already done, Crater Lake Park will have one of the finest systems of boulevards and driveways in the country

The building of the roads is being done by the war department, and all of the work is of the most permanent character. The road camp was closed for the year about the middle of October, and it is planned to start work next year as early as possible

The grade is now all completed up the mountain, and for a distance of 2 1/2 miles from the lake on the Klamath county side. This roadway is all ready for top surfacing, which will be put on in the spring after the heavy snows of the winter as to the class of surfacing that is to be used. The finished road will be either of macadam, asphalt or other hard surface material

Next spring work will be commenced at the south line of the park at Wildcat, and it is expected to complete the road clear through to the lake from the Klamath side

Sportsmen Fasting Today

Appetites Whetted for This Evening's Banquet

That lean and hungry look to be observed on the faces of some of the members of the Klamath Sportsmen's Association is not the result of serious worry, it comes from a vigorous dietetic training. No, not for any athletic contest, but for a gastronomic orgy

The aforementioned g. o. is the annual banquet of the Klamath Sportsmen's Association, which will be held this evening at the White Pelican hotel. At the same time, the annual meeting will be held, and officers will be elected for the ensuing year

From an epicurean standpoint, the banquet to be served this evening is absolutely faultless. Nothing has been overlooked that could be thought of by the most fastidious gourmand

Members of the association Sunday, and they are being prepared by the White Pelican chef in a manner irresistible

- The menu follows: Martina Cocktail, Canape Anchovy, Ripe Olives, Consomme Printanier, Fried Filet of Sole Remoulade, Potatoes Julienne, Small Pâté of Sweetbreads Toulouse, Roast Wild Duck, Currant Jelly, Wild Rice Dressing, Caudled Sweet Potatoes, Celery Salad, Mayonnaise, Vanilla Ice Cream, Assorted Cakes, Demitasse

Eight o'clock this evening is the appointed hour for this gathering of noble trenchermen, and all dyspeptics are solemnly warned to stand aside and let the participants display their ability with the food conveyors without the least semblance of restriction
