

MORE WARRANTS ATTACKED

Lumberman Is Plaintiff in the Suit Filed

Repudiation Action Is Started by Kuykendall & Ferguson Today to Cancel Nearly $300,000.00

Road Work, Poor Farm, and Cost of County Timber Cruise Are All Affected by Suit

An action to stop payment on warrants worth approximately $300,000 was filed against Klamath county today by R. N. Day, secretary of the Day Brothers Lumber company.

The suit affects practically every bit of road improvement done by the county court since County Judge W. S. Worden assumed office in January, 1911.

The suit also attacks the purchase of a poor farm site from Major Charles Worden in 1911, and seeks to have set aside the warrant for $4,420.10 issued in payment for the land.

A majority of the expenses incurred by the present poor farm are attacked, and the suit also seeks to set aside the warrants issued in payment for the cruise of the timber in the county, made by Doucher, Ryan and Miner.

It is intimated by many that in his attack on the county's road indebtedness, R. N. Day is backed by other big timber interests having holdings in Klamath county.

The suit filed today names as plaintiffs C. C. Low, sheriff; J. W. Stenens, county treasurer; C. R. De Lap, county clerk, and John Hagelstein and C. G. Merrill, commissioners, and William S. Worden, county judge.

It is alleged that the warrants were issued for voluntary indebtedness incurred by the county court in excess of the legal limitation. A temporary injunction is asked, to restrain the county treasurer from paying any of the warrants or the sheriff from receiving any as payment on taxes.

The exact amount of the warrants involved in the suit is $298,801.11.

More than 100 warrants issued to Harris & Co. for road work and construction, amounting to more than $5,000 are affected in the suit, and the Coast Bridge company and other big concerns furnishing steel and bridge material are also heavily hit in the suit.

Even the warrants issued to the men laboring on the roads are attacked in the suit. Practically every business house in Klamath county sold supplies to some road crew or for road work, and all of these warrants are attacked as to their validity.

The salary of M. A. McCall as county agriculturalist is also listed with the attacked warrants.

Among the warrants the suit seeks to cancel are two representing the expenses of the good roads rally held here last year by Colonel Thatcher.

The warrant issued the band for music at the good roads rallies is also on the list.

Preparation of this suit has been under way for several weeks. For some time men have been searching the county records, and going clear back to January, 1911, a list of all warrants for voluntary indebtedness has been compiled, and they are included in the action.

FINAL SCORE IS 22 TO 9 IN FAVOR OF THE WEST POINTERS — WILSON AMONG THE SPECTATORS

United Press Service

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—In this afternoon's game at the Polo Grounds the West Point team won from Annapolis. The score was 22 to 9.

It was the Army Mule versus the Navy Goat at the Polo Grounds today, and in that direction all roads from Washington, Baltimore, Boston and Philadelphia pointed. Army and navy officers and high government officials from Washington and surrounding army and naval stations were on hand.

President Wilson was the honored guest of the contending United States academies.

Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels sat with the Middies from Annapolis.

Secretary of War Lindley M. Garrison, as was the custom, occupied the box of honor in front of the stands reserved for the gray uniformed cadets from West Point.

Long before play was called, the grandstands, bleachers and specially constructed stands and boxes along the edges of the field were filled. The navy had been given 14,500 tickets and the army 12,500.

The usual seating capacity of the Polo Grounds was added to by the erection of the special stands along the side lines, and approximately 40,000 spectators witnessed the contest.

Carranza's Troops Shooting a Federal Officer

This photograph was taken at Juarez during the capture of that city by the troops of Carranza for the control of Mexico. It was taken about the time Carranza made his statement that he would not permit looting nor extreme cruelty by his troops. An officer of Huerta's small army, some 140 men, in Juarez, was driven out in the early morning by Carranza's Constitutionalists. Some officers escaped across the bridge to El Paso others were captured and at once shot. The officer shown here was shot and was prone on the ground wounded. An officer of one of Carranza's companies deliberately drew his pistol and fired another shot into the wounded man's back, killing him.

FOOTBALL BOYS AREN'T TALKING

HAVE NOTHING TO SAY ABOUT THE ALLEGED UNFAIR TREATMENT AT THE HANDS OF THE ASHLAND HIGH

Klamath county should be proud of its high school football squad, for they have stood the supreme test and proven themselves royal losers.

Coach McCall, Manager Noel, Umpire Elliott and the entire bunch of pigskin artists who made the trip to Ashland for the Thanksgiving game are so mum regarding any unfair treatment at the hands of the Ashland management that the oyster is a loquacious bird in comparison.

When the boys arrived home last night quite a number of their friends met them at the depot, asking for particulars of the rumored unfair methods employed by their opponents, but not a word of criticism could be heard.

To change the subject, they told of the wonderful work of Garrett and McClure on the field, and the starring of "Society Stew" as a breaker of hearts.

On Thanksgiving night the boys from Klamath Falls motored to Medford to attend the Elks ball and take in a show at the Medford opera house.

HUERTA RESORTS TO FAKING PRESS STORIES FROM U.S.

TRIES TO TELL PEOPLE RACE WAR IS ON HERE

Dictator, Through Medium of His Papers, Inform Public Bryan and Wilson Are Too Engrossed With Affairs Here to Bother With Mexico—Mexican Foreign Secretary to Talk With U. S. Ambassador.

United Press Service

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 29.—How desperately Huerta is fighting to prevent the dissolution of his regime is indicated in official dispatches saying that Huerta controlled newspapers in Mexico have been printing stories of a revolution progressing in America between the white and blacks. The stories say that the race war is spreading in Indiana, Colorado and Texas at such a rapid rate that President Wilson and Secretary Bryan have no time to bother about Mexico.

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 29.—Following a long conference between Secretary of the American Embassy Eugene O'Shaughnessy and the Japanese minister, it is persistently rumored in government circles that a settlement of the Mexican-American difficulties is due within forty-eight hours.

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 29.—Foreign Secretary Moheno has gone to Vera Cruz. It is presumed that his mission is for a consultation with Ambassador Lind, the special representative of President Wilson.

EL PASO, Tex., Nov. 29.—Two thousand rebels left Juarez last night and this morning to join General Villa, who left Juarez with three thousand troops. Two thousand more will leave Juarez this afternoon.

There are persistent though unconfirmed rumors that the federals have General Villa hemmed in at Humada, and that the rebels are pressing in from the north. If this is true a battle is expected this afternoon or tomorrow. Otherwise the federals will probably continue their retreat toward Chihuahua.

Missionaries Tortured

Chinese Bandits Are Bloodthirsty Lot of People

United Press Service

PERKIN, Nov. 29.—Rev. H. S. Fauke, a missionary connected with the Norwegian Lutheran Brothers Missionary Society, has just arrived in this city from Northern Hupeh.

Rev. Fauke describes the sufferings of the American and Norwegian missionaries who were captured by the Chinese brigands under "White Wolf" in that district. He said that the bandits raided the mission on the 24th of last September.

All the male missionaries were taken prisoners, and were separated from their wives and families.

During the battle of Tsaoayang between the rebels and federals, which lasted for several days, Rev. Fauke and Rev. George Holm, an American, hid in a pile of wheat straw in a house occupied by the bandits for three days without food or water.

Searchers prodded the straw with bayonets on several occasions. They were finally discovered by a friendly Chinaman, who brought them food and water. They later rejoined their families after they had been driven from the city.

The bandits murdered upward of 2,000 persons, and looted the city of Tsaoayang.
