served at the White Pelican hotel from 5 to 8, which was attended by many. The dining room was prettily decorated for the occasion in an appropriate manner, and cut flowers in profusion graced the tables. Music was furnished by Tindall's orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hall were host and hostess to the following at the White Pelican: Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Reames, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Spinning, Mrs. Mary A. Jackson, Mrs. Mary Griffith, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Martin, Hunter Savidge, W. H. Bennett, Mr. Bray and John Griffith.

Sociability was the keynote of the stag party given at the hotel by members of the Klatawa Club. At this table were Albert Albrecht Oehler, Hugo Loewe, L. G. Van Bellen, John Siemens Jr., Lawrence Mahaffey and Garrett Van Riper.

Another party at the White Pelican was comprised of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Robertson and Mr. and Mrs. Bert E. Withrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Lewis Leavitt, Miss Florence Bowen, Thomas J. Sinnott and Philip J. Sinnott were also Thanksgiving guests at the hostelry, as were Miss Claudia O'Laughlin and Joe P. Brett.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gerber, in addition to the members of the Gerber family, there were Dr. George H. Merryman and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Orv Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Gowen, Miss Ruth Morris, Miss Chrysanthemums, turkeys, ducks, geese, cranberry sauce, pumpkin pie, fruit cake, special church services, dancing parties, family reunions, dinner parties—in fact, all of the other things usually connected with Thanksgiving (football game alone excepted) were as usual the order of the day in Klamath Falls on Thursday of this week. The fatted calf and the fatted turkey and other fowl, were predominant on all the tables, and there were many enjoyable dinners all over the city. It goes without saying that there are times when even the Partisan Scribe of the Herald is unable to chronicle a full account of all the social functions, and this usually holds true of these joyous feasts of Thanksgiving.

A special Thanksgiving dinner was Lois Myers, Edmund Gowen, William M. Duncan and Harold C. Merryman. The dining room was decorated with chrysanthemums and a big Thanksgiving repast was served.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hogue had as their guests Thanksgiving, Rev. J. B. Stubblefield and wife, Ethel and Gertrude Stubblefield, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Wilson and Dr. A. A. Soule of Fort Klamath. The afternoon proved highly enjoyable for all in attendance.

One of the most enjoyable Thanksgiving dinners was given Thursday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Johnson, when they had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Brewbaker, Mr. and Mrs. William McMillan, Miss Greta McMillan, J. Vert Brewbaker, Floyd McMillan and William McMillan Jr. An impromptu after dinner session was held late in the afternoon.

By far the most successful dancing party ever given in Klamath Falls was the Thanksgiving hop of the Klatawa Club at the White Pelican. Eighty-five couples were in attendance, the largest number yet assembled at one of these parties, and from all who attended the members of the club are bombarded with one question, "when will the next dance be?"

Are You Prepared for Christmas?

It is now less than a month until Christmas, and if you have not already made your purchase of Christmas Gifts it is time that you were thinking about it.

My purchase of the Pelly bankrupt stock of jewelry at about 40 cents on the dollar has made my store a very popular store for the past two weeks for Christmas shoppers.

Because of the low price at which I have purchased this stock I have been able to place it on the market at wholesale prices. This is your opportunity. Notice the varied assortments of gifts:

THEY DON'T EAT SO MANY HORSES

OFFICIAL REPORTS TO GERMAN GOVERNMENT SAY THE CONSUMPTION OF DOBBIN STEAKS WAS MUCH LESS

BERLIN, Nov. 29.—In the first eight months of this year 8,743 horses were eaten in Berlin, according to the government meat inspection reports issued today. This is a reduction of 500 horses as against the same period last year.

ELY'S CREAM BALM OPENS CLOGGED NOSTRILS AND HEAD--CATARRH GOES

Instantly Clears Air Passages; You Breathe Freely; Dull Headache Goes; Nasal Catarrhal Discharge Stops.

Try "Ely's Cream Balm."

Get a small bottle anyway. Just to try it—Apply a little in the Nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning, the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will disappear.

End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat the nostrils; penetrates and heats, inflamed, swollen membrane, lines the nose, head and throat; clears air passages; stops nasal charges and a feeling of clear, soothing relief comes immediately. Don't lay awake tonight struggling for breath, with head and nostrils closed, hawking and blowing Catarrh or a cold, with its run nose, foul mucous dripping into throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless. Put your faith—just once—"Ely's Cream Balm" and your catarrh will surely disappear. (Paid Advertisement)
