INDIANS GO TO ATTEND COURTS

SUPERINTENDENT AND SEVERAL WITNESSES GO TO PORTLAND. OTHER NEWS FROM THE RESERVATION

(Herald Special Service)

KLAMATH AGENCY, Dec. 2.—Superintendent Edson Watson and several Indians have gone to Portland, to attend the session of the federal district court. These will appear as witnesses at the trial of George Grey, who is accused of giving liquor to Melin Johnson, a minor.

A most enjoyable dance was given at Wilson's hall Thanksgiving. The dancing kept up until 2:30 in the morning, and the guests all departed saying they had an excellent time.

Edwin Wilson and wife left Saturday for Portland. Wilson will be interpreter in the trial of George Grey in the federal court there.

Engineer H. W. Hincks, in charge of the Modoc Point irrigation project, and his men are building the lateral from the main ditch. The main canal is almost completed. If Hincks continues to build his ditches as fast as he has been going, we will have a great many of them completed in a short time, which means wealth for the reservation and country.

Miss Elsie Picard of Yreka was a visitor on the reservation last week. She returned home Saturday.

There have been several snow falls lately.

While coming home from the Klamath marsh Friday, Harry and Henry Wilson saw a large bear's tracks in the fresh snow, traveling westward, toward Mt. Scott. They took it for granted that it was the footprint of a grizzly, and also decided that it had a den in that section. It is reported that after seeing the track Henry was a most nervous man all day. We are all wondering what would happen if he would see an elephant track in the African jungle.

AFTER GRAFT IN INDIAN AFFAIRS New Commissioner Going to It Redhot

Better Cattle and Better Chances Are to Be Given

By BURTON K. STANDISH
(Written for the United Press)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 2.—The reign of graft in Indian affairs must end. That is the edict of Cato Sells, United States Commissioner of Indian affairs, business man, lawyer, banker, public office holder, and, above all, a red-blooded, two-fisted fighting man.

Ruling over the affairs of a fast dying people, who own $900,000,000 worth of the richest grazing, oil, mineral land of the West, Sells has determined that the Indians shall no longer be the prey of a vast group in whom the spirit of graft was rampant—"carrion," he calls them.

The heartless grasping of "attorneys" and "guardians" administering the estates of Indian children called most strikingly to Sells' attention the need of reform, and a quick one.

While white children's estates are ordinarily settled at a cost of only 3 per cent, the average price on Indian children's estates has been 20 per cent. These children are the richest average children in the country; their properties often are $50,000, and frequently this entire amount has been grafted by the unscrupulous.

"I am going to put a few of these men in the penitentiary as an object lesson," Sells declared today, "and I'll see that some more go if there is a continuance of this ruthless raiding of Indians."

He feels that Oklahoma has had graft stamped into its very nature. Now he is working toward a complete reorganization of the Indian affairs system, so that the 300,000 Indians may have a fair treatment, so that their lands—the only grazing lands—shall yield more cattle and greater returns.

New leases of Indian lands to cattle kings, oil operators and miners will be at new figures. No more will the rich fields of the Osages go at $3 an acre; hereafter they will command $50 or more. This is only part of the ambitious program of this man who directs holdings vaster than the steel corporations. His is a constructive idea.

No Reason for It You Are Shown a Way Out.

There can be no reason why any reader of this who suffers the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the pains and dangers of kidney ills, will fail to heed the word of a resident of this locality who has found relief. The following is convincing proof:

Mrs. William Charley, 305 N. Grape street, Medford, Ore., says: "The action of my kidneys was irregular and the kidney secretions were unnatural. I had much pain in the small of my back and sometimes I could hardly bend or straighten. At night the trouble bothered me and often I couldn't sleep. I tried plasters and liniments, but nothing helped me. When almost discouraged, I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills. In less than two weeks after I began taking them, I felt better. I used in all four boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and they made me well. I gladly confirm the endorsements I have given Doan's Kidney Pills before. Doan's Kidney Pills completely cured me of kidney trouble that I have had no sign of it for over three years."

the Western range, owned by Indians, are being wiped out and replaced by sturdier strains under Sells' direction. He is opening up these lands to profitable investment instead of to grafters.

He is seeking to upbuild the strength and education of the remaining Indians. Thirty-four industrial schools for Indian children are now under his care, and there are likely to be more before his regime is ended. Irrigation lands, too, are opening rapidly. Many of the Indians are having their opportunity to cultivate these places, but heretofore they have been sent in without proper equipment. Sells proposes that this system shall end, and that the Indians shall have the same opportunity that the white men have.

The job of Indian commissioner, with him, is a business proposition. He answered an altruistic call when he took up the proposition, for he had retired from active business, and had planned to settle down in Texas, where he has lived in ever since he left Iowa after a brilliant career as a United States attorney.

Secretary Lane let it be known that he wanted a man of ability, not a job-seeker, a man of red blood and purpose, not a weakling. He heard of Sells and his fight against pension grafters in the Middle West, and he found that Sells was indeed a regular fighting man, with ability, altruism, enthusiasm. And that's how today Secretary Lane has a man on the job of Indian affairs fourteen hours a day, and that's why a new era is dawning in Oklahoma and the other Indian states.

Modern Woodmen Rates to Cause a Big Fight

United Press Service

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., Dec. 2.—The final desperate battle between the head camp officers and the ranking Modern Woodmen of America over the question of an increase in the rates of insurance in the order, which during the past two years has been marked as the bitterest struggle in the history of fraternal orders in America, will be fought out in the seventeenth triennial meeting of the order at Toledo, Ohio, June 16, 1914.

The council, having set the date, is today making preparations for the biggest meeting in the history of the order. Fully 175,000 members will attend, drawn by the struggle which they claim involves the very life of the organization.

The rate question was first raised in its present form at the triennial meeting at Buffalo in 1911. Action was postponed until the winter, when a special meeting of the head camp was held in Chicago, and a readjustment of rates voted.

All the rates are higher than those hitherto prevailing, and those for the older members of the order are three to nine times higher.

Throughout the country, and especially in the states of Illinois, Iowa,

Kansas and Missouri, the rates were strongly resented.

Several test cases were brought to court, resulting in judgments against the order. The rate was not imperative, the financial stability of the order, since the benefits of the organization are mutual and reciprocal, the rates cannot be increased without the consent of the majority of the membership.
